

THE NEW-ORLEANS DAILY DEC.
Official Journal of the State...
Published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays...
Subscription price per annum, in advance, $1.50...
Single copies, 10 cents...
Advertisements, per line, 5 cents...
For further particulars, apply to the Publisher, J. S. GIBSON...

FOR COVENANT.
JAMES P. LEVY, Secy. DRY.
JOHN MOORE, Secy. DRY.

THE NEW-ORLEANS DAILY DEC.
Official Journal of the State...
Published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays...
Subscription price per annum, in advance, $1.50...
Single copies, 10 cents...
Advertisements, per line, 5 cents...
For further particulars, apply to the Publisher, J. S. GIBSON...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

THE ARRIVAL OF THE CHIPPERS TO THE PRESIDENT.
We take from the Republic, the following interesting account of an interview between President Grant and the Chippewas...
On Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock, the delegation of Chippewas, from Minnesota Territory, accompanied by the Hon. John Johnson, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, proceeded to the President's residence...
The Indians having been conducted to an upper chamber, the President of the United States shortly afterwards appeared...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...
The President made inquiries as to their country and condition...
The Chippewas were accompanied by their interpreter, Mr. Johnson, and several other men...

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CANDIDATES.
PUBLIC NOTICES.
SUNDRIES.