EDUCATION.

MRS. FARRER'S INSTITUTION,
Corner Royal and Hospital streets.
DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL FOR YOUNG LADIES.

THIS establishment has been removed to corner of Royal and Hospital streets. The building is new, well ventilated and well distributed for school purposes, dormitories, &c. Moderate but not exclusive of the occasion to think the successors hereafter will become largely patronized her institution, and should entertain that she has daughters of her friends the same maternal care as heretofore. The long tried reputation of her institution is the best guarantee to that effect. The course of study embraces the same systems, in both English and French, as that employed in the best other institutions in the North and Europe. Music, instrumental and vocal, including Italian, is taught by the most celebrated professors, also Drawing and Painting; Dancing by Professor Vogts.
Madame Farrer will remove her institution across the Lake during the summer months, but will keep the school open in the city throughout the year. Finally, there will be additional advantage to complete a thorough as well as refined education; also to enable to the hearts of young persons that pure morality upon which the foundation of their future happiness, and that very elegance of manner so necessary for young persons. For further information apply at the Institution, Hospital, Hospital, corner Royal, or at the Institution, where prospectuses can be obtained.

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR YOUNG LADIES,
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF
MADAME CHARPAUX,
At the corner of Bagou and Chafforte streets.

THIS SEMINARY, whose existence dates some six years back, has met with a success that proves, beyond all cavil, the capacity of those who have charge of it.
Determined to merit the confidence of parents, Mad. Charpaux will use her utmost to make her seminary equal to the best institutions of the kind in New Orleans, and in order to do this, she has employed the ablest teachers.
Madam Charpaux has purchased a large and airy edifice on one of the highest places of ground in the city and added to it a spacious room to the south of her house, which she has made a spacious and elevated apartment for pupils for school and sleeping rooms, through which there will be a constant circulation of air from many windows.
Great attention will be paid to the improvement of scholars in the English language. For this purpose, an accomplished lady of the highest qualifications, as teacher, will constantly reside in the Seminary.
The English, French and Spanish languages, Geography, Arithmetic, and in fact all the branches of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all good education, it is the first thing attended to by Madam Charpaux, who will conduct to church and spiritual catechisms all her young ladies who may have their first communion to make.
Music having become a most desirable branch of the education of young ladies, Mr. Charpaux, from the best musical schools in Paris, and an artist of the Opera Comique, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Schools, besides their regular lessons, will practice daily under the eyes of the professor. The study of the notes will precede the performance, when Mr. Charpaux will put the pupils through the execution of the regular keys and notes, and will be assisted in the exercise by an entire energy.
In order to kindle emulation among the pupils, and improve their singing, on the morning of the last Saturday in each month, there will be a musical examination and a distribution of rewards.
Madam Charpaux, in order to complete the education of her scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the elegant and ornamental branches of needle-work.
During the summer the classes will open at 8 o'clock, and close at 11. Re-open at 4 and close at 6 o'clock P. M. In winter, they will open at 8½, and close at 11. Re-open at 4½ and close at 6 o'clock P. M.
