Deliberations of the Commissioners of the General Sinking Fund.

SITTING OF THE 16th JUNE, 1836.

Resolved, That the ordinance of the City Council of New Orleans, according twenty years credit on 3-5th of the proceeds of the sales of lots, in front of the city, be published in two newspapers of this city in French and English, and that the Mayor, as President of the Commissioners of the General Sinking Fund, give notice at the same time, that those persons who do not come forward and settle according to the conditions named in said ordinance, previous to the first day of July, shall be considered as having renounced the privilege therein granted them, and will be required to pay their obligations at maturity in cash.

Sitting of April 2, 1836.

Resolved, That purchasers and owners of the lots situate between Canal and Esplanade streets, and which have been sold since the 23d January, 1834, by order of the District Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Louisiana, shall have the privilege of withdrawing the notes by them subscribed for the payment of said lots, and to substitute in their place, bonds or obligations in favor of the commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the city of N. Orleans, created by an act of the legislature, approved 8th March, 1836; said bonds or obligations to be payable in twenty years after the several instalments of each of said notes, bearing an interest at the rate of six and a half per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and secured by a special mortgage on said lots and on the improvements now existing, or which may hereafter exist thereon.

Be it further resolved, That all those who may wish to avail themselves of the privilege of substituting their bonds or obligations as above mentioned shall notify the mayor thereof, in writing, and said privilege shall be granted to them until the 1st of July, 1836, and they shall expressly renounce all right of postponing or delaying the payment of any of the said bonds or obligations on the ground of a defect in the title, unless there should be an eviction of the property by them purchased, pronounced by a judgment rendered in last resort by a competent tribunal.

Be it further resolved, That all those who are proprietors of vacant lots, and who shall wish to comply with the provisions above mentioned, shall, before furnishing their bonds or obligations, give to the mayor a sufficient security that buildings shall be created on said lots within one year from the date of said bonds.

Be it further resolved, That it shall be the duty of the several proprietors who shall have complied with the preceding provisions, to have the buildings on their said lots insured, and to transfer and deliver to the commissioners of the Sinking Fund, their policy of insurance.

Be it further resolved, That the first and second instalments of the said property shall be paid to the commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and the remaining three-fifths shall be allowed to remain on said property at an interest at the rate of six and a half per cent. per annum, payable in advance, half yearly, for the term of seven years, at the option of the owner or owners of said property.

LIGHT HOUSE HOTEL.

THE undersigned having relinquished the Washington Hotel, has opened the house known as Elkins hotel, situated on Lake Ponchartrain, at the mouth of bayou St John, in a style adapted to the wants of a generous public, whose liberality heretofore extended to him, he gratefully acknowledges.

The position of this establishment commands an extensive view of the lake and surrounding country; elevated, and from its architectural design, the LIGHT HOUSE HOTEL offers strong inducements for patronage, to the valetudinarian in pursuit of vigorous health or to persons disposed to retire from the bustle of a city and burning heat of a summer's sun. With strict regard towards promoting the comfort and gratification of his patrons and friends, the proprietor has fitted up his house, and pledges every exertion to them.

For the convenience of visitors, he has established an Omnibus, to run at stated hours during the day, between the city and the Hotel, calling for passengers at the Arcade, Bishop's Hotel, Merchants Exchange and Hewlett's Exchange.

Leaves the city at 7 o'clock A M, and at 2 P M.

Returns from Lake at 10 o'clock A M, and at 6½ P M

Fare each way, 50 cts. Ferry free.

Particular attention paid to private parties. A first rate cook is engaged for the season, which enables the subscriber to place upon his table served up in the best and most approved manner of the culinary art, flesh, fish, fowls, crabs and every variety the market affords. The bar will be kept constantly supplied with choice liquors, wines, cordials, &c, selected with the greatest care. Ice creams furnished every evening. The bath house is in readiness to receive company. The frequent and healthful practice of bathing in this climate, is too well understood to call public attention to the subject. This, with many other attractions, the Light House Hotel can produce, encourages the proprietor in the belief that he will be supported in his undertaking.
