FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY.
FOR CONGRESS—FIRST DISTRICT:
GEORGE K. ROGERS.

NEW-ORLEANS:
THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1843.

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

From the subjoined proceeding it will be apparent that our whig friends of that portion of the second district comprised within the limits of the second municipality, have unanimously and enthusiastically concurred in nominating Gov. WHITE as a candidate for Congress. We have not an earthly doubt that the choice of the whigs here will be warmly approved by every parish in the district. There is not on the floor of our National Councils a truer, firmer, and more faithful whig than EDWARD D. WHITE. Congress does not contain a purer patriot or more honest man. With few pretensions to the graces of oratory, he possesses an enlarged intellect and a ripe judgment. The best evidence of his capacity and services is to be found in the fact, that after filling the highest office within the gift of the people of the state, Gov. WHITE has been three times elected to Congress—on each occasion, with an opposition little more than nominal.

The locofoco party, it appears, have determined this time to make a desperate effort to defeat the sturdy old patriot, and for this purpose they pit against Governor WHITE, one MILES TAYLOR, a nondescript politician with whig principles and locofoco personal preferences. If he come within 500 votes of an election, we shall begin to question the staunch republicanism of the whigs of the second district:—

WHIG MEETING—SECOND DISTRICT.

According to previous notice, a meeting of the whigs of the Second Municipality, was held at Banks' Arcade on Tuesday evening, 9th May. The meeting was called to order by Mr. N. A. VIENNE, who nominated as President, WM. H. AVERRY, Esq.

As Vice Presidents, Messrs.

J. U. LAVILLE LECVRE,	JOHN NICHOLSON,
Col. WM. CHRISTY,	L. U. GAIENNIE,
A. P. SIMPSON,	DAVID JOHN ROGERS,
JAMES H. LEVERICH,	JOS. A. BEARD,
CUTHBERT BULLITT,	DR. DALTON.

Secretaries, A. T. PICKRELL and ADOLPHE LAYET.

On motion of N. A. Vienne, duly seconded, the President appointed the following gentlemen on the committee to draft resolutions for the approval of the meeting:

Messrs. G. W. Bradbury, N. A. Vienne,
T. G. Hunt, F. Jordy,
B. Rodriguez.

During the absence of the committee, R. N. Ogden, Esq., being loudly called for, responded in a few brief and pertinent remarks:

The committee then reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

An occasion has arrived when the whigs of Louisiana are once more called upon by the highest demands of the duty they owe to their party and their principles, to enter the field and make one more noble effort to redeem the political character of the State of Louisiana, a State which proved itself in 1840 to be second only to Kentucky and Vermont—the third Whig State in the Union. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the present crisis, no whig in the State can neglect to perform his duty in the approaching Congressional election, without being accessory to an indirect sentence of approval of the course of the Traitor Tyler, and of the present allies of that functionary—the locofocos of the Union.

Resolved, That the Second Congressional District "MUST AND SHALL BE PRESERVED" a whig district; and that we pledge ourselves—whigs of the Second Municipality, in this the strong hold of the party in the State—to strike a blow in the cause of the Union and for the sake of Henry Clay, which shall prove that "the same old coon" is yet in the land of the living.

Resolved, That we challenge our whig brethren of the parishes of Jefferson, St. Charles, St. John the Baptist, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Lafourche Interior, and Terrebonne, to a friendly and honorable trial of strength in the approaching election, and that the whigs of the Second Municipality will spare no effort to give the largest majority for the regular candidate for Congress.

Resolved, That the whigs of the district, at the election last July, declared their preference for the Hon. EDWARD D. WHITE at the ballot box, and that entertaining the utmost confidence in his worth as a citizen, his patriotism and ability as a statesman, his fidelity as a representative, and his unchanged and unchangeable independence as a whig, we cordially recommend him to our friends as the regular whig candidate to represent the Second District in the next Congress.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inform Gov. WHITE of his selection by this meeting, and to request his acceptance of the nomination.

The President then appointed the following gentlemen a committee to wait on the Hon. E. D. WHITE:

Col. Wm. Christy, A. P. Simpson,
J. A. Amelung, Dr. D. J. Rogers,
N. A. Vienne.

Mr. WHITE was escorted to the Stand by the Committee, and delivered a most eloquent speech, signifying his unqualified acceptance of the nomination.

On motion, the proceedings were ordered to be published in the whig papers of this city.

WM. H. AVERY, President.
A. T. PICKRELL, ADOLPHE LAYET, } Secretaries.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

The news from Virginia still continues favorable.—The whigs have further gained a member in Marshall, one in Matthews and Middlesex, and one in Tyler, which gives them a clear gain of eleven members—equal to 22 in joint ballot. With a little more concerted action they would undoubtedly have carried the Legislature. The result is even yet uncertain.

For Congress, in the first district, it seems almost positive that Langhorne (w.) has beaten Atkinson (l. f.), some two or three votes; but the election is so close, that nothing but the official returns will place it beyond dispute.

Third District—Messrs. Gilmer (w.) and Coles (l. f.) the opposing candidates. The returns not complete.—Gilmer reported elected.

Fourth District—Mr. Toler, the whig candidate, is defeated by about 50 votes.

Fifth District—The result is yet uncertain. The Tyler candidate, Gilmer, was believed to be beaten, but the contest between him and Goggin has been unusually spirited and severe, and the result is not yet known. The chances are decidedly in favor of Goggin.

Sixth District—Jones' (l. f.) majority is about 20.

Seventh District—Wise is re-elected by 200 majority—500 less than his friends had claimed. The vote was every where small—the people preferring to stay at home, despite Mr. Wise's frantic exhortations.

Eighth District—Newton, whig, beats Hunter (Tyler l. f.) 181 votes in the District.

Ninth District—Chilton (w.) elected by some 500 majority.

Eleventh District—This district is hopelessly locofoco—nevertheless Stuart (w.) made a beautiful run, and got five hundred votes more than were ever given to a whig. Wm. Tyler (l. f.) is the member elect.

In the Twelfth and Thirteenth Districts, there is no opposition to the locofoco candidates. In the Fourteenth District—Summers, (w.) is supposed to be re-elected. In the Fifteenth, Steenrod (l. f.) chosen without opposition.

☞Samuel Vine alias James Claudius Paxton, one of the individuals arrested by Capt. Taylor at the Balize, was re-examined yesterday morning by Recorder Baldwin, and sentenced to thirty days imprisonment in the work-house, upon the charge of vagrancy.

LUCREZIA BORGIA.—The lovers of melody must not forget that to-night is the first representation of Donizetti's new opera "Lucrezia Borgia"—and that CASTELLAN personates the beautiful but infamous and cruel heroine of the piece. Report speaks highly of the music.

ANOTHER SOLDIER OF THE REVOLUTION GONE.—Mr. Henry Stroop, a soldier of the Revolution, aged 96 years, died at his residence, near Darby, Vt., on the 20th April. He was a lieutenant in the Continental Army during the whole of the Revolutionary War, under Gen. Washington. His wife died ten days before him, in the 94th year of his age, and have left a large and respectable family. They were much esteemed by all who knew them.

☞The whigs of West Feliciana held a public meeting on the 1st inst., at St. Francisville, and appointed delegates to the convention to assemble on the 15th inst., for the selection of a whig candidate to represent the third district in congress.

THE AMERICAN WHIG.—We have received the first number of a new daily paper published in Baltimore under the above title. It is well filled with interesting political matter, ably conducted, and sustains gallantly the cause of HARRY OF THE WEST.

NAVAL.—The U. S. sloopp of war Falmouth sailed from Pensacola on Monday last. The Vincennes was at anchor off the city wharf, and the Boxer was lying off the yard.

☞The Cincinnati Gazette, a very able whig paper, has been greatly enlarged, and is printed with new and beautiful type.

☞A few of those rare dainties, fresh halibut and lobsters, are to be found on board the brig Niger, from Boston, now lying at the old Beef Market.

J. W. TYSON, Esq., of Philadelphia, has, it is said, been appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs, vice T. H. Crawford removed.

SOLOMON HILLEN, Esq., Mayor of Baltimore, has temporarily withdrawn from the duties of his office on account of ill health.

MORALITY OF GOTHAM.—A woman named Hernandez was recently desperately wounded in New York by her own husband. Cause, jealousy.

Springfield, the capital of Illinois, has elected whig charter officers by 100 majority.

LATEST FROM YUCATAN.

By a gentleman arrived last evening on board schooner Ann Jane, four days from Sisal, we have been favored with the following important verbal intelligence.

On the 5th April, the Mexican army, composed of 1800 men, who had been besieging Merida and who afterwards had been themselves besieged in their camp, capitulated to the Yucatanese, under the following conditions:—

The Mexican division in the city of Texpenal, under the command of General Mattias de la Pena y Baragan, were to evacuate the territory of the state with all the honors of war, on the next day, leaving their arms of infantry, and proceed from Conkal to Baca and from thence to Telchac, where they were to be embarked for Tampico, eight days after their arrival, on board the Mexican transports and men-of-war. The officers of the division have promised to lay before their government a true statement of the spirit and resources of the Yucatanese government and use their utmost endeavors to have justice done them. The division had the privilege of leaving their sick and wounded in the city, who would be taken care of at the expense of the Mexican government. The Mexicans were to leave at Texpenal their artillery, which would be carried to Merida, to be returned to the Mexicans at the termination of the war.

Prisoners were to be exchanged according to the law of nations.

A body of 2,400 Yucatanese, left Merida on the 2d May, on their way to Telchac, for the purpose of capturing the Mexican division, who had not complied with the terms of the capitulation allowing them eight days to quit the territory. Though an express had been sent to General Ampudia for vessels to convey the division to Tampico, none had arrived when the time allowed them had expired.

On the 23d instant, an express arrived at Merida from Campeachy, giving the information that the Texas squadron, commanded by Commodore Moore, had arrived in safety at Campeachy.

On the 27th ult., they were attached during a calm, while doubling Point Harney, by the Mexican war steamers Montezuma and Guadaloupe, which after a sharp engagement were driven off, the Texas vessels warping into the harbor in safety.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.
TWENTY-TWO DAYS LATER FROM CANTON.

The packet ship England, at New York, brings Liverpool papers to the 9th April, containing accounts from China twenty two days later than before received. The following summary is made up from the New York Sun and Herald:

In the House of Lords, on the 7th, Lord Brougham brought forward his motion for a vote of thanks to Lord Ashburton, for having successfully negotiated the recent treaty with America. He recapitulated the leading incidents in the history of the boundary disputes between the two countries, and pronounced a strong censure on General Cass, whom he described as exasperating the ill-feeling which prevailed in the minds of the lower classes of the Americans towards England, and pandering to the worst passions of the mob, for the purpose of succeeding to the Presidential chair of the Union. The motion was carried without a division.

In the House of Commons, Sir Robert Peel expressed his regret that he could not give any satisfactory information with respect to progress in the formation of commercial treaties with other countries. He was even doubtful whether or not it was politic to pursue too far the system of negotiating for reciprocal concessions, instead of pursuing an independent course.

The advices from Canton are to the 21st January.—Tranquility continued to be preserved in Canton, and the discontented spirit which led to the riot of 7th December seemed likely to be entirely subdued, by the prudent measures of the municipal authorities. Eleepoo, the High Imperial Commissioner, deputed by the Emperor, to conduct the commercial negotiations with Sir Henry Pottinger, arrived at Canton on the 10th January. The Hong merchants desired to have an interview with him, which he declined. It is said he has demanded from them by next June, the whole amount of their debts which is to the extent of 3,000,000 dollars.

The Globe of the 7th, says the political accounts from India and China, as detailed to day, are not of a nature to affect the funds; the commercial accounts are favorable. In China the negotiations for a new and reduced tariff were likely to proceed satisfactorily, but as yet the only step taken was a demand for the Imperial list of duties, and the answer given to our Plenipotentiary was that there was no great prospect of a change in the present commercial season.

The claims for indemnification preferred by parties whose property was destroyed during the disturbance of the 7th December, have not yet been settled. The Chinese officers have made direct offers to indemnify the parties, but they prefer to leave it in the hands of Sir Henry Pottinger for adjustment.

India.—Despatches in anticipation of the Indian mail to the 1st of March are arrived. They bring most important intelligence from Scinde.

It appears that the Ameers of Hyderabad, while making arrangements to collect a large army, continued to play "fast and loose" with Major Outram, whom the Indian government had in December sent to them in order to make terms. It must be recollected that those Ameers, who were long regarded as tributaries of the Affghan empire, had within some years enjoyed a sort of independence of all subjection. Their principles were those of Eastern despots, who govern the country for their own special advantage. Industry and civilization were at a stand there, while the most fertile districts along the Indus were turned into wastes of jungle deserts for the preservation of the wild animals whom those Ameers amused themselves occasionally in hunting and destroying.

The British government having introduced civilization into a portion of Scinde, and having taken possession of the Indus, the navigation of which became a matter of general benefit, a demand was made on the Ameers to give up, for the use of that navigation, certain strips of land lying along the river. This was temporized until at length their troops were collected, when on the 14th February they sent word to Major Outram to retire from their city. Major O., who did not suppose that they would proceed to extremities, delayed. On the 15th, the residence of the British Political Agent or Minister, was attacked; it was gallantly defended by 500 men for several hours; but at length their ammunition having been expended, the British soldiers retired, with a small loss, to the steamers, and proceeded to join Sir Charles Napier, then at the head of about 2700 men, at a distance of 20 miles from the capital of the Ameers. The latter hastened, at the head of 2,000 men to attack the British force.

On the 17th a battle took place, which can only be compared to the celebrated one at Passey, in which, after a severe struggle of three hours, the Ameers were totally routed and their troops dispersed. The loss of the British troops was considerable. The Ameers, on the following day surrendered themselves prisoners of war, and Hyderabad was occupied by the conquerors. The following is a portion of the official account:

Sir C. Napier marched to Mutharo, and on his arrival there, ascertained that the Ameers were in position at Meeanee, distant about ten miles, to the number of 22,000 men. Being aware that any delay for reinforcement would strengthen the confidence of the enemy and add to their numbers, although his own force was not one-seventh part of the enemy, Sir C. N. resolved upon an immediate attack, and marched towards Meeanee, at four o'clock in the morning (the 17th.) At eight o'clock, A. M., the advanced guard of Sir C. Napier's force divided the enemy's camp, and at nine o'clock the British troops formed in order of battle, being composed of about 2800 men, of all arms, and 12 pieces of artillery.

The enemy opened a determined and destructive fire upon the British troops, and during the action, which ensued, with the most undaunted bravery, repeatedly rushed upon them sword in hand. After a most desperate contest, which lasted for upwards of three hours, the enemy was completely defeated and put to flight, with the estimated loss of about 5000 men, 1000 of whom were left dead on the field, together with the whole of their artilley, ammunition and standards, a considerable quantity of stores and some treasures.—The British colors were hoisted over the city of Hyderabad on the 20th inst.

Lord Ellenborough has arrived at Delhi, and the imperial city has been quite frightened from its propriety. His entree, though taking place on Sunday, was a magnificent sight. The procession included no less than 70 elephants, and most as many native Princes and Chiefs, whose splendid apparel, and the glittering uniforms of their followers, contributed to dazzle the eye, if not to bewilder the brain of the spectator.

The intelligence from Affghanistan is, that anarchy continues to prevail there. Akhbar Khan is said to be master of Cabul, and his father Dost Mahomed is proceeding from Lahore towards Peshawur, as if to join him. Akhbar Khan has threatened to invade the province of Peshawur, and to take it from the Sikhs, but the good treatment of old Dost Mahomed by the latter may prevent that invasion.

The Great Western left Liverpool to go into dock at Milford on the 7th April. It was not publicly announced at Liverpool previous to the 9th that she would not sail on the 15th, her regular day.

FRANCE.—M. Odillon Barrot, one of the principal leaders of the Liberal party in the Chamber of Deputies, has given notice of a motion to reduce the jurisdiction of the Court of Peers within constitutional limits.

The nuptials of the Princess Clementine and the Prince of Gotha, will take place at Fontainbleau on the 20th inst. No fetes will be given, as the Royal family are still too much affected for such rejoicing in consequence of the death of the Duke of Orleans.

The Minister of Marine has despatched orders to the Maritime Prefects (Fort Admirals) of Toulon, Brest and Rochefort, to send a quantity of artillery to the Marquesas Islands.

The Semaphore de Marseilles of the 3d instant, brings news from Algiers of the 30th ult. General Gentil returned to Mostaganem from his expedition in the mountains of the Leni Zerouabe on the 25th, bringing with him 712 prisoners, 400 oxen, and 3000 sheep or goats. In an engagement which they had with the Arabs on the 19th at the Marabout of Sidi Lekhdel, the French are stated to have killed about 300 men, having lost themselves only 11 killed and 18 wounded.

"It is curious enough," remarks the Commerce, "that M. Marochetti should be commissioned to execute at the same time equestrian statues of Napoleon and Wellington.

RUSSIA.—A letter from St. Petersburg of the 16th ult. published in the 'Gazette des Tribunaux," states that the Emperor of Russia, had granted a full amnesty to a number of Poles exiled to Siberia or to the interior of Russia, for the part they had taken in the revolutions of November, 1830.

TURKEY.—The arrangement of the differences between Turkey and Persia, is said to have made no progress since our last accounts from the Turkish capital.

ALGIERS.—General de Bar, who went out with a considerable force to chastise several hostile tribes, has been compelled to return without effecting the desired object.

TREASURY NOTES.—The amount of Treasury notes outstanding on the 1st instant, was $11,632,075 12.

DICTIONARY OF GREEK AND ROMAN ANTIQUITIES.—We are indebted to Messrs. HARPER & BROTHERS through NORMAN, STEEL & Co., Camp street, for a copy of the first American edition of Smith's celebrated Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities, illustrated with numerous engravings, and containing a vast number of additional articles, relative to the Botany, Mineralogy, and Zoology of the Ancients, by that erudite and indefatigable scholar, CHARLES ANTHON, Esq. This is a volume that should find a niche in the library of every student. It is a copious collection of valuable facts, and as a work of reference, and utility in the pursuit of archaeological enquiry, is entitled to great consideration. It is far more voluminous and complete than any of the meagre notices of the ancients with which we are acquainted.

MENTAL HYGIENE, or an Examination of the Intellect and Passions, designed to illustrate their influence on Health and the duration of Life, by WM. SWEETSER, M. D.—New York—J. & H. G. Langley, publishers. Messrs. NORMAN, STEEL & Co. have sent us a copy of this work. It is a volume of great interest, replete with sound philosophy and valuable information respecting the nature and influence of the passions, and the modes of conducting intellectual labor, so as not to prove detrimental to health.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—We are indebted to HENRY WOODALL & Co., Camp street, for the two first numbers of Shakespeare's Dramatic Works and Poems, the 7th number of Alison's History of Europe, part 6th of Brande's Encyclopedia, and the 2d volume Milman's History of the Jews. All these works are published by the enterprising Harper & Brothers, of New York.

FROM RIO DE JANEIRO.—The barque Globe, at Philadelphia, brings advices from Rio to the 18th March. The captain states that there were no American men of war in port when he sailed. The U. S. brig Chipola, under the command of Lieut. Gardner, had sailed from the Mozambique channel, to bring home the materials saved from the wreck of the U. S. ship Concord. On the subject of the proposed treaty with England, a warm discussion is carried on in the papers. It appears to be very unpopular with the Brazilians, whilst the English merchants there are strenuous in its favor.

REVIVAL OF THE U. S. BANK.—The Philadelphia Sentinel of Saturday has the following paragraph:—"We have received intelligence that a number of London capitalists have arrived in this city direct from England, for the purpose of reviving the United States Bank. If the arrangements can be perfected, it is presumed that the bank will resume business on or before the 15th day of May ensuing.

Mr. Secretary Webster will not, as he had intended to do, leave the cabinet to day, it being desirable on all hands, that he should remain until the matter of the Chinese mission is settled. It is expected that the steamer due the middle of this week will bring advices from Mr. Everett, announcing his decision as to the acceptance of that mission. Should he accept, it would be well for Mr. Webster to prepare his instructions. And should he not accept, equally important will it be for the secretary to assist in the new arrangement that will then be necessary. In any event, however, Mr. W. will retire in the middle of the month.

The Express adds, that in case Mr. Everett does not accept, the Chinese mission may be tendered to Mr. Curtis, the Collector of the port of New York, and that to see the end of it, Mr. Webster awaits Mr. Everett's determination.

☞Long Lewis, one of the robbers of the Columbus (Ga.) Insurance Office, has been the leading locofoco stump orator in that city. The poor fellow should have confined his doing to the perpetration of political villainies. Although they might have sent him to perdition, they would not have sent him to the penitentiary. Although they might have loaded his conscience with sin, they would not have laden his limbs with chains and fetters. Although they might have branded his name with infamy, they would not have caused a hot iron to be applied to his forehead.

Noah, "who," says the writer, "uses an argument in his own favor, that he came down from the bench to sustain John Tyler,' an argument which, in other times, and to right minds, would, independently of all other objections, be sufficient of itself to exclude him from office.—Ib.

FOREIGN MARKETS.

LONDON MONEY MARKET, APRIL 7, 1843.

This was the first day of opening the books for private transfer at the Bank of England, which produced some additional business in the English funds, and Consols have been steady throughout the day at 96¼ @ 7, for time and money.—New Three-and-a-half ₩ Cents. 102¼ @ ½; Bank Stock, 181; —Three ₩ Cents Reduced, 96½ @ ½;—the Three-and-a-half ₩ Cents. Reduced, 102¼ @ ½;—India Bonds, 80 prem;—Exchequer Bills, 69 @ 71 prem.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, APRIL 5.

The sales on Thursday last were 7,000 bales—2,000 taken for export and speculation. Friday, 6,000; Saturday, 5,000; Monday, 4,000; Tuesday, 2,500; and to-day, 4,000—800 for export. The demand since last week, though considerable, has not been so extensive as in the preceding one, which is attributed to recent accounts from America, confirming the previous statements relative to a very large crop. There is also rather more disposition in the market to sell. Prices of the middle and common Americans have declined ⅛d ₩ lb. since Friday—other sorts are dull of sale. The import of the week amounts to 67,409 bales.

APRIL 6.—The market has not altered in any of its features since yesterday; the sales are higher to day, amounting to 5,000 bales, including 3,700 American, at 3½d @ 5½d; 1,000 of the same on speculation; 200 Surats at 3d. @ 3½d., and 80 Egyptian, 5¼d @ 6d ₩ lb.

APRIL 7.—Since the receipt of the accounts of the Great Western, steamer, from New-York, on Saturday, the demand has abated, and the market has lost the animation which previously existed: no change of moment has yet taken place in prices; this is the utmost extent of the decline, and that not very general, the middling and lower qualities being the most influenced. At public auction 1,212 Sea Islands were offered, and 220 sold at 7½d. to 7½d; 120 stained offered, and 30 sold at 4½ to 7½d.; 1,000 West India were offered, but none sold. The sale went off heavily and at irregular rates, but varying little from those previously current by private contract. The sales to-day are 4,000 to 5,000 bales, of which 1,000 bales are to speculators, who have taken during the week 5,910 bales of American. Exporters have taken 1,680 American, 210 Pernams, and 160 Surat and Madras.

The import this week is 93,443 bags, and the sales are 36,910.

STATE OF TRADE.

MANCHESTER, APRIL 7.—We have a continued and rather improved demand this week, and since Tuesday quite as good as on that day. The low value of the staple gives to the manufacturer and spinner a chance of realising such a profit as they have not had for a long period before, small though it be; and this is also likely to continue from all appearances of the imports, which are still very large. On the whole, the market is very firm and healthy for both goods and yarns. The accounts from the United States, received by the Great Western, from which it appears probable that the Cotton crop may exceed even the largest previous estimate, had the effect of checking the demand for yarns to-day; and, though there was no decline in prices, the buyers showed less inclination to enter into contracts for future delivery. The goods market, however, continues without change, there being a good healthy demand for almost every description of cloth, with a very light stock, and a consequent tendency to rather higher prices. Many of the manufacturers were to-day demanding an advance of 1½d per piece on 27 inch printing cloth, which has been more inquired for, on account of the improvement in the home trade; but we do not think this advance was generally acceded to, and it had consequently the effect of checking business.

☞AMAZONE BONNETS.—We were the first to call public attention to this beautiful American fabric; and now that the public have deigned to make themselves acquainted with and admit its merits, we feel annoyed to perceive the low and disreputable arts resorted to by persons in the interest of foreigners, and desirous of securing an American market for inferior foreign fabrics, in order to injure the character of the Amazone Bonnet. Our city has of late been filled with handbills offering Amazone Bonnets for sale at a place in the Bowery, at from one to two and a half dollars, when in fact they cannot be manufactured for this sum. Of course the article advertised is spurious; and it is not uncharitable to suppose that object in thus appropriating a name belonging to a beautiful American fabric, and applying it to a worthless or inferior article, is to injure the reputation and sale of the genuine manufacture.

As we somewhat pride ourselves upon having been among the first that appreciated the article, and from the beginning predicted its success—a prediction now fully realised—we are rather pleased to see by the notice we give below, that the Amazone Bonnet is thought fashionable enough to cause such an unjust war being waged against it. Of the means resorted to, however, there can be but one opinion—and they are sufficiently disgusting to add a little of the painful to the pleasure we otherwise feel.

It will be perceived that in order to convince the public of the shameful imposition attempted to be practiced, the advertisers give notice that all the real Amazones advertised by the "getters up" of this deception, will be taken on their own terms on application at this office. The truth is, those who advertise Amazones at the low prices named, have none of the article. At all events, they now know where they can dispose of them; and if they do not avail themselves of the offer, the reason will be apparent to all.

The papers named in the advertisement annexed, are requested to publish these remarks in connexion with the advertisement, and send their bills to this office.

AMAZONE BONNETS AND BRAIDS.
☞CAUTION—The new and paltry attempt to injure this article by advertising it by placards, &c. for sale at reduced rates, and in such parts of the city which are most likely to startle the public, had been deemed too insignificant to be worth notice. It has, however, been suggested, that as the whole of the community cannot be aware of the facts, and besides, that those entirely unacquainted with this description of goods might possibly for a short time be deceived, it is both necessary and proper to do something in the matter, as it can be disposed of in a very peremptory manner, and without commenting again upon the merits of the real article now fully tested and established.

By application to the office of the New York Morning Courier and Enquirer, within any reasonable time, information will be immediately given there, by which the whole of the stock or stocks so advertised (if there are any such) will be thankfully taken up for cash on delivery, at the so called prices named in the handbills, &c. &c., alluded to, and at a higher price if required, as the rate fixed upon in the hand bill leaves margin enough, and is a great deal under what the article really costs.

The offer to buy the whole in this way for cash, must settle the first point.

The second cannot be so decisively disposed of; but all counterfeits and imitations of the Amazone Braided Bonnet, will not in the least deceive any one that has only seen and handled them once. The risk of being imposed upon is therefore not great. Besides, by applying at the store No. 343 Broadway, specially opened to exhibit the Hats, as they are, and to protect them from the effect of the same tricks and misrepresentations or by applying to any respectable house in the trade, some of which are named at foot, and who will give correct information, a sufficient guarantee would be obtained. The houses referred to are—M. D. Hall & Co, Pierre & Valentine, B. Frost, C. Mills, G. M. Peck, Leland, Mellen & Co, E. C. Blake, S. M. Blake, and for the country by application to the central warehouse of A. CANELLI, 54 Exchange Place, the name of a correspondent in every principal town of the United States will also be ascertained. m11 3t

BY ABAT & COUCET.
LARGE SALE OF THREE HUNDRED AND THIRTY NINE LOTS OF GROUND, WITHOUT RESERVE, situated in faubourg Treme, and new faubourg Marigny, belonging to the Moreno property.
WILL be sold on Monday, 15th May, 1843, at noon at the City Exchange, St. Louis street—

Three hundred and thirty-nine Lots of Ground situated in faubourg Treme, and new faubourg Marigny, divided in the manner described on a plan drawn by J A Pueyo, which plan will be exhibited at the Exchange a few days before the sale.

These lots offer to those persons who are desirous of forming large establishments, spacious front, flower or vegetable gardens, or even one established on a vast scale, or commerce, an opportunity rarely presented; their proximity to the city, offering advantages which are rarely encountered elsewhere. The middle or poorer classes, who are anxious to be exempt from rent, which, although not extravagant, exceedingly moderate, is nevertheless very onerous, should eagerly embrace the opportunity now offered them.

These lots are very elevated, perfectly free from cocograss, fronting, for the most part handsome promenades, or pleasant gardens, large trees and vast canals.

Terms—⅓ cash, and balance at 6, 12, 18 and 24 months credit, in notes satisfactorily endorsed, and bearing mortgage.

Acts of sale by Jh Cuvillier, notary public. m3
