COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DEL. }
Afternoon Evening, Oct. 15, 1856.

COTTON market has been very quiet to-day, and prices are still lower, with sales of barely 1000 bales; quotations are entirely nominal, and we refer to the following:

CLASSIFICATION—LOUISIANA AND MISSISSIPPI.

Ordinary	8—8½	Middling Fair	12½@12¾
Middling	10—10½	Fully Fair	12¾@13
Middling Fair	11—11½	Good Fair	13@—
Fully Middling	11¾@12	Good and Fine	—@—

TOBACCO, the transactions include 11 hhds (a Small Lot of SUGAR have been selling at full prices.

MOLASSES, for New Orleans Refinery sold at and 100 at 55c. per gallon.

FLOUR, a moderate only sale of 1000 bbls at $5 75 ⅌ bbl.

WHEAT unchanged, 500 sacks ordinary at 2 95 ⅌ sack at $1 60 ⅌ bushel.

CORN, about 500 sacks have been sold at 65c. ⅌ sack for white.

PORK has been sold, and only some small lots yesterday, prices are nominally unchanged.

BACON, sales of Shoulders, and 25 sacks Clear Sides at 9c. ⅌ lb.

LARD, we have heard of no sales.

WHISKY, comprising Ohio and Rectified sales at 24c. ⅌ gallon.

NOTE.—The transactions at Lake Pontchartrain, and 125 miles above, will be found under the head of Mobile.

FREIGHTS, we hear of nothing doing.

Sterling Exchange, we repeat our quotations, viz: Long Sterling, and 11 to 60 days, 9 to 9½ Sterling, 9½ to 9¾ Sterling, 9¾ to 9¾ Sterling, 9¾ to 9¾ Sterling, 9¾