RAILROADS.

1849 Great Northern Route 1849
BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST VIA THE MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD!

WILL commence operation on the opening of navigation, by which passengers will be taken between

Chicago and Buffalo, in from 30 to 40 hours, and to New York in from 35 to 70 hours, shortening the time between Chicago and Buffalo in less than one third that of any other route.

A steamboat will leave Milwaukie every morning and Chicago every morning and evening for New Buffalo, (the western terminus of the Rail Road,) which with the Cars to Detroit and Steamboats to Buffalo, will form from Chicago to Buffalo, connecting directly with the Cars from Buffalo to Albany, and Steamboats to New York or Canal to Boston.

Two Daily Lines

Going West, a steamboat will leave Buffalo

EVERY MORNING AND EVENING, running from the Cars of the Albany and Buffalo Rail Road for Detroit, thence by Rail Road to New Buffalo, and by Steamboat from the morning train at New Buffalo to Milwaukie and other ports, and from both trains to Chicago, connecting with the line of large Packets on the Illinois and Michigan Canal to Lasalle, thence by the Express Line of

FIRST CLASS RIVER STEAMBOATS

to St. Louis, and by the Lower River Steamers to towns on the Mississippi and New Orleans.

This Rail Road, with the Steamers in its connection from Chicago to Buffalo, is the shortest, safest, speed, general equipment and accommodation, forms in every respect a and altogether the cheapest from the Mississippi Valley and the towns on Lake Michigan to the east.

SUPERIOR FIRST CLASS ROUTE,

The following Steamboats will run in connection with the Michigan Central Rail Road:

Detroit, Buffalo and Saut Ste. Marie.

the Pacific and Atlantic Wash running to Milwaukie via Little Fort, Southport and Racine.

Between Detroit and Buffalo, DAILY, leaving both places in the morning—through without landing—Steamers

May Flower and Atlantic.

Between Detroit and Buffalo and Cleveland, DAILY, leaving both places in the evening—Steamers Hendrick Hudson, Baltic, Empire, Oregon and Niagara.

The Lake Steamers of the above line, for strength, speed, finish, and magnificent furniture, are believed to cel any lake number of steamers that have ever been run in connection on fresh water, offering at reasonable rates accommodations not any where surpassed. Among them are many entirely new, and of the most expensive character.

Every effort will be made to render most desirable the superior accommodations of this route.

Fare, through 50 cents, Children and slaves, 25 Cents.

AUCTION SALES.

TWO DAY.
Wheat, Wheat, Wheat.
BY SYMON HYDE & CO.
SATURDAY, Sept. 15, at 10 o'clock, will be sold any consignment of Wheat, who for some time past, has been associated with his father, in the business in Management.

The present organization and discipline, the result of much careful watching, will be maintained in body of Instructors, who have now been connected with it for several years, and are thoroughly conversant with its workings.

The peculiar advantages enjoyed by this School, from its location in a region singularly favorable to which it can be reached about hourly throughout the year, and receive intelligence from without by steamboat, railroads and magnetic telegraph, in its vicinity to places of worship, under the charge of the Academy, of procuring the occasional aid of accomplished masters for such of pupils as are desirous of pursuing branches of science, or attaining the higher accomplishments not embraced in the course of study, would seem to recommend it to the favor of parents and other guardians of youth, disposed to look abroad for their education, and to secure for it the confidence and patronage it has hitherto amply received.

Persons desirous of further information, will receive it promptly by addressing
