E. JOHNS & Co.'s NEW EDITION of the CIVIL CODE of LOUISIANA.—This long expected and much wanted work, is now received, and for sale at the stage of the subscribers.

The subscription list is closed from this day. Subscribers to this book are respectfully requested to call for their copies, and to pay the amount.

The first respects the delay on account of the number of subscribers, which would make it impossible to deliver them all for some time to come; the second may be easily conceived—the enormous expense the publishers have undergone in getting up this book in the splendid manner it has been executed, will be a sufficient apology for the same.

SCHOOLS.

MR. MONCENOT, Professor of Dancing, gratefully arrived, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans, that he will give private lessons in this delightful art. He will teach the newest and most graceful steps, likewise waltzing.—Mr. M. not having the honor of being known, is desirous of teaching either in a school, or to a number of young persons, for the purpose of proving that by means of this new method he will enable all persons who are at all disposed to dance as well as walk with grace and facility in thirty lessons. Those who may be desirous of learning fancy dances, as the Gavotte, Anglaise, Cossack, and all the steps belonging to these dances, together with dancing steps for summer, may acquire them by applying to him.

Price $60 per month—Three lessons per week; twelve tickets at $12. Those who are willing to honour him with their confidence, are requested to write directed to his dwelling, 283, corner of St Philip and Dauphine streets, where he will give lessons on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The morning from 10 to 12 o'clock are devoted to the Ladies. The afternoons from 4 to 7 are devoted to the Gentlemen.

METHOD OF LEARNING TO READ IN 20 LESSONS.—MR. VANNIER, surveyor, former engineer on the Burgundy Canal, author of the unpublished abridged method to teach reading French in 20 lessons, proposes to put this admirable method into practice, either in private lessons, or in the public course which takes place every day, from 6 o'clock in the morning to 10 at night, at 150 Chartres street, or at 64 St Ann.

The professor will apply the same abreviated method of instruction, according to the intelligence of pupils, to writing, orthography, arithmetic, geometry, algebra, linear drawing, mensuration, book-keeping, and accounts of all kinds. n27

DANCING ACADEMY.
NEW METHOD.

J DEVOTI, for the last two years Professor in the St. Convent of the Sacred Heart, and in the Jefferson and Baton Rouge Colleges, has the honor to inform the ladies and gentlemen of New Orleans that he has opened his course of lessons at madam Lefay's, no. 80 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville.

He will teach elegance of gait, the most modern steps, waltzing, the figures of the newest quadrilles, &c. &c.

Three lessons will be given per week—at 4 o'clock P.M. for the ladies, and at 7 o'clock in the evening for gentlemen.

The price will be $8 per month, payable in advance.

Private lessons will be given at the rate of $12 for twelve lessons.

He hopes that all who appreciate this branch of a finished education will continue him their patronage.

Every month, in order to ascertain the progress of the young ladies, a ball will be given in presence of the parents, at the academy.

EP Apply, at Mr. A. Docas, corner St. Louis st. and Exchange alley. nov13

CALLEGRAPHY—Mr. Leon Dutreuil, well known in New Orleans for his different works of calleg raphy, has the honor of informing those persons desirous of acquiring an elegant commercial hand, that he pledges himself to correct the very worst writer in from 30 to 36 lessons. His method is that adopted in France by the Royal Council of Public Instruction, and adopted by all the first institutions in Paris.

He likewise teaches round and other writing, with all the ornaments that accompany the latter.

Lessons in town, or at his house, Exchange passage, between Conti and Bienville streets.

N B—Mr. L. Dutreuil continues to execute figured writing on albums, music, poetry, and other pieces of ornamental writing, and undertakes to write for the Louisiana Legion, in one word every thing belonging to the art of writing. n6—1m
