Mr. Burthe, Chairman of the Committee on public education, to whom had been referred the report of the Secretary of State, as superintendant of public education, reported, that adopting some of the views suggested by that officer, they had the honor to recommend the adoption of a bill, which they introduced, entitled,

"An Act to amend the Act supplementary to the several Acts concerning public education." Read for the first time.

On motion of Mr. Moore, the Senate took up the bill entitled, "An Act to amend an Act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Clinton and Port Hudson Rail Road; approved on the 3d February, 1833." First section read, and further consideration fixed for the special order of the day for to-morrow.

A message from the Governor, by Mr. V. Degruys, his private Secretary, informed the Senate that he had approved and signed a bill from the Senate, entitled "An Act relative to the publication of notices to be given of the nomination of curators to vacant successions, homologation of accounts &c.

On motion of Mr. Lacoste, the Senate took up the bill entitled "An Act for the relief of the sheriff of the parish of Plaquemines." On motion for the adoption it was lost.

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. A. Pilot, their Clerk, requested the concurrence of the Senate in the resolutions and bills entitled:

The same message informed the Senate that the House had concurred in a bill entitled "An Act to amend an Act to incorporate the Carrollton Rail Road Company;" and that the Committee of Enrolment of the House had reported as duly enrolled, the bill from the Senate, entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Society for the relief of destitute widows and indigent females;" whereupon the President of the Senate signed the same.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until Monday at 10 o'clock, A. M.

STATE OF LOUISIANA.—Parish Court of the Parish and City of New Orleans.—I do hereby certify that on the 24th February 1834, judgment was rendered in the suit of Charles Lemaitre vs Désirée Dardennes his wife, in the following words and figures, to wit:—No. 6518—Charles Lemaitre vs Désirée Dardennes his wife.—The Court after duly weighing the evidence produced by the plaintiff, the defendant having offered none considering—

1st That direct proof of adultery is seldom, if ever to be obtained, and as fact is not required.

2d That although the testimony of none of the witnesses heard on the trial of this cause, goes so far as to show that the defendant was detected in the actual commission of adultery, still seven persons who appear perfectly disinterested, and whose veracity has not been impeached, all concur in relating a series of circumstances from which an adulterous intercourse between the defendant and one Antoine Valette must irresistibly be inferred, and which have operated in the mind of the court, a moral conviction that the adultery charged in the plaintiffs petition has really been committed by the defendant.

3d. That the only question now submitted to the court is, whether the divorce prayed for is to be granted or not, the other questions arising in the suit, being reserved for further decision.

It is ordered, adjudged and decreed, that Judgment of divorce be entered in favor of the plaintiff; that the bonds of matrimony hitherto existing between him and the defendant be dissolved; that Charles Lamaitre, a child about seven years old, born of the marriage, be confided to the plaintiff, and that the defendant pay the costs,—the fate of another child born since the institution of the suit, as well as the mooted concerns of the parties, is to be hereafter settled by the decision of this court.

New Orleans, March 1, 1834.

[Signed] CHARLES MAURIAN, judge.

Judgment recorded in Judgement Docket C. p. 69.—Costs of court $66 62½; sheriff's fees —.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the said court at the city of New Orleans, on this 1st day of March, in the year of our Lord, 1834, and in the 58th year of the independence of the United States.
