Valuable and Extensive Sugar Plantation and Slaves for sale.

BEARD, CALHOUN & CO., Auctioneers.

ON MONDAY, the 11th day of January next, (1847) at 10 o'clock, M., will be sold at Banks's Arcade, by consent of all the heirs who are of full age, the following property and slaves belonging to the succession of the late Joseph Jusnaut, of the Parish of Jefferson, deceased, to wit:

First, a certain Sugar Plantation, situated in the Parish of Jefferson, in the State, measuring front on the river Mississippi, arpents twenty-six toises and two feet front on the Mississippi River, by a depth of forty arpents, except the upper arpent, which has a depth of eighty arpents and upwards, together with another tract of ground in the rear of said plantation, being the double concession thereof and containing one hundred and eleven acres and two thirds, superficial measure; the two said lines of said tracts converging towards the rear, the lower line running South 60 degrees 30 minutes West, and the upper line running South 31 degrees 37 minutes West.

Together with all the buildings and improvements on said plantation, consisting of a brick sugar house and pottery, covered with slate; a steam engine and mill, and all the appurtenances necessary for making sugar crops.

There are on said plantation, mattresses, containing plant cane, which is supposed to be sufficient for planting 250 acres, and a large part of the land required for the next planting is already plowed.

The arpent of land on the upper line, which extends back more than eighty arpents, runs to a bayou by which the whole plantation can be drained.

There are on the place four dwelling houses, one of which is a large commodious family mansion, in perfect order, together with the amplest conveniences in the way of out-houses, comprising stables, kitchens, negro quarters, billiard room, and every thing necessary for a country residence.

Attached to the sugar mill are a saw mill and grist mill run by steam power.

Second, All the horses, mules and horned cattle employed in the cultivation of said plantation, as well as the agricultural implements, carts, ploughs, &c., and the sheep, cattle, horses and mares—the whole being more sufficient for the cultivation.

Third, The following named Slaves attached to said plantation and employed in its culture, viz:

Terms of Sale—The Plantation and all its dependencies and appurtenances, slaves, cattle, agricultural implements, &c., will be sold in block. One-fifth cash, and the rest at 1, 2, 3, and 4 years credit for notes secured by mortgage on the plantation and slaves, to be divided into coupons to suit the vendors, and to bear interest, after maturity, of then unpaid, at 8 per cent. per annum.

If the property thus offered in block does not bring the limits fixed by the vendors, then the land with all its appurtenances, carts, carts, agricultural implements, &c., will be sold without the Slaves on the same terms as above, and the slaves will be sold separately and in families, payable one-fifth cash and the rest at one and two years credit for approved endorsed notes secured by mortgage for payment, also to bear interest after maturity, if then unpaid, at 8 per cent per annum.

The house servants will be sold separately, payable one-fourth cash and the remainder at 6 months credit for approved endorsed notes secured by mortgage.

Acts of sale before Jules Money, Esq., N. P., at the expense of purchasers.

No slaves sold will be delivered until the money and notes are deposited with the Notary.

If the property is not sold in block the sale will be continued on the following days until the whole is disposed of. For further particulars apply to the Auctioneers, No. 8 Banks' Arcade. 415, 16, 21, 24, 26, 31, 14, 9, 11.
