NOTICE. The undersigned having come to the city of New Orleans, for the purpose of buying Cotton, &c., is now ready to ship cotton to any part of the country by some one of the following lines of steamers, viz: the Natchez and Red River Packets, the Natchez and Vicksburg Packets, and the Mississippi and Ohio Packets. He takes this method of informing all country merchants and planters of the facts, in order that from this day forward they may direct their cotton to be shipped to this city, instead of to Mobile, as heretofore. He will be at the office of Messrs. Bayne & Co., Levee, corner of Common street, on the first floor, for the present.
