CHEAP MEAT—THE STOCK DEALERS.

The fact that one or two or more persons in the interest of the new Slaughter-house Company at Algiers, promise to supply our citizens with meat at a reduced price, proves nothing for that company, which to crush the competition of the butchers might well afford to sink a large amount of money. It is their interest to leave no stone unturned in their efforts to establish themselves and monopolize the business. Will the Slaughter-house Company enter into bonds to supply the people of New Orleans with meat at a reduced price during the time (2 years) their charter exists? That is the question. Until they enter into such agreement we must be held excused for doubting their disposition to treat the public with any more consideration than other monopolies.

Our opposition to the Crescent City Company is based on principle. If we submit to their dictation in the matter of landing, sheltering and slaughtering cattle, the step will then be a short and easy one to the establishment of other monopolies. We make common cause with the butchers and stock dealers because their interests just now happen to be our interests. It is true the butchers may have practiced a monopoly, you do not destroy a monopoly by setting up another as bad or worse. Our advice to the butchers is, that as long as they have exhausted all legal means of defense, they should establish themselves outside of the limits of these three parishes, where the counsel of the Crescent City Company says they are perfectly free to go.

Since our observations on this subject of Sunday last, Judge Collens has issued an order restraining the Crescent City Company from interfering with one of the dealers in stock, who had applied to him for such an order. This settles the question so far as the stock dealers are concerned, who may now land cattle at their yards and stables as formerly. We do not suppose that Judge Collens can be induced to set aside this injunction on the filing of a bond by the Crescent City Company. Judge Collens' opinions are not known to us, but we have enough respect for him as a jurist to venture the prediction that he will either refuse to dissolve or grant an appeal from his order if he does. It is entirely in his legal discretion, and his clearheadedness as a lawyer, and impartiality as a judge, are too well known for us to doubt that he will do justice to parties who are entitled to protection at his hands.

Mercantile Agency of J. M. Bradstreet & Son.

The attention of our mercantile readers in the city and in the country is called to the advertisement, in this issue, of the mercantile agency in New Orleans of J. M. Bradstreet & Son, the principal office of which firm is in New York, where it has been in successful operation for twenty years, having been established there in 1849.

The agency here has lately been placed under the management of Mr. W. C. Day, a gentleman peculiarly well qualified for the conduct of such a business. Mr. Day is favorably known in mercantile circles throughout the former section with his responsible position for ago honors of Nalle, Sumner & Co., Nalle & Co., and Nalle, Day & Co. In dealing with the agency of the Messrs. Bradstreet & Son, its subscribers will transact their business with persons who are not strangers to them. Mr. Day being assisted by gentlemen who are familiar with our commercial men.

There has been considerable prejudice existing in the public mind against these mercantile agencies which we have in doing away as their workings become better known. We can easily understand of how much advantage they are to the public when conducted by competent and judicious men, under proper rules, and we have reason to believe Messrs. Bradstreet's affairs are so conducted and that they enjoy the confidence of our leading houses, who make use of their reports and regard the information they contain as being of value and reliability. No expense or labor is spared in making up these reports, the 25th volume of which will be issued on July 25, opening. It will contain the name, address, business and grade of credit of nearly every person doing business in the United States and Canada, revised and corrected up to the date of publication.

Mr. Day's office is at 28 Natchez street, corner of Magazine, being the Morgan building, where subscriptions are received and information given.

THE STEAMER RICHMOND FOR LOUISVILLE—Now that warm weather is upon us, and many of our citizens desirous consequently of making excursions to a cooler latitude, we take occasion to remind them that the superb steamer Richmond, commanded by that popular and experienced officer, Capt. J. Stan Neal, will leave to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 5 o'clock, for Louisville. The accommodations of the Richmond, like the charms of the lady whose speak for themselves, and you have only to be fairly introduced to her by making a trip on her ones to wish you could go voyaging on her a hundred times. Messrs. Sinnott & Adams, Commercial Place, are the agents for the Richmond.

We take pleasure in informing the public that Messrs. Daniel and James D. Edwards are now in full operation in their "new establishment," fronting the river, between Gravier and Poydras streets, where they would be pleased to see their friends. Thankful for the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed upon them, they trust, by renewed exertion on their part, to merit a continuance as in the past, pledging themselves that all business intrusted to them shall meet with prompt and careful attention. Their increased facilities for doing business justify them in the belief that they can execute any and all work in their line at as reasonable rates as any other house in the United States.

DEATH OF MR. E. GIQUEL.—We regret to announce the death of Mr. E. Giquel, the well known dry goods merchant of Canal street, in this city. This event took place at Paris on Sunday last, the 20th instant, as reported by telegraph. Mr. Giquel has been engaged in mercantile business here for many years, and has always been regarded as a gentleman of excellent abilities in that line, and has enjoyed a high reputation as a correct and liberal dealer.

We acknowledge the courtesy of Mr. S. Herz, President of the Dauneche Company, in sending us cards of invitation to their Fete Champêtre and Summer Night's Festival, to be given at the Oakland Riding Park, near the Half Way House, on Sunday, June 27.

TRIAL OF E. M. YERGER, AT JACKSON.—The prosecution closed their evidence before the Military Commission in this case on Friday last, and the defense then asked for an adjournment until Monday, the 21st, (yesterday) that they might have time for preparation. The request was granted.

THE FIFTEENTH AMENDMENT.—The New York Sun says:

The ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution by New Hampshire makes, according to our tally, including Indiana, twenty-four States which have given it their approval. The votes of twenty-eight are required for the completion of the work. Vermont is sure to ratify it as soon as its Legislature meets next fall. The act providing for the reconstruction of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas depends its ratification by those States as a prerequisite to their full restoration to the Union. This will make up the sum total of twenty-eight, but we presume that Georgia will also be required to ratify the amendment ere she is admitted to representation in Congress, while there is little doubt that Rhode Island will give her voice in favor of the measure when her Legislature meets in January.

By the opening of the new year, therefore, the work of reconstruction and the adoption of the amendment will be completed.

Of course the Sun says nothing about the means taken to effect "reconstruction," or as to the morality and binding force of the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment by the Southern States. It is hardly pretend, however, that the latter have ratified of their own free will.

Gen. Forrest is negotiating for a large number of Chinamen to work on the Memphis and Selma Railroad.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Reportorial Reportery.—Robert Herling is the name of the German who died suddenly of an apoplectic fit, in one of the gaming saloons on St. Charles street, Saturday night. He was not a gambler, but a miller by trade, and a man of City property, and was present probably as a great many are who do not gamble out of mere curiosity, though it is reported that for once in his life he had just bet and was a winner at keno. He was about 40 years of age.

State Senator John Lynch will shortly assume his duties as Surveyor General of Louisiana.

Mr. Randolph Sipp, the pianist, who electrified the audience at Mrs Stamps' school exhibition at the Varieties Theatre, will play an original grand fantasia, "La Cause Perdue, for the benefit of the Lauderdale Orphan Home, during the entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Hancock Club.

The grand Fête Champêtre going on every evening at the Carrollton Gardens, for the benefit of the St. Mary's Orphan Home, attracts crowds of delighted visitors, who are taken up on the boats free of charge for passage. Capt. Stamps ("Big Henry") furnished his fine boat, the Natchez, for the service last evening.

We were in error in stating that one of the bondsmen on the injunction in the Sixth District Court, against the Slaughter-house Company, was decided by Judge Cooley as not sufficiently solvent. The decision was the reverse. Mr. Chas T. Howard, the lottery man, is one of the bondsmen and has $50,000 in bank.

The following are the names of the officers of the Slaughterhouse Company: President, F. J. Pratt; Secretary J. H McKee. Directors C. A Wood, S. F. Griffin, John Wharton, E. B. Benton, R. A. Packwood, J G Clark, James Pickles, Wm. Durbridge and F J Pratt.

The young lady of Natchez, Miss., who has so mysteriously disappeared from her uncle's house, in this city, has not yet been discovered. There is great anxiety about her in consequence.

Board of Assistant Aldermen.—The following are the newly elected chairmen of the committees of this Board:

Finance, John Breen; Streets and Landings, Gerald Farrell; Police and Health, Alfred Kearny; Fire Department, C. Buttger; Education, M. D. Lucas; Workhouse and Prisons, John Pasley; Improvements and Buildings, C Camp; Water Works, Wm. Davis; Railroads, Alfred Kearny.

Lake Excursions.—The public should bear in mind that Mr. Sorie's fine steamer, the Camella, commanded by that clever officer, Capt. Du Gas, makes a special trip to-morrow (Wednesday) for the accommodation of excursionists who do not care to cross the lake on Sundays. She will leave the Ponchartrain at the arrival of the Pontchartrain train of cars, which starts from the depot, corner of Levee and Orod streets, at 5 o'clock. Wednesday morning, and after visiting Mandeville, Lewisberg and Madisonville, stops at the same places returning the same evening. Parties, by getting their break fast before they leave, taking a lunch with them, and buying excursion tickets on the boat and cars, can make the round trip for $1 25.

The Butchers' Association.—The following resolutions were adopted at their meeting last night:

Whereas, in view of the present difficulties arising from the sale and quasi supply of meat in the markets of New Orleans, it is deemed necessary by the butchers that a correct and clear statement of the cause of their course should be put before the public

Therefore, be it resolved, That we recognize in the Slaughter House monopoly, an institution designed to elevate the price of labor, the price of meat not only to the purchaser and consumer, but to the butcher; that it deprives us of a class of the liberty unquestionable right of killing our beeves in our own yards and exciting a fair and indiscriminate competition in the markets of the city; that it deprives us of the right of slaughter on our premises, and takes from us the just reward of toil and industry to fill the pockets of a set of speculators, whose sole object and aim has been to pray and feast upon the industries of our people. That in view of these facts, and the unnatural discriminations which the monopoly occasions, we will resist its unjust and shameful encroachments upon our rights at every hazard and to the last extremity.

Resolved, That we recognize in the New Orleans Times' newspaper an enemy of the people and butchers—the organ of a monopoly, and the unworthy of the support and patronage of a people to whom it has been solely indebted for its existence and continuance, and that we will not only cease patronizing it ourselves but discourage its circulation by every means in our power, that we recognize in its proprietor a Northern adventurer, and one who has held by and now holding interests with the Slaughter-House monopoly.

Resolved further, That we tender our sincere thanks to the Picayune and the rest of the city press for their warm and unceasing advocacy of our just rights and the interests of the people.

The Slaughter house Controversy—Injunction in favor of Aycock & Inbus.—Judge Collens, of the Seventh District Court, yesterday issued the following important order:

Let the Crescent City Live Stock Landing and Slaughter-house Company be enjoined and restrained, and the President, officers, servants, agents and employés be enjoined and restrained from, any way form or manner molesting, hindering, interfering with, or in any manner owing to hinder or interfere with, the plaintiffs, by force, or exit or otherwise, in the exercise of their, the said plaintiffs, right, privilege or business of landing, receiving, stabling, yarding, feeding, keeping, protecting and selling cattle, horses and other animals destined for sale or slaughter within the parishes of Orleans, Jefferson and St. Bernard, upon the said Plaintiffs, Inbus, Aycock & Co., giving bond, with good and solvent security, in the sum of $5000, conditioned as the law directs.

In the Sixth District Court, Judge Cooley, yesterday was argued and taken under advisement, the exceptions taken by the Slaughter-house Company to the injunction sued out against them by the Butchers' Association Messrs. Mills and Cooley for Cool-y & Philips) for the injunction, and Messrs Hunt and Mouville for the exceptions. The exceptions are based on the grounds that no cause of action set forth; that the petition is defamatory and not properly cognizable by courts, and that an injunction cannot lie against a law of the State.

Fourth District Court—Judge Theard.—In this court, yesterday, Judge Théard ruled upon a motion to compel the defendants to show cause why he should not strike out certain items from his assessments and reduce others upon his rolls, the Judge ruled in favor of the Auditor, for the following reasons, in brief: 1. Because the procedure, by rule, is not warranted by our laws, in matters like the one in question. 2. Rule can be taken in incidental questions only, and between the parties to the suit. 2 The Court has no authority for revising the assessment tableaux; the mode in which the taxpayers can apply for their revision is pointed out by law.

A short time since, Mr. J. C Kathman, of this city, made a motion, through counsel, in the Fourth District Court, Judge Théard, for an order compelling Auditor Wickliffe to assume why he should not issue warrants to him for the sum of eleven thousand and six dollars and twenty cents, of his alleged advances and in accordance with an act of the Legislature of 1868, for printing, stationery and other articles furnished the Bureau of Immigration

Judge Théard decided, yesterday, that from the returns made by the Auditor, he was satisfied that the warrants had been already issued and drawn by proper parties, and therefore dismissed the rule.

City Mortality.—There were 126 interments in the cemeteries of New Orleans during the week, ending Sunday morning, June 20th. There were 3 cases of hooping cough and 10 of measles. There were 156 deaths the week previous.

The Jackson Railroad Company and the Butchers.—It is with unmixed satisfaction we can sympathising with the people in their efforts to prevent the butchers from being overcharged by the Slaughter house Company, will extend every facility in their power by granting suitable trains for their accommodation should the butchers establish their slaughter house in St. Charles parish, near the line of the railroad, as has been suggested.

Meat in the Markets.—There was a pretty good supply of meat in the markets yesterday, and but little of it from the yards of the Slaughter house Company in Algiers. The people are beginning to find relief, and the Slaughter house Company who have temporarily overstocked the butchers, are likely to be overslaughted themselves.

Examination for Murder.—Joe Finest, alias Dotto, was examined yesterday before Recorder Gastinel, on a charge of having murdered Raphael Arnolo the morning of April 18, on the levee, between Toulouse and St. Louis streets.

Mr. Lambine testified to having seen the man who died from the effects of the blow of Norman & Relas, but knew nothing of the men who wounded him.

The brother of deceased said the accused was not the man who killed his brother; another man who had been pointed out to him, and whom he did not know, was the one.

There being no other witnesses for the State to make out a case, the accused was discharged.

The Bar at Pass-a-l'Outre.—The steamer United States, Capt. Morton, of the Merchants' Line, from New York, and drawing sixteen feet of water, steamed across the bar at the above Pass, without difficulty, yesterday morning, being the only vessel of that size that has ventured to cross it, without trying, for some years. The bar at this Pass is stated to deeper now than South-west Pass.

Mayhem.—Ann Cornelia Yeager has been arrested, charged by officer Willey with mayhem.

Fires.—A bed and bedding in a room occupied by Mr. R. Livaudais, at No. 199 St. Ann street, accidentally caught fire and were burned about 3 o'clock Monday morning.

About an hour earlier a fire broke out in the coffee-house corner of Chiltons and Orleans streets, occupied by Louis Delorieille, and owned by Mr. L. Bernard, who is now in France. This and the adjoining building, occupied as a shoe store by Jules Durelle, were destroyed. There was no insurance on the latter premises, owned by Mr Hawthorne.

There was an attempt on Sunday night to burn the residence of Madame Louis Conti, corner of Gasquet and St. John streets.

Wife Whipping.—Mrs. Theresa Tate was assaulted and badly cut on the wrist by her husband John Tate, Sunday morning, at their residence corner of Thalia and New Levee streets. John whipped his wife in this encounter but was arrested and sent to prison, and may yet get whipped by her at the law. The poor woman was so bruised, intimated that she had to be taken to the Charity Hospital.

We find the following drifting about in our Radical exchanges, and as it doubtless expresses correctly the sentiments convicted of that party on the subject of color, we print it for the benefit of "whom it may concern:" "A young negro army teamster, of pure African blood, was bitterly and fiercely denouncing an obstinate mule under his charge. A soldier standing by says: 'Sambo, what you abusing that mule for; he's whiter than you are?' 'I know he be,' rejoined Sambo, 'and dat's what makes him so mean.'"

MISCELLANEOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Jackson, Miss, June 21.—In the case of Yerger before at bury commission the defense commenced examination of witnesses to-day. It is shown that the officer sent out under the security of Yerger Crains knew the fact, but ordered the officer to seize notwithstanding. It is further shown by the correspondence that Yerger had offered to waive his claim of the city if the city would settle a claim held by him against the city for damage to property, caused by the negligence of the city government. An order of restitution had been issued by Judge Paylor, of the high court, and served on Colonel Sheffield previous to the difficulty, but had not been obeyed.

BUTTER—The market is heavily supplied with both Northern and Western Butter and the demand is limited. Choice Western is quoted at 27½ to 30c, inferior 20 to 25c per lb choice Northern (October 40c, common to good 28 to 35c per lb.

CHEESE—The stock continues very large and there is scarcely any demand for round lots. We quote choice Western Reserve at 15 to 16c, factory 17 to 18c, and Hollow 19c per lb. Northern cream and English dairy 17 to 19c per lb

WHISKY — The market is quiet. Western rectified is held at 95 to 97½c, and Louisiana at 90 to 92½c per gallon. 25 bbls Louisiana sold at the latter price to day, and 25 Western rectified at 96c per gallon.

WHEAT—A lot of 17,000 bushels No 1 spring, Chicago, in bulk, in the elevator, sold, taken for Liverpool, at $1 23 per bushel. It is being sacked for shipment.

BACONING—The market is firm at 25c per yard, with a good demand for the trade.

CORN MEAL—100 bbls kiln dried sold on the landing at $4 50, and 175 bbls at $4 55 per bbl. It is selling from store at $4 75.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
MONDAY EVENING, June 21, 1869.

COTTON—The sales to-day embraced 724 bales. Quotations nominal. Good ordinary 29½c —, low middling 30½c to —, middling 31½ to —.

Our quotations on last Wednesday evening were 30½ to 29½c for good ordinary, 30½ to 31c for low middling, and 31½ to —c for middling, since which there has been no market to serve as a basis for amended figures; but to-day the few sales that transpired were at lower prices, and in accordance with the above modifications. It is presumed that if there were even moderately clean weight room for the North, buyers would come forward more freely, in which case some business might be expected, as there are several lots offering on which the holdings wish to realize.

COTTON STATEMENT.

Stock on hand September 1st, 1868, bales	8,044
Received since last statement	1,0
Received previously	819,049
Additional bales from year's margins
waste, etc	3,113—822,207
	830,251
Cleared to-day	2,259
Cleared previously	826,120—828,377
Stock on hand and on shipboard	1,874
To-day's export were to Liverpool. Receipts proper since Friday evening 477 bales against 170 corresponding time last week.

FREIGHTS—The demand for room for foreign ports is light and the supply of tonnage with the coming up of the stream. Cotton on the offerings one still good and rates firm. We quote:

By steam: Cotton to New York ¾c; to Boston ¾c; to Philadelphia ⅝c per lb. Flour to Northern ports 70 to 80c per bbl. Corn to do 1½ to 10c per bbl.

By sail: Cotton to Liverpool ⅝d; to Havre and Bremen ¾c per lb. Tobacco to Liverpool 35s, to Bremen 35s; to Genoa 40s 6d; to Havre 30 50 to 32 per hhd. Flour to Liverpool 2s 6d per bbl. Oil Cake to do 30s per ton.

We may observe, however, that vessels filling up take cotton under the ruling rate. There is no demand on for Boston, Philadelphia or Liverpool.

There is now no unengaged room by steamer engaging.
