Education Plans

Education Plans from IBM InfoSphere are our most comprehensive and inclusive approach to transferring knowledge from our experts to yours. Our experienced team partners with our Customers to scope, discover and create not only the right blend of learning, but to deliver each portion “Just in Time” for the most successful product implementation and knowledge transfer available.

Education Plans save companies time and expense. By creating a plan for education, based upon our Iterations Methodology, InfoSphere Learning Service experts can deliver a customized schedule for all aspects of learning, including Classroom delivery, Extended Learning and FlexLearning.

Each Education Plan is unique and can be as simple as a few standard courses delivered in the United States in a short period of time, or as complex as an Enterprise wide, multi-national, multi-year plan. Practical training and implementation experience lets us design an effective Education Plan blending the right mix of all of the different types of learning.

Your InfoSphere Learning Services Team, in unison with your representatives, will work together throughout the development, and execution of your Education Plan. Best of all, our expert team will re-evaluate and modify your plan as your needs and business may change! The collaboration, development, and continued re-evaluation of your Education Plan is a service offered to our Customers FREE of charge.

The Experts of InfoSphere Learning Services are not only dedicated to the successful use of our products, but to making the implementation of our products as easy as possible for the users. We believe in our experienced methodologies to enable our customers to accomplish this implementation.

Steps to Create Education Plans

InfoSphere Learning Services experts have years of experience in creating Education Plans for hundreds of customers. Using a proven methodology of scoping and planning, our approach can be summarized in the following steps:

1. Identify technical project goals
2. Identify project timelines
3. Identify roles and responsibility of project team
4. Map team members to appropriate offerings
5. Map offerings to appropriate schedule

Your resulting Education Plan is a roadmap for training. The Education Plan will assist you in creating your schedule and budget to enable you to meet both your implementation and business goals.
