MESSRS. P. BLANCHARD & ACHILLE LIOT, Surgeon Dentists of the Faculty of Paris and New Orleans, have the honor to inform their clients, that after the 1st of June, they have united their offices at 41 Royal street, between Bienville and Customhouse (residence of Dr. Liot.)
The engagements they are under towards various institutions, and the Convent of this city, to which they are attached, will compel them to absent themselves many days in the course of the month. They have, therefore, deemed it convenient to form a Copartnership, as well on their own account as on account of their numerous Clients, in order that of the two men who may be absent, there will always be one present, ready to attend to persons who may honor them with their confidence. The superiority of their work, and the care and attention bestowed by them, induce them to hope for a continuance of the patronage of the public. 19

The visitors may rest assured that the most strict order will be required, and a sufficient police will be in attendance to enforce it. The Ball will commence at 8 o'clock A. M. to 6 o'clock P. M. 26—1y
MRS. CHILDS, encouraged by her success as an Instructress, offers her services as a teacher of English. She addresses herself particularly to the ancients of Germany and to foreigners who are not acquainted with a language now absolutely indispensable to success in business as in society. The literary circle of society and all persons who prefer the art of teaching lately to the talent of Mrs Childs, and to her extraordinary success, and rather in the Public Schools or in private institutions, are respectfully requested to call. Certificates can be furnished.
Mrs. CHILDS will give lessons either at her own residence or at that of her pupils.
Apply at No. 105 Royal street, between Conti and Bienville streets.
