833. SOURCES DE COODER 1853

LE soussigné après l'entière distribution des FABRIQUES DE COODER et peut maintenant recevoir les voyageurs. Une nouvelle salle à manger à côté cuisinière, les chambres à coucher ont été refaites de neuf, et meublées à neuf, en un mot l'établissement a été complétement réparé.

CINQ CENTS PERSONNES PEUVENT FACILEMENT TROUVER A SE LOGER, et on n'en reçoit pas plus que l'établissement ne le comporte.

Il n'y a pas d'endroit qui convienne davantage aux MALADES. Les médecins recommandent fortement ces SOURCES. On ne manque pas de guérir. Les eaux qu'elles ont effectuées. On pourra consulter en s'adressant à l'établissement, les détails de plus grandes guérisons qui y ont été obtenues.

Les prix restent modérés et le propriétaire fera tous ses efforts pour rendre agréable aux voyageurs le séjour de son hôtel.

Le chemin de fer de Vicksburg Jackson et Raymond transportera les phaetons à Raymond, et de là ils seront conduits à trois milles des sources, par les de W. H. Gunn.

On parcourt en moins de trois heures la distance de Vicksburg aux Sources. Les voyageurs peuvent se procurer, au dépôt du chemin de fer, à Vicksburg, des billets pour toute la route de Vicksburg aux Sources.—Prix, $4 50.

NOUVELLES SOURCES DE BLADON.

Nous recevons de l'un de nos correspondants de Mobile la lettre suivante, nous nous empressons de la donner insérée :

MOBILE, 15 mai 1853.

MM. les Editeurs de l'AMELIE,—Vouliez faire savoir à vos lecteurs le bonheur inattendu pour moi et mes enfants, propriétaire des NOUVELLES SOURCES DE BLADON, après plus d'une fois ouverture de son hôtel, se trouvant et à recevoir des personnes de toutes les parties du pays de juin. Cet établissement qui ne laisse rien à désirer sous le rapport du confortable et de l'élégance, se trouve maintenant rempli de voyageurs, M. Cullum une l'espérer. Les eaux, les antiseptiques, ne feront pas défaut aux nouveaux malades.

Il n'y a en aucun moment complet d'articles de première nécessité, qu'ils vendront au plus bas prix de gros.

RILLIEUX & REGGIO.
