Office of Levee Steam Cotton Press Co'y, New-Orleans, 27th Feb. 1832.

In addition to the Cotton-Presses and stores already advertised as being completed, the wharf of the Company in front of the Press is now sufficiently advanced, for Steamboats, Flatboats and Vessels to lay alongside. No wharfage, will be charged in those Vessels or Boats landing produce to be stored at the Press, and no drayage will be charged on produce received or shipped in front of the Press.

Flatboats and Keelboats loaded with cotton or tobacco will be permitted to lay alongside the Levee, with in the encasement which forms a commodious harbor, and sufficient time will be allowed them to discharge without charge of wharfage.

Planters of cotton and tobacco will find it greatly to their interest to send their produce direct to the Press, as (independant of the saving in drayage) their produce being placed in store immediately it is taken from the boat, will not be liable to damage from bad weather or land transportation, and the stores being extensive and commodious both round a spacious yard, it can be compiled and sold with greater satisfaction and facility than in smaller establishments. Insurance can also be effected lower than hitherto charged, from the greater security in the manner of building and situation of the stores of the Press.

Every facility will be afforded by the Company's agent, Mr. Mee, who resides on the premises, the charges for storage, compressing &c. will be moderate and the establishment generally will be conducted on the most accommodating and liberal principles.

By order of the Direction.

WM. HUDSON, Secretary.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—The undersigned informs the public that he still attends to the cure of affections of the eye. Such as may require his services may employ him with confidence. He lives in the same street as formerly. He restores to assert that those who may employ him will be as satisfied as those whom he has cooked and cured.

J. RAPALLO.

New-Orleans, January 9th 1832.—I certify that Mr John Rapallo cured the eyes of one of my negroes, aged 28 years, whose eyes were dangerously afflicted by the result of smallpox. WM. M'DONOUGH.

Miss Louise Ardouin declares that from her childhood, her eyes were so weak that she was unable to read or write distinctly; and that since she has been attended to by Mr. Rapallo, she has entirely recovered her eyesight. She further certifies that her servant, who, from the effects of the last eclipse was almost blind, was cured in four days.

dec 13 LOUISE ARDOUIN.

ORDINARY.—GUILLAUME, respectfully announces to those, who visit his establishment in Orleans street, that, from this date, he is exclusively devoted to the business of said establishment, and that he superintends in person the dressing of meals, so as to satisfy as heretofore, those who honour him with their patronage. He also makes known to
