RESISTANCE TO THE GAG.

Indications are already beginning to appear that the agitation is chiefly with the Democracy. Between the friends of DALLAS and BUCHANAN—both Keystone State, both aged and venerable statesmen, and both unpopular with the indomitable and ever-ready to have an exciting contest—the nomination of Mr. DALLAS is sustained by a quasi-Democratic meeting held last night by sundry citizens of the country, "Old Buck," the idol of the Democracy in the Senate were wont to whistle him some years ago, does not seem to be killed with kindness in Pennsylvania. We are not aware of any Democratic meeting in Louisiana that openly expresses such preferences. The most influential organ of the party—the Courier of Philadelphia, discreet and sensible politicians, from committing itself in any way, we presume, to go for the nomination of the National Convention. Some begins with a D, a B, or, perhaps, with a G.

Journals purporting to be the organs of Democracy that are far from being Democratic, will stand by the gag. This assumption of the Democratic name is repudiated by the more sound and sobriety right. First, the gag is Whigism—is not qualified by any reservation, or disinterested patriotic motive, or office of tutor to the people, as a mere leader at the Press-Table, moves and has its office as a component of the White Party, depends upon his, and his associates' ability on all subjects, and upon the affiatus of President. The idea of so sheer and black a scheme itself up as a Democrat to the Democratic party, is RIDICULOUS himself, and laughed at.

Some people that underlies this gag, is not so much the discussion of slavery—it is office prior to their principles subversive of independence of all manliness and sincerity, is one of the leading causes why the Democrats are cursed with such a set of office-seekers. The Democracy is peculiarly afflicted in every symptom of opposition, with a spirit of the vain and arrogant; and, of late years, it has been seldom that the previous government that resisted to impair the cohesive power of sound party is worth the sacrifice of sentiment and principle, is not employed by the leaders of the country. If we can but keep together the sound and intelligent men, and the ignorant masses, and the thoughtless, we think that it will be a great success in convention may find the sooner party ties are broken, the better for the national feeling, process has been carried on, and has been fruitful in evil. We see that all the Democrats are disposed to tolerate it in the back-door party of party.

Caucuses must be taken in a general sense, when we contend for the palpable fact, political or not, to the exclusion of a candidate, we think that if the Democracy of Louisiana adhere to be used, he cannot obtain the support of the National Convention: but there is a National Democrat party which will represent a desirable ambiguity in the shape of two tickets, one a more Democratic, the other a more Whig, presents.

CHINA.—The news from China is to the end of August. There is nothing of startling importance. The accounts of engagements between the Rebels and Imperialists, in which tens of thousands were killed, are regarded with a mere flourish of the pen. It is estimated that in the province of Canton alone one million persons have been killed by fire, starved, or executed since these disturbances commenced.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Five ballots were had for Speaker in the House to-day, the last one resulting as follows: Banks 102, Richardson 74, Fuller 41. There is no prospect of an election yet.

LATER FROM KANSAS.

Some persons from Massachusetts, who left Kansas on the 3d instant, state, according to the Chicago Tribune, that 700 men were under arms at Lawrence, and that 500 Missourians were at Wakefield Creek, seven miles from Lawrence, with rifles and cannon, and that they met other parties of Missourians two days after with cannon and other implements of war.

NEW YORK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Our cotton market is unsettled, with sales to-day of 3,000 bales. Ohio flour $8.75; Southern $9.62½. Corn 90c.

[By the National Line.]

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 15.—The river is rising, with five feet three inches in the canal. The T. C. Twichell arrived from New Orleans on the 13th, and the Monarch, Tecumseh, Thos. Swan and David White left on the same day for that port. The Ben Franklin and Moonbahela arrived on the 14th from, and the Sherman left for New Orleans.

CINCINNATI MARKET.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—Flour is dull at $7 25; Whisky 30½c.; Coffee 11½ to 11½c.

PARDON OF KISSAME.—Governor Clark has granted a pardon to Kissame, who was sentenced some months since to two years and a half imprisonment for defrauding the Chemical Bank out of a large sum of money, by a very ingenious scheme. The Governor has been induced to extend this clemency to the prisoner, in consequence of strong representations made by the Governors of Ohio and Indiana, that the ends of public justice would be subserved by his pardon. The District Attorneys in the State of Ohio also stated that they required Kissame's testimony as a witness in a number of important cases growing out of the burning of the Martha Washington, in January, 1853, by which much valuable property was destroyed, a gross fraud on several insurance companies attempted, and a number of lives sacrificed. Andrew Finlay, the accomplice of Kissame, and Lyman Cole, who turned State's evidence, were liberated from custody last week.

Bermuda papers publish an account of an exciting race between the Bermudian bark Pearl, Capt. Hutchings, and the American bark Mercurat, Capt. Ward, both of which vessels left New York in company for Bermuda, on the 16th ultimo. The former was, it appears, more deeply laden than her antagonist, and had a deck load of cattle, but nevertheless managed to outsail the latter several hours. Both made the passage from New York in the unprecedented time of three days. Large bets were offered in New York, prior to her leaving, that the American would lick the Bermudian.

The Natchitoches Chronicle says: The planters of our parish have generally gotten through with picking cotton, and the crop is now pretty well ascertained. In this parish, no more than a half of what would be termed a fair crop, has been made. This is not only the case with Natchitoches, but also with the parishes above us. The backwardness of the season, the drought, the worm and the rot have all conspired this year to reduce the crops.

In the Library of the British Museum may be seen a book, printed in the Low Dutch, containing upwards of sixty specimens of paper, made of different articles, the result of one man's experiments as early as 1772. In the manufacture of paper almost every species of tough fibrous vegetable, and even animal substances, have at one time or another been employed. The roots of trees, their bark, the vine of hops, the tendrils of the vine, the stalks of the nettle, the common thistle, the stem of the hop bine, the sugar cane, cabbage stalks, wood-shavings, sawdust, hay, straw, willow, and the like, have all been used, says Herring, in his work on modern and ancient paper-making, the manufacture of paper.

T. F. Meagher, Esq., who was admitted to the bar of New York a few months ago, and who married a Fifth Avenue belle a few weeks since, has formed a law partnership in that city with Malcom Campbell, Esq., son of the late Judge James Campbell, and nephew of General Scott.

Mr. RINGWAY, civil engineer and geologist, estimates the amount of merchantable coal in Hampshire and Harky counties, Va., at 1,560,000,000 tons at the lowest calculation. Within the area of the coal measured he locates 375,000,000 tons of nodular argillaceous iron ore, besides 135,000,000 tons of globular siliceous fossiliferous" variety of ore in the rocks of knobly mountain.

Dr. A. A. HAYES, in a communication to the Boston Atlas, suggests a plan by which the present scarcity and high price of saltpetre may be in great measure obviated. He proposes to import nitrate of soda, which is a natural product found in the district of Atacama, South Peru.

The Farmerville (La.) Enquirer places at the head of its columns the name of MILLARD FILLMORE for President, and RANDELL HUNT for Vice-President. Worse selections might certainly be made. We consider RANDELL HUNT worthy of any office within the gift of the people.

The Journal de Constantinople says that Mr. Meymardier will open a theatre at Sebastopol in the spring. At Constantinople, also, the same director is about to establish a French theatre, where farce, drama, opera and even the ballot will be produced.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. John W. Ross, of Homer, La., got one of his eyes put out while on a camp-hunt to the Lake, a few days ago. He was cutting some pine, when a fragment struck his eye and penetrated the ball.

SUGAR CROP OF RAPIDES.—The Alexandria Democrat of the 17th says: We have taken the trouble of getting from several of our largest and best planters (all of whom are now through grinding their crops of sugar this year,) the following statement, for the purpose of comparing it with last year's crop, and regret to say it falls short of the last year's crop one-fourth, which is a fair average of the crop of Rapides.

A TECUMSEH TRIBUTE.—A. E. Bradbury, Esq., editor of the Musical Gazette, and Review, of New York, recently lost a little daughter about five years of age. In announcing her death, he uses the following touching language:

Kittie is gone. Where? To heaven. An angel came and took her away. She was a lovely child—gentle as a little lamb; the pet of the whole family; the youngest of them all. But she could not stay with us any longer. She had an angel sister in heaven who was waiting for her. The angel-sister was with us only a few months but she has been in heaven many years, and she must have loved Kittie, for every body loved her. The loveliest flowers are often soonest plucked.—If a little voice sweeter and more musical than others was heard, I knew Kittie was near. If any study-door was opened so gently and silly that no sound could be heard, I knew Kittie was coming. If after an hour's quiet play, a little footfall passed me, and the door opened and shut as no one else could open and shut it, "so as not to disturb Papa," I knew Kittie was going. When, in the midst of my composing, I heard a gentle voice saying: "Papa may I stay with you a little while? I will be very still," I did not need to look off my work to assure me that it was my little lamb. You staid with me too long, Kittie dear, to leave me so suddenly; and you are too still now.

You became my little assistant—my home singer—my youngest and sweetest singing-bird, and I miss the little voice that I have so often heard in the adjoining room, catching up and echoing little snatches of melody as they were being composed. Little home-bird and sweet kisses. I miss the little hand that was always first to be placed upon my forehead, to "drive away the pain." I miss the sound of those little feet upon the stairs. I miss the little knock at my bedroom door in the morning, and the bright good-night kiss in the evening. I miss the prattle which from the sunniest of faces. I miss—oh! how I miss the foremost in the little group who came out to meet me in the hall for the first kiss. I miss you at the table, and at family worship. I miss your voice in "I want to be an angel," and Kitchy coo's sing it like you. I miss you in my room and trail. I miss you in the garden. I miss you everywhere but in heaven. Kitchy coo's sing it like you. I miss you in my room and trail. I miss you in the garden. I miss you everywhere but in heaven. I will try not to miss you in Heaven. Why, if we are spared, with the same mercy, we shall take us to Heaven where we dwell. When the question was asked, how time did I think the angel was so long? We had the "angel song" and the great "Hallelujah" in Handel's Messiah to make good time. Well, Kittie, we shall come home. Sit a little longer, Kittie, and papa will come. The journey is not long. He will soon be "home."

FIRE STORM.—About four o'clock, P. M. on Saturday, 1st inst., the wind blew very high in the city, and had continued for three days with the same violence. The fire in the Bayou Sara district probably thinned. Most of the stores were on large or partridge cage—C. de Demorest.

Further from California.

Although the El Dorado brings no later dates from California than those received by the Pennsylvania, the arrival of the mails by the former enables us to complete the summary of intelligence previously given. The San Francisco speaking of the murder of Col. Richardson by Cora, says:

The excitement which arose when these facts became known was widespread and intense. The Monumental bell was tolled, and many of the members of the old Vigilance Committee rallied to its call. Although there was some talk of lynching, yet wiser counsels prevailed, and it was conceded that the murderer was safe in the custody of the officers of the law. Fifty men were selected from the Vigilance Committee to guard the county jail, where Cora is now confined. Gen. Richardson was 52 years of age. He had been Quartermaster General of the California militia, was a member of the Democratic National Convention in 1853; and since March, 1853, has been U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of California. He was a faithful and efficient officer, gentlemanly in his deportment, a good citizen and a warm friend. He leaves a young wife, who, in her delicate situation, is brought to the point of death by this sudden and melancholy bereavement.

Hon. Isaac S. Wall, Collector of the port of Monterey, and T. S. Williamson, an editor of the county of Monterey, were murdered on the 10th inst. The first reports were received here by express and telegraph, and produced an intense sensation throughout this community. Messrs. Wall and Williamson were on the road from Monterey to San Luis Obispo, and were assassinated when about 26 miles from the former place. They were both shot through the head, from behind—the wounds having apparently been made by rifles. Wall had upwards of $1,000 in belt upon his person, and Williamson $150, also in a belt. None of this money was taken—from which an inference is drawn that revenge was the motive of the assassination.

Three miners—Arthur P. Haven, Robinson Dane, and Nathaniel Block—were killed by the caving in of a bunch of earth at Ridgeville, Trinity county, a few days since.

A duel took place on the 14th instant, near this city, between Mess. Derbec, editor of L'Echo du Pacifique, and Mons. De la Chapelle, formerly editor of Le Messager. After an exchange of shots, in which no injury resulted to either party, a reconciliation took place.

The rainy season has set in, and all our interior exchanges "make a note of it." In San Francisco less rain has fallen than in the mining districts, but sufficient to warn us that winter is approaching.

The accounts from the mines are generally very flattering. Immense piles of earth have been thrown up in the dry diggings, awaiting the rains to wash out the gold, and now that water is becoming abundant there is no lack of employment for all. New discoveries are continually made—discoveries which exceed in richness all former ones—such for instance as Table Mountain, which is represented to overlay a bed of gold which will require years of labor to exhaust.

Mr. Julius Levy (of the firm of St. Leahy, Levy & Co.) convicted in the United States Circuit Court of smuggling, has been sentenced to pay a fine of $6000 and to be imprisoned one year in the county jail. The smuggled goods, valued at $30,000, were also forfeited. An effort is making to obtain the interposition of Executive clemency.

Dr. Birdsall has resigned the superintendency of the French Mint in this city. Hon. Peter Lott has received the appointment to the vacancy, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Hence or Death.—Mr. Kendall case notoriety, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Rennie, that on the 22d of September last, he entrusted to one Jacob Walker, a watch, which he had purchased in Sacramento, for safe keeping and safeout. Since that time he has received neither that nor money, and he therefore charges Walker with a breach of trust. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

LUNACY.—E. Lorenzian was found by the First Recorder yesterday, in a state running around the streets in a state of lunacy, and was at least insane. Yesterday the Recorder sent him to the Insane Asylum. Another crazy person, named Henry Simmons, was also sent to the Insane Asylum.

AN ASSAULT NEGRO BURNED TO DEATH.—A slave named Edmond, belonging to Mr. J. B. Walker, was so severely burned by being set on fire, that fire was intentional, on Wednesday last, that he died on Saturday.—The deceased was from 20 to 25 years of age, and had lived in this city over thirty five years.

WOMAN BEATING.—A man named John Nolan, who lives in Hodgeman street, was yesterday arrested for having beaten his wife. The woman is so badly bruised as to be unable to appear. The accused was sent to prison.

Robert Duncan was arrested for having brutally beaten and kicked a Perdido street woman, named Elizabeth Greyer, on Monday evening.

CORRECTED.—John Boyle was yesterday sent before the First District Court by Recorder Bright, for trial, for carrying an unlawful weapon concealed on his person, to wit, a double barrel pistol. Bail was soon in default of bail.

Robert McGinnis, a keeper of a grocery store at the corner of Camp and Girod streets, was also committed for trial on a charge of allowing slaves to assemble in his place on the Sabbath, for the purpose of trafficking. Bail was fixed at $500.

James Glover was sent before the First District Court, under bonds of $500, for carrying a bowie knife concealed on his person.

KISSING AND DRY GOODS.—The attention of keepers is called to the sale of Kissing and Dry Goods to take place THIS DAY, at 10 o'clock, at Dr. Perpshaw & Co.'s auction room, No. 28 Old Levee street. Terms liberal at sale.

Wanted! Wanted! Wanted! ON A FEW FACTS FOR THE INSANE.—Leave our readers ever heard of Professor HOLLOWAY? Undoubtedly they have, just as they have heard of HUMBOLDT, ARAGO, GUYOTE, BELLINI, ALADDIN, and other notable men of learning. But have they ever noticed the Professor, who is rather a handsome woman of thirty-five or thereabouts, appointed and dressed in an official way, in which she charged him with having on Saturday evening last, attempted to open her a torrent of obscene abuse, such as would have shocked a Billingsgate fishwoman, or a Tombs lawyer. He then stated that he had to be her door, says, and made many loud threats, which attracted several persons, who finally held hands on the accused and took him out of doors, where he was a prisoner. The Recorder ordered Houghton to give bonds or keep the peace, which he did, and was then released. The Houghton is a very trifling fellow, and is a great disgrace to the pettifogging profession. The cause of his demonstration towards Madame Hollowayo, we did not learn. It may have been jealousy, as they are said to have been on intimate terms of friendship heretofore.

DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE GAZETTE CASE.—The Supreme Court yesterday reversed the decision of the Second District Court in the celebrated libel case, and decided that the appellant, Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines, should have leave to prosecute the alleged libel will of her father, Dan'l Clarke, constituting her his sole heir. Judge Mazureau dissented, present, and Justice Lea dissented from the decision.

RUNS LOVE MARINE.—Thomas Kilbride, who keeps a grocery store at the corner of Orleans and Girod street, was arrested on the 14th instant, near the Irish Island, by Mary Reilly, who charged him with having, on Saturday last, "ran away with her" in her way to Church, rushed out and dragged her into his grocery, and when she refused to stay, kept her beaten and abused her. Kilbride, on the contrary, stated that he had been the injured party, it seems Kilbride had become enamored of the girl, and treated her to a few glasses of ale, and on the school of showing his attachment. We would recommend to him to emigrate to New Holland, where the orthodox method of courting is to knock the lover down and by knocking down the object of his admiration, and communicating an entire unknown.

STEALING A COAT.—William Tracy yesterday made complaint to Recorder Rennie, that on Sunday, a black frock coat, of the value of $20, belonging to him, was stolen from on board the ship Detroit. Tracy, as he believes, one Richard Hankin. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

BEAT OR SHOOT.—Mr. Pike, of Kendall case notoriety, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Rennie, that on the 22d of September last, he entrusted to one Jacob Walker, a watch, which he had purchased in Sacramento, for safe keeping and safeout. Since that time he has received neither that nor money, and he therefore charges Walker with a breach of trust. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

AN ATTEMPT TO LEAVE.—The celebrated Benjamin F. Houghton, attorney at law, was arrested on Saturday for a breach of the peace committed against Madame Rachel Alexander, a West Indian lady, living at No. 812 Carondelet street. Houghton upon the sidewalk in front of the house yesterday morning was arraigned before the Recorder, when his counsel, who is rather a handsome woman of thirty-five or thereabouts, appeared and made an affidavit, in which she charged him with having on Saturday evening last, attempted to open her a torrent of obscene abuse, such as would have shocked a Billingsgate fishwoman, or a Tombs lawyer. He then stated that he had to be her door, he says, and made many loud threats, which attracted several persons, who finally held hands on the accused and took him out of doors, where he was a prisoner. The Recorder ordered Houghton to give bonds or keep the peace, which he did, and was then released. The Houghton is a very trifling fellow, and is a great disgrace to the pettifogging profession. The cause of his demonstration towards Madame Hollowayo, we did not learn. It may have been jealousy, as they are said to have been on intimate terms of friendship heretofore.

DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT IN THE GAZETTE CASE.—The Supreme Court yesterday reversed the decision of the Second District Court in the celebrated libel case, and decided that the appellant, Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines, should have leave to prosecute the alleged lost will of her father, Dan'l Clarke, constituting her his sole heir. Judge Mazureau dissented, present, and Justice Lea dissented from the decision.

RUNS LOVE MARINE.—Thomas Kilbride, who keeps a grocery store at the corner of Orleans and Girod street, was arrested on the 14th instant, near the Irish Island, by Mary Reilly, who charged him with having, on Saturday last, "ran away with her" in her way to Church, rushed out and dragged her into his grocery, and when she refused to stay, kept her beaten and abused her. Kilbride, on the contrary, stated that he had been the injured party, it seems Kilbride had become enamored of the girl, and treated her to a few glasses of ale, and on the school of showing his attachment. We would recommend to him to emigrate to New Holland, where the orthodox method of courting is to knock the lover down and by knocking down the object of his admiration, and communicating an entire unknown.

STEALING A COAT.—William Tracy yesterday made complaint to Recorder Rennie, that on Sunday, a black frock coat, of the value of $20, belonging to him, was stolen from on board the ship Detroit. Tracy, as he believes, one Richard Hankin. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

BEAT OR SHOOT.—Mr. Pike, of Kendall case notoriety, yesterday made affidavit before Recorder Rennie, that on the 22d of September last, he entrusted to one Jacob Walker, a watch, which he had purchased in Sacramento, for safe keeping and safeout. Since that time he has received neither that nor money, and he therefore charges Walker with a breach of trust. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

LUNACIES.—E. Lorenzian was found by the First Recorder yesterday, in a state running around the streets in a state of lunacy, and was at least insane. Yesterday the Recorder sent him to the Insane Asylum. Another crazy person, named Henry Simmons, was also sent to the Insane Asylum.

AN ASSAULT NEGRO BURNED TO DEATH.—A slave named Edmond, belonging to Mr. J. B. Walker, was so severely burned by being set on fire, that fire was intentional, on Wednesday last, that he died on Saturday.—The deceased was from 20 to 25 years of age, and had lived in this city over thirty five years.

WOMAN BEATING.—A man named John Nolan, who lives in Hodgeman street, was yesterday arrested for having beaten his wife. The woman is so badly bruised as to be unable to appear. The accused was sent to prison.

Robert Duncan was arrested for having brutally beaten and kicked a Perdido street woman, named Elizabeth Greyer, on Monday evening.

CORRECTED.—John Boyle was yesterday sent before the First District Court by Recorder Bright, for trial, for carrying an unlawful weapon concealed on his person, to wit, a double barrel pistol. Bail was soon in default of bail.

Robert McGinnis, a keeper of a grocery store at the corner of Camp and Girod street, was also committed for trial on a charge of allowing slaves to assemble in his place on the Sabbath, for the purpose of trafficking. Bail was fixed at $500.

James Glover was sent before the First District Court, under bonds of $500, for carrying a bowie knife concealed on his person.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Certificate of Judge Lane, Sen., Editor "Spirit of the Times," Cincinnati, Ohio.

CINCINNATI, October 30, 1854.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir—The Bitters are in great demand here. In addition to the cases sent by Messrs. Desnoyers, your agents, the two other cases sell more of them than I say other medicine. I had three gen. much impaired by convalescent fever unbroken their broken constitutions. I have used during the last month, a bottle of your Bitters myself. They were recommended to me first by a neighbor, at a time when my system was worn down by the effects of a severe Bilious Fever. They gave me an appetite, and restored a tone and vigor to my whole system. In one of the Supplements of my paper I intended my readers of the good effects of the Bitters, since which time they have had a large sale, and have now become the standard medicine in this vicinity.

In conclusion, I could say that I feel great pleasure in giving you this testimony of the public and private value of your preparation.

Respectfully, yours,

RALPH LETT.

Wanted! Wanted! Wanted! ON A FEW FACTS FOR THE INSANE.—Have our readers ever heard of Professor HOLLOWAY? Undoubtedly they have, just as they have heard of HUMBOLDT, ARAGO, GUYOTE, BELLINI, ALADDIN, and other notable men of learning. But have they ever noticed the Professor, who is rather a handsome woman of thirty-five or thereabouts, appointed and dressed in an official way, in which she charged him with having on Saturday evening last, attempted to open her a torrent of obscene abuse, such as would have shocked a Billingsgate fishwoman, or a Tombs lawyer. He then stated that he had to be her door, he says, and made many loud threats, which attracted several persons, who finally held hands on the accused and took him out of doors, where he was a prisoner.
