HELVETIC ACADEMY.

THE Rev. Mr. D. FERREX, who had been obliged, on account of the sickness, to be for a short time absent from the city, is now returned, and has removed to the house belonging to Madam Porter, situated in Dauphine street, between Bienville and Conti streets. His residence being now permanently fixed in New-Orleans, Mr. D. F. has the honor to remind parents, that he will continue to devote a part of his time to the instruction of youth.

His plan, already known unites several advantages, which he has reason to think are worthy to be appreciated. The friend as well as the Teacher of those confided to his care; he endeavors, as far as possible, to smooth the asperities in the acquirement of science, and to lead his pupils by pleasant paths to the limits of education. It is after the manner of the Swiss and German schools that Mr. D. F. has formed his method of teaching, and which he dares presume will be attended with perfect success. Moreover, he will be happy to give persons who may think proper to call on him, all such information as can be desired, but which could not well be explained in the present notice.

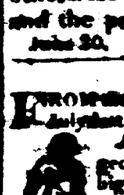
RUNAWAY.

FROM the undersigned's house on the 20th instant, in the morning,



A negro woman named AGNES, aged about 25 years, about 5 feet high, big lips, big mouth and eyes,—has a front tooth missing, an old scar of about four inches on her neck, and is a native of the Plantation of Mr Chaubet, in merlin, parish of Assumption.

The said negress was on the bank of the river, about 9 o'clock, a. m. cleaning a fish, and it was not until about half past ten o'clock, that her absence was noticed—a man known to be a slave of Chaubet, was seen passing by in a pirogue about time.

The said negress, should she attempt several times, though she may wish to go to town, and [illegible] after her that, and the two following days to ascertain whether she had fallen into the river, leaves no room to doubt but that she embraced the opportunity of the above mentioned persons to runaway.

Anyperson who can give any information respecting the said negress, is requested to do so by leaving a note at No. 47 St Peter-st. at Mad. widow Duval's house, or directing it to the undersigned, at his plantation, Bayou Plaquemine.
