Jefferson Academy,

53.....BOURBON STREET, N. O.....53

Conducted by

C. J. CORD.

THIS establishment, founded in 1836, has long held a high position in public opinion as one of the best institutions in the South of the Mississippi Valley.

The plan comprises a general and extensive system of education. Pupils are received at six or seven years of age, and continued till they are prepared for their future pursuits in life. Parents can select the branches, according to their capacities and acquirements.

The premises are, perhaps, the best adapted to the city, with ample space for exercise and recreation, and every convenience for an institution of learning.

The Professors are graduates of colleges, chosen with care. Good order reigns in the establishment, and strict attention is paid to the moral conduct and improvement of the pupils.

NEW ORLEANS

Female Collegiate Institute,

OR

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES,

Under the Supervision of Madame Fn. LOCQUET,

No. 202 Camp Street,

BETWEEN JULIA AND ST JOSEPH STREETS.

THIS establishment, founded by Dr. and Mrs. Mc. A. Locke, whose reputation for purity and high qualification, will commence its sixteenth session on the 5th of September next.

Mme. Fn. LOCQUET, assisted by her sister, Mme. FRANCOIS LOCQUET, will continue the management of the Institution, and will spare no exertion to merit the confidence reposed for so many years, in her predecessors.

Professors of the highest talent are employed in all the branches, both in the Academic Department, Music, Dancing and the study of the Ballet, will be taught exclusively by the Mesdames Locquet, whose reputation as professors of music has been so well appreciated by the numerous families who have favored them with their patronage.

The French language, the native tongue of these ladies, and the employment of the Ollendorf system, insures a good education is taught with the utmost care, and is adopted in the Ballet Class. Young persons thereby gain in their constant intercourse with those teachers every facility possible for perfecting themselves in this language.

This establishment is commodious and well ventilated, and has recently been thoroughly repaired and improved, and is the nearest and healthiest of the pupils.

Mme. Locquet will be pleased to accompany her pupils to all and visit her school, where prospectuses, with all other information which may be desired, will be obtained.

Letters of inquiry will be promptly attended to by the Principal. sep18ly

Harmonious and Mechanical Pianos

ADOLPHE FLANDRAIN,

44.....CONTI STREET.....44

Between Chartres and Royal streets.

HAS just received an assortment of Harmonious and Mechanical Pianos, directly from the manufactory of A. Debain, Paris, supplied to all the European Courts, and unrivaled for its Harmonious tones, the celebrated Mechanical Piano, on which the most difficult pieces can be performed by persons without a knowledge of music. These instruments are manufactured and improved expressly for saloon-halls, and are acknowledged in Europe to be superior to all others.

Amateurs are invited to call and judge for themselves of the excellence of the above Pianos. Mr. F. attends to tuning and repairing, and has for sale Guitars, Violins, Violoncellos, Flutes and Clarionets, according to the wishes of the purchaser.

Mr. LAVENDER, assisted by Mr. W. BATTIER for the Mathematical Department, will take charge of the upper English classes.

Competent Professors have been engaged for the other classes, both English and French, the studies proceeding simultaneously in both languages.

Special attention will be paid to Mathematics, to prepare such pupils as may be destined to West Point, &c.

The discipline will be never but paternal.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL

FOR YOUNG LADIES

Under the direction of

MRS. CHARPAUX,

This Seminary, whose efficiency dates some twelve years back, has ever shown a progress that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have always charge of it.

Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mrs. Charpaux will spare no pains to make her Seminary worthy of the patronage of the best families in the Southern and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.

Madame Charpaux has purchased a large and airy mansion—one of the finest edifices in the city, and the better to commit the health of her pupils, she has had spacious and elevated apartments built on purpose for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.

Home attention will be paid to the improvement of pupils in the French language. For this purpose, Madame Charpaux intends to give her individual attention to this department of instruction.

Music, the most fashionable of all modern accomplishments, and in short all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.

Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr Charpaux, from the best musical school in Paris, and ex-chief of the Orleans Theatre, will devote all his time to the teaching music.

Madame Charpaux, in order to render complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class for which will be taught all the useful and ornamental branches of needle-work.

Madame Parent's Institution,

Corner Royal and Hospital Sts.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS establishment has been removed to corner Royal and Hospital streets. The building is vast, well ventilated and well distributed for class rooms, dormitories, &c. Madame Parent avails herself of this occasion to thank the numerous families who have so largely patronized our institution, and would assure them that their daughters will receive the same maternal care as heretofore. The high moral character of the institution is the best guarantee to that effect. The course of study embraces the same system, in both English and French, as heretofore, and the pupils have the advantage of the best and in Europe. Music, instrumental and vocal, including Solfeggio, is taught by the most competent professors. Drawing and Painting, Dancing by Professor Vigeo, and the Ballet by Madame Vigeo, who has charge of the Lake during the summer months, but will keep the school open in the city throughout the year. Finally, there will be nothing wanting to make the Literary as well as refined education; also to merit to the merits of a thorough and complete education. Parents will find in the institution, consisting that ever engagement contract an economy for pupils. For further information address Madame Parent, at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained. ap14

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Let the Afflicted Speak for Themselves.

From more than one thousand communications received from all parts of the United States, we compile the following plain statement of the effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS upon invalids who have resorted to them for a cure. The testimony is published in full, would fill a volume, we present at one glance all the prominent reasons given by numerous witnesses why the invalid should use this medicine. It has restored them from a state of healthy suffering and mental anxiety, to the enjoyment of lively health and a cheerful and perfect health. Let it be clearly understood, that the cures by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are not those of a single individual, or a few individuals, but are those of a multitude, whose testimony is equally conclusive and emphatic as that of the individual whose name is appended to the testimonial.
