[illegible] VOLQUIN, ARCHITECT OF PARIS,

[illegible] and Pupil of the French Royal Academy of Architecture, has the honor [illegible] offering his services to the citizens of New Orleans. The great works which he has conducted, [illegible] Architect of the two principal Hospitals in Paris, and [illegible] constructions which he has himself made, among which may be named those houses in Rue de l'Universalle, of the value of $122,000, and of which he designed the drawing, makes him confident that he joins to a full theoretical knowledge of his business, a laborious practice.

The stagnation of business in France, induced him to expatriate himself, and he hopes that the inhabitants of this fine city, will repose in him their confidence, either for plans of different kinds of business; Monuments, and every thing appertaining to Architecture, which he will himself do, or superintend the execution.

He will give lessons in the Linnean manner of Drawing; likewise in Geometry, Architecture, Les Corps Pierres, Carpentership, Joinery, and Locksmithing, in their departments. He will also give Private Lessons at his house, or in the City, having been a Professor for years, in Paris; he has more than five or six thousand Models to offer to those pupils he may wish to engage him. sept 18

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

A mulatto negro named BASILE belonging to Mr. Francis Olivile Forcelle, planter of the parish of St. John the Baptist, absented himself from his masters house on the 14th of August last. Said slave about 20 years of age, his size is about 5 feet 4 inches [illegible] measure, and his hand has been burnt by an explosion of powder; he speaks French and a little English. It is believed that he has fled to New Orleans, and that he represents himself as free, and will probably look for work as a segar maker in some segar manufactory. The above reward will be given to any person bringing him back to his master, or will secure him in any jail within the state.

SLAVE RUNAWAY.

RANAWAY from the [illegible] of Louis Tassin, at Bonnet Carre, on the 16th of this month, an American mulatto slave named JUPPY; he speaks very little French, aged about 25 years, is about 5 feet 4 inches high, has very little beard—has a stern look—his hair is straight and long, and has a cicatrice on the right hand occasioned by a blow from an axe. Having carried away all his clothes it is probable he will change his dress. It is to be presumed that he was enticed away by two white men who were seen near the environs of the plantation, and who disappeared at the same time he did. Captains of steamboats and others are cautioned not to harbor him. A reward of $25, will be given for his apprehension, upon notice thereof being given to his master. aug 30

$50 REWARD.

Ranaway from the subscriber day before yesterday, a young mulatto, aged about 12 years, named HENRY common size, handsome face, skin very clear, straight, has a pretty large burn on the right side of the check near the ear, and speaks both French and English.

The above reward will be given for his arrest on application to THEO. NICOLET,
july 3 Royal street, No. 102.

Detained at the Jail of the Parish of Jefferson, the negro Bon, belonging to Mr. Drauzin La Branche, of St. Charles; a negress named Angé, belonging to Mr. Gray, of New-Orleans a negress named Julienne, belonging to Mr. Tipot, of New-Orleans.

A negro named DICK, who says he belongs to Mr. Lacoste, planter of the parish of St. Bernard.

A negress named JOSEPHINE, belonging to Mr. Fory, of New-Orleans.

The owners are requested to claim their property.
sept 23 VICTOR PICAUD, Jailor.

DETAINED in the parish jail of the parish of Jefferson, a mulatto named SAMUEL, who says he belongs to Mr. Louis Fasen, living at Bonnet Carre. The owner of said slave is requested to come and take him away according to law.
