MADAM REY

Arrived recently from Paris, milliner and mantua maker, has the honor of offering her services to the ladies of New Orleans. Her long experience in the preparation of various objects of taste and fashion, and the zeal and promptitude she will exhibit in the execution of commands intrusted to her, induce her to hope that she will merit a portion of public patronage.

Her residence is in Dauphine street, No. 182, between Toulouse and St. Peter.

dec 6

MRS. DOCTEUR

Has the honor to inform the ladies of New Orleans, that she is receiving from Paris by the late arrivals an assortment of new and fancy goods. She has moreover an establishment where all orders for mantlas, bonnets, and other fancy articles will be promptly and neatly executed, at No. 112 Royal street, between St. Louis and Conti streets.

dec 2—6t

MILLINERY AND FANCY STORE.

MADAM FEUMELAU begs leave to inform her friends and the public generally, that she has just opened, at the corner of Toulouse and Chartres streets, a milliinery and fancy store, the stock of which comprises all the latest fashions and novelties of the season. Madam Feumelau trusts that her experience in this line of business (having long conducted the store of Madam E. Lefebvre) will insure to her establishment a fair share of public patronage.
