PENMANSHIP.

MESSRS. DOLBEAR & BROTHERS respectfully give notice that they have returned and reopened their WRITING ACADEMY, at No. 8 Chartres street, where Penmanship in all its variety is taught.

Lessons will be given through the day, and until 10 o'clock in the evening. Ladies who prefer it, can receive lessons at their own residence. By this system—the Carstairian—a more rapid business style may be acquired in two weeks than usually effected in years by the old method.

Ladies and gentlemen are respectfully invited to call and examine specimens written by persons of various ages in this city and elsewhere.

All those who had not time to finish their lessons last season, can do so now free of charge.

They would also inform those who have applied to them for copies of the system, that the next edition will be out in the course of the winter.

In order to give transient persons who have not had an opportunity to examine for themselves—the opinion of those who have, the following report is presented. For others see Circulars.

NEW ORLEANS, 12th May, 1834.

On the invitation of Mr Dolbear, a teacher of Penmanship in our city, upon the Carstairian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 8 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and after having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction that we can testify to the RAPID if NOT UNPARALLELED progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a current opinion, that the system is greatly superior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good taste be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal patronage in favor of an instructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be exceedingly useful to this and other communities.

BY J LE CARPENTIER.

ON Tuesday the 13th January next, at 12 o'clock, at Hewlett's Exchange, will be sold, a SUGAR PLANTATION, situated in the Parish of Iberville on the left bank of the river, about two miles above Manchac Church, having 12 arpents front to the river, and 80 in depth, opening ten degrees. The whole of this plantation is high land, and of the best quality: it abounds with cypress, oak, ash and laurel. A carriage road traverses it to its depth of 80 arpents. This land is well ditched, and is easily drained off into a large Bayou, which serves both the depth and front. There is 34 arpents of cleared land, commencing from the river, and the continuation, about 350 arpents, is fit for any kind of cultivation. The improvements consist of a sugar house, built of brick two sets of sugar kettles, a horizontal mill, with an excellent steam engine, all new; a brick purgery, 60 feet wide, and 175 long; a dwelling house, with a yard, garden, orchard, kitchen, provision house, fowl house, pigeon house, corn mill, blacksmith shop, overseer's house, smoke house, a hospital, 24 negro cabins, stable, shed, &c. &c.

This plantation which is about 30 leagues from New Orleans, is favorably situated round a point for a wood yard for steam boats. Another object of considerable importance, is the projected establishment of a rail road from this place to Nashville or Mobile, which probably will pass through the property, owing to its advantageous situation, being the short cut off to Iberville and Manchac. This project will also give an opportunity of deriving an immense profit, as there is a great deal of cypress and other wood on a superficy of about 800 arpents.

Terms—one-fifth payable in 4 months for approved endorsed paper, and the balance at 1, 2, 3 and 4 years, from the 24th December 1834. The purchaser to put himself in lieu and place of the vender for the following payments:—$3600 on the 3d January 1836, $3600 on the 3d January 1837, and $3600 on the 3d January 1838. The balance of the purchase money divided into shares, on the conditions mentioned above. d5
