AGENCY FOR THE AMERICAN SOLID-HEADED PINS

THE subscribers are prepared to receive orders for these pins are far superior to ordinary imported pins—the points are fine as the points of needles, and the head being solid—that is, of one piece with the shank—can never slip or come off, the wire of which they are made is also very stiff and elastic. They received the highest premium at the last Mechanics Institute of the city of New York, in October 1842. Dealers can be supplied with the above pins at the manufacturers prices.
