FROM RICHMOND.

Richmond, March 9—Richmond papers still express belief that Grant will attack Lee's lines around Richmond in spite of the ground will permit.

The rebels believe that Grant has sent nearly all his cavalry from the armies of the Potomac and James to Sheridan's in the Shenandoah Valley.

A meeting to obtain subscriptions of provisions for Lee's army was recently held in Danville, Virginia. In notoriety in the Richmond Whig says: Gen. Lee's army must be fed or we lose all.

The Danville Register is assured that it does not enter into Lee's plans to abandon the rebel capital unless, as is very probably and possible, what contradictorily added, it becomes impossible to hold the city longer.

On Sunday Richmond was excited with rumor that Johnston had defeated Sherman, and was investing the position taken up by the latter. The next day, however, Richmond papers admitted the falsity of the report, but stated that Hampton had defeated Kilpatrick at Clover. This report, however, was brought by a railroad passenger, who was the only one that knew anything about it.

The state of feeling in North Carolina is plainly evident from the tone of the press and recent events. Nearly a whole company of the 4th North Carolina cavalry deserted, a few days since, and came into Newbern, bringing their horses and equipments. Negroes are coming in in large numbers. The rebels are appropriating all the laws they can lay hands on. Both the troops and people of that State are represented as being in a state of sick of the war.

The Union pickets continued at Florence were sent to Salisbury on the approach of Sherman. On the way many of them escaped and reached our lines at Newbern, under the gallant escort of negro and loyal whites. Arrangements have been made to exchange ten thousand prisoners at Wilmington, and they are now being forwarded.

THE UNION ADVANCE FROM WILMINGTON.

New York, March 9—The Herald's Wilmington correspondent says that Gen. Emory telegraphs from Wilmington that some of our men crossing the Cape Fear that Sherman's victory over Early was more complete than represented by any report we have had. When last heard from the reorganizing for the final crushing blow at Richmond, which he has been doubtless reached and destroyed before this.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

United States Circuit Court.—Judge Durell—In the case of Dr. Thorpe, found guilty of having induced and assisted sailors when attempting to escape from the U. S. Navy, a motion was made for a new trial.

The case of the Intervenors in the case of condemned property of H. M. Hyams, came up yesterday.

The claim of the Citizens' Bank, amounting to $29,849, was allowed, with the claims of Mr. Lemuel Pitts, the Louisiana Benevolent Association, the claims for taxes and the claim of Mr Nicholson. The claim of the Drainage Company was reserved and the intervention of Mrs Robb, Chew, claiming $16,000, and of Mr. Richardson, on military claims, were rejected.

The case of the United States vs. the Bulletin buildings and lots was indefinitely postponed.

Police Court—Mr. Fryer was up before Recorder Vanquard on the charge of having disturbed the peace and dignity of the State by rioting and shouting. Mary Rodgers, the prosecutor in this case was fined $10 for not establishing the charge.

Salvadore Valenza was accused Ella Dodd of having struck him in the face with a throwing stick, and cut his lip. The case was dismissed, as it appeared that Hampton had defeated Kilpatrick at Clover. This report, however, was brought by a railroad passenger, who was the only one that knew anything about it.
