

IBM Intranet FastStart Bundle

Simplify employee web experiences by delivering engaging, social-business solutions that enable effective collaboration – in less than three weeks.

To improve talent and optimise your workforce, you need to support your organisation's most vital asset: its people. You can do this by empowering employees with the right tools, giving them the power to resolve problems quickly and engaging them through a compelling web experience.

The IBM® Intranet FastStart Bundle is a simple, cost-effective way to create a powerful intranet site in around three weeks.

IBM Intranet lets you create and customise a content-rich site that supports collaboration tools, RSS feeds and role-based access – with no development required.

What does the IBM Intranet FastStart Bundle include?

- IBM reusable best practice intranet template software
- Three-week consulting and implementation service delivered by our Premium Business Partners.

Put information at your employees' fingertips

- Update employees on compliance and regulatory issues
- Consolidate and control the look and feel of information for employees, business partners and customers
- Control access to information – inside and outside your organisation
- Publish web content without help from the IT department
- Reduce support team costs by giving staff direct access to the resources they need.

Why choose a FastStart Bundle?

With fast implementation at a low cost, there's never been a better time to create a content-rich intranet site.

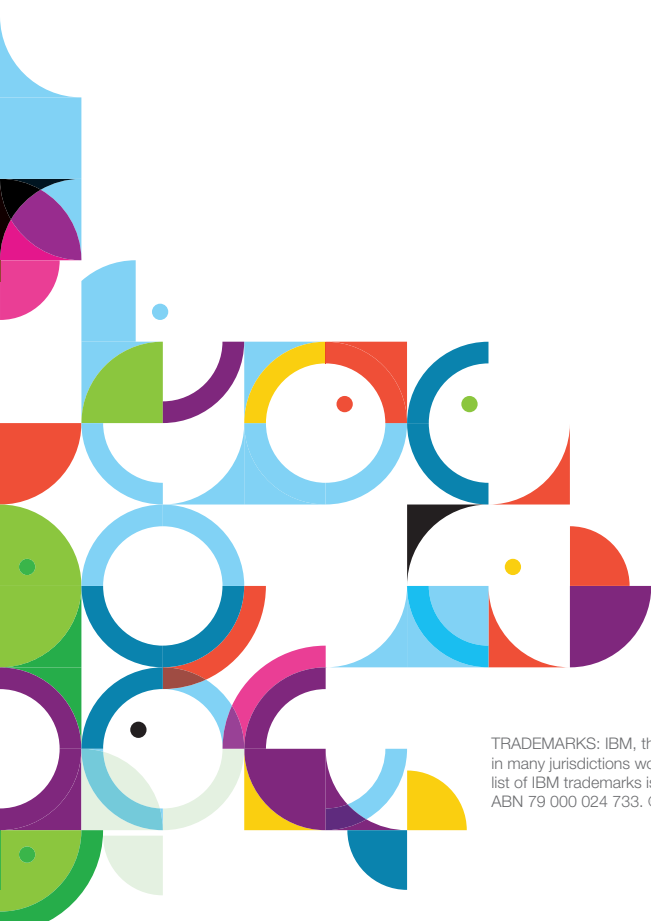

The IBM Intranet FastStart Bundle:

- Gives you a faster return on investment thanks to our best practice templates and proven implementation process
- Makes it easy to understand all the costs involved
- Gives you the benefits of an enterprise-class web portal solution at an affordable price
- Reduces the risks associated with implementing new software, because you receive high-quality technical support from one of our Premier Business Partners.
