I HAVE had long experience in the art of teaching Living Languages, from and respectably with the Literary Institutions of Europe as one of the FRENCH or ITALIAN Language, that he is perfectly competent to teach and to impart the knowledge of the Language, in the shortest possible time, to such as are anxious to learn it.

These who have gone through the full course of instruction in schools, studying the orthography of the language, translating from the language of their native tongue, reading, writing and understand the SPOKEN LANGUAGE, will note and observe, in a fortnight's time, the SUCCESSFUL results of the application of the Professor in combined advantages, of teaching the French to speak, to read, to write
