The New Orleans Bee.

NO. 109 CHARTRES STREET. NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 17, 1855. {Vol. XVI. New series. Vol. xxix.—Whole No. 7099

THE DAILY BEE.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 17th, 1855.

The office of the "Bee" is removed to 109 Chartres street, between Conti and St. Louis.

The Northern Mail failed yesterday August. Two of the back mails. There are two more still due.

A REJOINDER.

A correspondent much of our avail able and conclusive ex- cepts passed before the public by the State Central Committee, in communication of the Demo- mittee. It is our sincere belief the Democratic Com- turned their fingers in the at- popular sympathy in their the American party, comments given show convincingly Democratic Committee, while pro- the concurrence of the committee in the series of ques- the selection of jurists to addressed, never expected binary and discourteous a replies by old on the same American Committee. They that the latter would not parties to an arrange- then they had not been certain mooted exclusively We say the Demo- in advance, for of some of the resolutions of the were transmitted to expectation, and answers Democratic Com- copy of the American proposition. It and undeniable that Committee merely sought the American Commit- manufacturing capital and that so of our country and one- be rejected, that employees they en- Democratic Committee, Nativism, Abolitionism, Free Soil- ism, Disunionism, Agrarianism, Infidelity, Papacy, Mormonism, Mahomedanism, Pagan- ism, Hindooism, Fire Worship, Idolatry, Witchcraft, Sorcery, Necromancy, Witchcraft, Sorcery, Necromancy, Witchcraft, Sorcery, Necromancy