FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Paris, March 19.—The National Guards have placarded two proclamations. The first one issued says: "The French people waited calmly until the attempt was made to touch the life of the Republic. The army did not raise its hands against the arch of the liberties of the Republic, the only government that can close the era of the invasions and civil war.

The people of Paris are convoked for communal elections. The proclamation is signed by the Central Committee of the Guard, dated at the Hotel de Ville. The second proclamation is as follows: "To the people of Paris—you have entrusted us with the defence of the rights of Paris. We have driven out the government which betrayed us. Our mission is fulfilled, and we now repeat to you: prepare for communal elections. Give us, as our only recompense, the establishment of a real republic."

Paris, March 20.—No resistance is made to the insurgents.

Gen. Lecompte and Thomas were executed by order of Ricciotti Garibaldi, who directed the insurgents.

Paris, March 20.—The official journal contains the following: A proclamation from a committee assuming the name of the Central Committee has been distributed throughout Paris. The men of the barricades have taken possession of the Ministry of Justice and assassinated Generals Chanzy, Clement Thomas and Lecompte. Who are the members of the committee is unknown, as is also what they deliver Paris from. The crimes committed by them removes all excuse for support by their followers. Let all who have regard for the honor and interests of France separate from them and rally around the Republic and the Assembly. (Signed by the Ministers at present in Paris.)

Paris, March 19.—10 o'clock Sunday evening.—It is said that M. Assy, of the international society was president of the court martial which condemned Gens. Lecompte and Thomas to death.

The National Guards are now the only armed force in Paris. Most of the Nationals are marching through the streets belonging to the faubourgs. There are barricades in Pendes Martyr, Arenne Poulaine, the Chamseu de Cligneancourt, the Faubourg St. Denis, the Rue Rochechouart, the vicinity of the Hotel deVille and the Faubourg St. Antoine. Elsewhere it is calm.

The weather is splendid and there is the usual Sunday promenading. No acts of pillage have occurred, but there is no traffic.

The insurrectionists hold the mayoralties and the offices of ministers and telegraphs.

Parisian mayors and deputies demand the removal of Generals Aurelles de Paladine and Vinoy and of the Prefect of Police, Valentine M. Jerry was suggested as the latter's successor, and the Government gave its consent to the changes. Gen. Langlais, who succeeded Gen. Aurelles de Paladine, after the latter was taken prisoner, went to the Hotel de Ville, but the insurgents refused to recognize him.

Several positions in Belleville and Montmartre have been fortified. The cannon in the arrondissement de Butte Aux Chasseurs were returned to the authorities on Saturday, the National Guards of that section being unwilling to become insurgents.

Rome, March 20.—The people here are deeply excited over the news from Paris but no outward demonstrations has been made. The Mobiles are prohibited from crossing to the right bank of the Seine. It is rumored that the German forces will reoccupy their former posts if the disorder in Paris continues.

Florence, March 20. — The discussion in the Chamber of Deputies upon the subject of Papal guarantees was closed Saturday, and an order of the day carried, forbidding interference on the part of the Government with the religious worship.

The Pope has repudiated the guarantees offered him by the Government.

In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, Senor Modino deposed an order of the day to the effect that the Papal guarantees are an object for international regulation. The discussion of the proposition was repudiated by the Government.

London, March 20.—The bark Cornwall was sunk by a collision with the steamer Himalaya, and eleven persons were drowned.

London, March 20.—Napoleon left Wilhemshohe on Sunday, escorted to the station by a guard of honor. He arrived at Dover to-day where the immense crowd awaiting him cheered enthusiastically.

It is thought that the revolutionary proceedings extend to Marseilles, Lyon, and even to Bordeaux.

The Thier's Government contemplate going to Tours.

The Germans decline to interfere.

A report from Paris says that the generals arrested have been released by Gen. Vinoy, have deserted and joined the insurgents.

London, March 20. — The Luxembourg Avenier says the present unfriendliness of the French is exaggerated. They did expel Luxembourgers from Paris, but sent them home at their own request.

London, March 20.—In the House of Commons to-night Lowe gave notice that the budget would be laid before the House immediately after the Easter holidays.

Trasellyan moved a resolution for secretary colonelcies, which he said cost the Government £300,000 a year. The motion excited a debate.

In view of the Government's measures for the re-organization of the army it was sustained in the Commons for the adjournment of the debate by 92 majority.

The House voted £36,000 for relief of Paris and passed a resolution for the purchase of Peal's pictures.

London, March 20—6 P. M.—In Paris this morning the situation was unchanged.
