Washington, Feb. 27.—Governor Cox, of Ohio, has written a letter denying a conversation which he had with the President, in which the President said his policy had simply aimed at the restoration of the Union on the basis of loyalty. He Governor said that policy having been adopted when he entered office, he was found to adopt one of his own. One control that controlled him in its whole bearing, and that was, that a proper appeal of population should be one that would attract everywhere the loyalty of the people, South as well as North, and that the South would begin a spring of loyal conduct and proper legislation, rather than impose upon them from the outside by direct external force.

Quebec, Canada West, Feb. 27.—The Canada Gazette contains a proclamation revoking American fishermen that they have the Canadian Atlantic Seaboard Provinces.

Washington, Feb. 27.—In the Senate Mr. Grimes of Iowa in presenting petitions from the citizens of that State took occasion to say that the dispatch saying that the President had and the vote message of the President, which had been endorsed by an address of the Legislature of the State of Iowa, was a mistake. The address which had strongly opposed the veto, and had been thrown into the river for the statesmen of disloyal sentiments. He was unwilling the dispatch should go any further to the reflection of the sentiments of the people of Iowa.

A telegram of Southern loyalists, taken up that no matter or fact, the appeal, the petition from the southern States, and that Senator shall have been declared entitled to representation.

Sherman said the rebellion constituted no power, not already vested in Congress. A similar resolution had been adopted by the last Congress.

In the House Mr. Bingham of Michigan, introduced a bill to amend the constitution in favor of the President's Bureau bill.

Mr. Bingham reported from the Committee on Reconstruction a joint resolution to amend the Constitution, by adding the following article: "That Congress shall have the power to make all the laws which shall be necessary and proper to secure to the citizens of each State all the privileges and immunities of citizens of the several States, and to all persons in the several States equal protection in rights of life, liberty and property." Mr. Bingham spoke briefly in support of this amendment.

Mr. Rogers opposed it as unnecessary and dangerous.
