COLLEGE LEGIONS

HEAD QUARTERS—LOUISIANA LEGION.

New Orleans, October 29, 1849.

ORDER No.—

CONFORMABLY to law, the Legion of Louisiana will take arms and assemble on Sunday, 10th November next, at 8 o'clock precisely, in the morning, in the Place Square, for inspection and review.

The Commanders of Companies will forward to the Brigade Inspector, Major Brosnan, an exact list of each company present at the review.

The Uniform of Companies will be as follows: Captain J. Pax, Lauzier, will assemble at the place built for the review, in full regalia, and report the number.

The Chiefs of the different Corps are charged each with all which concerns them in the execution of the present order.

By order of the Brigadier-General, CHARLES CHEVALIER, Commander of the Brigade of Cavalry.

CHARLES L. DUROCHER, Aide-Camp.

ELTMEN PARY MUSIC SCHOOL,

CONDUCTED BY

MADAME BOLY, AND MR. VARNEY.

BY the method of simultaneous instruction, young girls can in public or in private, acquire in a few months, the advantages of singing and the Solfeggio. They soon become qualified to execute choruses and concerted pieces.

An advantageous system of tuition, which ensures a rapid progress for the most backward pupils, will be given three times a week, from 4 o'clock till half past six o'clock, P. M.

Terms—$1 per month.

☞ The course will be given at Mr. G. Bayer's, Canal street, between Dauphin and Burgundy st. 017
