BELLFONTAINE, P. O.,
Chacture Co., Miss., July 24, 1855.
DR COHEN,
DEAR SIR:—I promised you when in New Orleans, that on my return home, I would be in a few weeks to give you some information about myself, and the result of your treatment of my paralyzed side. You know that I was greatly improved before I left New Orleans, I have attended strictly to your instructions, I am now well, with the exception of a slight numbness in my arm and leg, which doing strong well, when we consider the state I was in before you treated me, but I have no doubt that in the course of a few months this numbness will also leave me a fit lessons daily.
In the course of a few weeks, a Mrs Ingraham, who has been afflicted for six years, will go to New Orleans to see you.
You can, if you wish, publish the following certificate from Your friend,
GEORGE W. ADAMS.

MCOTAW COUNTY, MISS.—This is to certify that I, the undersigned, was violently attacked in June of 1853, in Franklin County, Miss., with a paralytic stroke, which confined me to bed some three months, and from that time forward, I never had a foot the use of my entire right side. In February last I met Dr. Cohen in Baton Rouge, who prescribed, it I would come to New Orleans, to improve my condition, if he did not cure me altogether. I did so, and New Orleans, and Dr. Cohen applied his remedies three times a week, and after a few applications a slight improvement was apparent, and I continued gradually improving until such time as I was able to return home, in the latter part of May. I was with me his remedies, and had them faithfully administered, and I am now nearly well, with the exception of a little numbness in the arm and leg. I have the complete use of my arm and hand, and have within three few days been enabled to do all this, and to use a pen without trouble.

DOCTOR HOOFLAND'S
CELEBRATED
German Bitters, PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON, Philad'a., Pa.,
WILL ASSUREDLY CURE
LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE,
Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.
BOOK
Is Gonsiga-
tion, Inward Piles,
Fullness of the Head,
Headache, Acidity of the Stomach,
Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food
Fullness or weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking, or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a prone Position, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits.
In attributing such valuable Medical properties to this remedy, we make no unwarrantable assertion to cure, but it simply stated a fact, proven undeniably and conclusively by the extraordinary cures, and benefits derived from its use, the testimonials of the distinguished originator, Dr. Hoofland, among all classes of European society and from the immense sale of medicines, from all parts of the American continent, accumulated during the last 30 years, in the hands of the present proprietor. The prevalence of diseases to which the German Bitters are adapted, it is with sorrow we say it is almost universal, indeed there are scarcely a place throughout the whole extent of our country in which there cannot be found some of the victims of the DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER AFFLICTIONS, depicting a diseased stomach, or a sallow jaundiced complexion.
Thus, of what an immense importance to the class of invalids, thus certain and safe remedy should be placed within their reach, one in which no baneful or injurious drug enters into its composition, a remedy to which the patient can rely with the utmost confidence and certainty and be assured from actual and tangible proofs, that he will speedily be restored to health and virtue substituted in it. Such a remedy, in "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS." Thousands of dollars have been expended in its manufacture and diffusion throughout the United States, and the proprietor feels the greatest satisfaction in stating, that there is no State, county or even village where the Medicine has been introduced, that there cannot be found numbers willing to testify to its virtues.
His good constantly in the practice of a large number of the most prominent Physicians in the country, who have also added their testimonials to add evidence of the great virtues. In conclusion then we would respectfully ask of all those afflicted with any of the above diseases to give the Bitters a trial, and feel assured it will do what is required. Let all the state ments above made, also be invited to read attentively the "Memorabilia," or "Practical Receipt Book, for Farmers and Families, containing a great amount of useful receipts, in addition to the testimony in favor of the Bitters, from the most distinguished and worthy individuals, in all parts of the Union. All Agents for the Bitters are authorized to distribute the "Receipt Book" gratuitously.

Corner of Bayou and Rampart streets,
NEW ORLEANS.
THIS SYRUP, which is the particular study of the author, and in the preparation where Dr Jordan has shown his ingenuity in Medicine.
Repeated exp. riments have clearly demonstrated that its medicine possesses an intimate knowledge of the Human Lungs, and that it will cure Brown and incontinent dust with success in the affections of the lungs. It is so much so, that it really astonishes physicians, opinions on a subject, that have proved its efficacy in medical cases in cases of acute or chronic catarrhs. Coll Ds, which have resisted the action of numberless remedies, have yielded to its application. It is most tenacious in cases of Hooping Cough. It has the advantage of being pleasant to the taste and scent, and of less unlike the acid to the agonists.
The dose for grown persons must not exceed 1 teaspoonful in 24 hours, and for children 1 to 4 teaspoonfuls a day at discretion. For children under 12 months, one-half tea spoonful is sufficient, three or four times a day. It may be taken without mixture or can be mixed with a little water.

The range of studies which engage the attention of the pupils, extends over all the branches of learning, which are necessary to a useful, polite and finished education; from primary instruction to the more abstruse subjects which are necessary to the province of a collegiate course. The elementary studies are stirred to with more than ordinary care, considering the decisive influence which they exercise over the other branches of instruction—Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic, are taught in the Elementary Department, and the pupils are made to feel the importance of a thorough knowledge of these, which must not be separated from good manners, nor from a good education, to constitute a well rounded character. Pupils are classed according to the age and character of the students, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.

MISS BENSON'S ACADEMY,
63 BOURBON STREET, NEW ORLEANS.
CONDUCTED BY J. S. LONG.
THE plan of this Institution comprises general and extensive system of education. Pupils are admitted at any or seven years of age, and can continue until their education is finished, or until they shall have completed the prescribed course.
Pupils are thoroughly trained into classes according to their intellectual capacities.
Instruction in music, perhaps the strongest feature of the school, is given in classes of eight or ten pupils, under the direction of a competent teacher.
The Collegiate Department, which has proved the most popular, will be kept up, among the pupils and the teachers.
The musical classes, still under the management of Mrs. Lartibeaux, are constantly and carefully attended to.
The annual examination begins in October.
Summer Residence.
From the month of June, a branch of the St. Louis Institution will be established at Pontchartrain, a beautiful village free from epidemic diseases. Madam Dorion's object in opening it, is to afford to accompanied young ladies or those wishing to spend a few months in the country, the facility of continuing the same studies as in the city. Both establishments are opened during the entire summer.
A carriage is attached to the establishment, which conveys young ladies residing above Canal street, to and from the institution. ap4

DAY AND BOARDING SCHOOL, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MADAME FAMENT,
Corner of Rampart and Du Maine streets.
THIS institution occupies one of the best situations in the city with its large and extensive grounds, and important advantages. The building is magnificent, the apartments are lofty and well ventilated, and are particularly well adapted for classes.
There are four fine dormitories with dressing cabinets, also spacious galleries all through the house, a splendid terrace commanding a most beautiful view of the city, and a fine garden.
The best advantages are offered to parents, as to the moral and intellectual cultivation of the minds of their daughters.
Madame Fament is always present with her pupils; she teaches during the hours of class, and superintends the different divisions. There is an ample number of the best professors employed, besides ladies residing in the Institution.
Every branch of a solid and refined education is taught in both languages; all accomplishments, such as Drawing, Painting, Tapestry, Embroidery, &c.
The Musical department (including vocal and instrumental) is conducted by four of the most competent and acknowledged talents in the city.
It would be superfluous to say anything respecting the special attention that is paid to the English, it being Madame Fament's native language. ST. LOUIS INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES
Boarding and Day School, under the direction of Madame Dorion, Dauphine, street, No. 313, near Hospital street No. 185.
THE Directress of this Establishment, being fully sensible of the importance of a thorough knowledge of language, has introduced new modifications in the mode of teaching.
The number of English Professors has been increased. Besides two distinguished Professors who are charged with the instruction of the first and higher classes, four American ladies, who attend to the elementary classes, have every qualification, and speak English only. The pupils are therefore compelled, in their general conversation, to express themselves in the language of the country. Thus, a thorough knowledge of the French language is established, and the pupils are made to feel the importance of a thorough knowledge of the English language, which must not be separated from good manners, nor from a good education, to constitute a well rounded character. Pupils are classed according to the age and character of the students, and intended to give them an accurate idea of duty and good behavior.
The Spanish, French and Spanish languages, geography, arithmetic, and the rudiments of the science of a polite education, will be taught in the Seminary.
As religion should be the foundation of all sound education, it is the duty of the Directress to say, that the pupils, who will conduct to church and preliminary catechism, and the pupils will be made to have their fortnightly communion to make.
Music has been made a most desirable branch at the education of young ladies. Mr. Charpentier, from the best Conservatories of Paris, and pupil of the Professor Stirz, will devote all his time to teaching music. All the Scholars, besides their regular lessons, will practise daily under the direction of Professor. The study of the notes will precede the performances, when Mr. Charpentier will be present to direct the execution of the regular keyed notes, and this will be attended with no extra charge.
In order to kindle emulation among the Pupils, and improve their tempers, it is a rule, and it has always been the Directress, there will be a mental examination and a distribution of rewards.
Elementary classes are formed to complete the education of her Scholars, has opened a class where will be taught all the usual elementary and essential numbers, without any extra charge.
