Australian Team Executive

The Team Executive oversees the preparation and management of the 2012 Australian Paralympic Team on behalf of the Board of the APC. During the Games, the Team Executive meets regularly to review all aspects of the Team's management and to advise and support the Chef de Mission.

Jason Hellwig
Chief de Mission

Jason Hellwig is the Chief Executive of the Australian Paralympic Committee. He was the Operations Director of the Australian Team at the 2008 and 2004 Paralympic Games, and was the Athletics Team Manager in Sydney 2000. Prior to this, Jason was the General Manager of Athletics Australia.

Michael Hartung
Deputy Chef de Mission
(Sport)

Michael Hartung is the General Manager of the Australian Paralympic Committee's Sport division. He was Chef de Mission of the Australian Paralympic Team at the Vancouver 2010 Winter Paralympic Games and was the Sport and Administration Manager for the 2008 Australian Paralympic Team. Michael joined the APC in 2005.

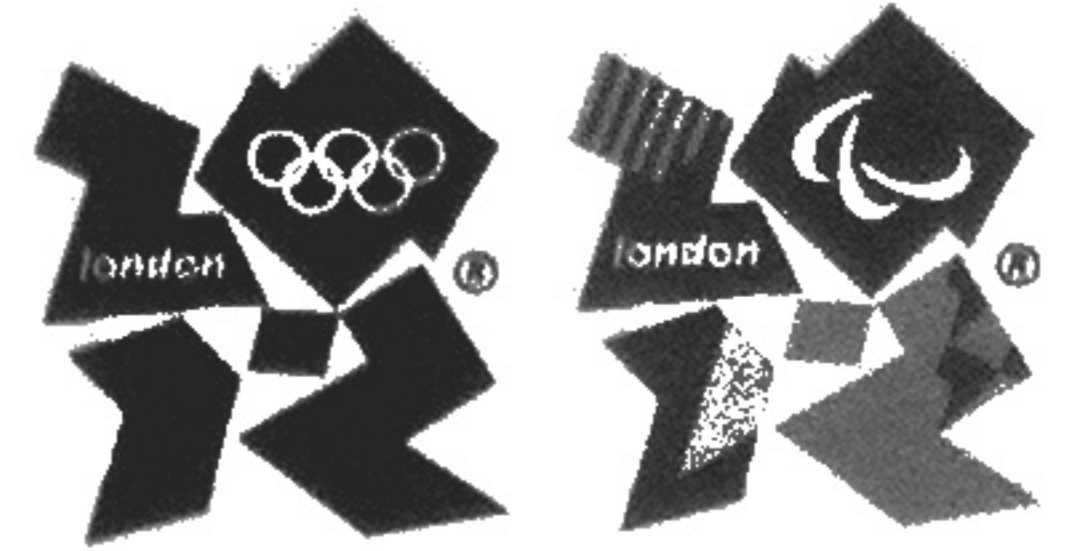

Kate McLoughlin
(Operations)

Kate McLoughlin is the Senior Manager, Sport Operations at the Australian Paralympic Committee. She was the Villages Manager for the 2009 Australian Youth Olympic Festival with the Australian Olympic Committee. Prior to this, Kate was a Sport Consultant at the NSW Institute of Sport.

Deloitte.

is anything to stop blade change? Equipment rules say you cannot change mid competition. It requires lots of extra work to change blades. Unless South African provide evidence, no further investigation official professional services provider to the Olympic and Paralympic Games

Craig said Oscar complaints came from SA NPC Head. It was a formal letter to IPC & investigated immediately.

South Africans formally complained about different sized running blades

IPC said they would investigate. They asked athletes and the athletes looked at them in shock as head to do

Pitrious has not heard anything back since the initial complaints by them.

Seb says Oscar said things in the heat of moment and organizing committee should not be involved

In judo, they in USA judo has similar prize money levels as similar according to him.

(Contrast to Zorn who said they do not train together)

Judo guy also talked about great publicity & live streaming. Did not talk about USA coverage, only international.

Miles thinks keeping Olympics & Paralympics together and helps even the playing field level
