

COLLEGE OF NEW ORLEANS.—The institution, situated on Bienville street, near Bayou La Latta, was visited by the Bee's special reporter, Mr. J. H. Moore, who was accompanied by the president, Mr. J. H. Moore, and the faculty. The college was founded in 1864, and now occupies permanent and successful quarters in a building which was erected in 1884. The college is a co-educational institution, and has a faculty of thirty-two teachers. The president, Mr. J. H. Moore, is a native of New Orleans, and has been in the college since its founding. The college is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities, and is a member of the Association of Christian Colleges in the South. The college is a member of the Association of Southern Colleges and Universities, and is a member of the Association of Christian Colleges in the South. The college is a member of the Association of Southern Colleges and Universities, and is a member of the Association of Christian Colleges in the South.

By Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Private letters received by the Bee from the city of New Orleans, La., and from other points in the South, have been received. The letters from New Orleans, La., are all of a nature to indicate that the city is recovering from the effects of the recent fire, and that business is beginning to pick up. The letters from other points in the South, are all of a nature to indicate that the war is having a beneficial effect on the economy of the South, and that the people are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

AN ANSWER TO BREWSTER.

Dear Sir:—I have been a constant reader and admirer of your magazine for many years, and I have been very much interested in the article which you published in your issue of January 15, 1915, on the subject of the "New Orleans Cotton Market." The article was very well written, and it was very interesting to read. I have read it several times, and I have been very much interested in the facts which you set forth. I am glad to hear that the cotton market is beginning to pick up, and that the price of cotton is beginning to rise. I am also glad to hear that the cotton crop in the South is beginning to be planted, and that the farmers are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

TOMBOLA OF $64,000.

MADE BY DRAW OF $400 PRIZES.
The drawing of the Tombola of $64,000, which was made by the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, was held on Monday, February 8, 1915, at the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, in New Orleans, La. The drawing was held in the presence of a large number of officials, and it was very interesting to watch. The prizes were all of a nature to indicate that the drawing was a success, and that the Louisiana State Lottery Commission is doing well.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE OPERA HOUSE.
The Theatre Opera House, in New Orleans, La., is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

By Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Private letters received by the Bee from the city of New Orleans, La., and from other points in the South, have been received. The letters from New Orleans, La., are all of a nature to indicate that the city is recovering from the effects of the recent fire, and that business is beginning to pick up. The letters from other points in the South, are all of a nature to indicate that the war is having a beneficial effect on the economy of the South, and that the people are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

AN ANSWER TO BREWSTER.

Dear Sir:—I have been a constant reader and admirer of your magazine for many years, and I have been very much interested in the article which you published in your issue of January 15, 1915, on the subject of the "New Orleans Cotton Market." The article was very well written, and it was very interesting to read. I have read it several times, and I have been very much interested in the facts which you set forth. I am glad to hear that the cotton market is beginning to pick up, and that the price of cotton is beginning to rise. I am also glad to hear that the cotton crop in the South is beginning to be planted, and that the farmers are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

TOMBOLA OF $64,000.

MADE BY DRAW OF $400 PRIZES.
The drawing of the Tombola of $64,000, which was made by the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, was held on Monday, February 8, 1915, at the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, in New Orleans, La. The drawing was held in the presence of a large number of officials, and it was very interesting to watch. The prizes were all of a nature to indicate that the drawing was a success, and that the Louisiana State Lottery Commission is doing well.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE OPERA HOUSE.
The Theatre Opera House, in New Orleans, La., is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

By Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Private letters received by the Bee from the city of New Orleans, La., and from other points in the South, have been received. The letters from New Orleans, La., are all of a nature to indicate that the city is recovering from the effects of the recent fire, and that business is beginning to pick up. The letters from other points in the South, are all of a nature to indicate that the war is having a beneficial effect on the economy of the South, and that the people are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

AN ANSWER TO BREWSTER.

Dear Sir:—I have been a constant reader and admirer of your magazine for many years, and I have been very much interested in the article which you published in your issue of January 15, 1915, on the subject of the "New Orleans Cotton Market." The article was very well written, and it was very interesting to read. I have read it several times, and I have been very much interested in the facts which you set forth. I am glad to hear that the cotton market is beginning to pick up, and that the price of cotton is beginning to rise. I am also glad to hear that the cotton crop in the South is beginning to be planted, and that the farmers are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

TOMBOLA OF $64,000.

MADE BY DRAW OF $400 PRIZES.
The drawing of the Tombola of $64,000, which was made by the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, was held on Monday, February 8, 1915, at the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, in New Orleans, La. The drawing was held in the presence of a large number of officials, and it was very interesting to watch. The prizes were all of a nature to indicate that the drawing was a success, and that the Louisiana State Lottery Commission is doing well.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE OPERA HOUSE.
The Theatre Opera House, in New Orleans, La., is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

By Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Private letters received by the Bee from the city of New Orleans, La., and from other points in the South, have been received. The letters from New Orleans, La., are all of a nature to indicate that the city is recovering from the effects of the recent fire, and that business is beginning to pick up. The letters from other points in the South, are all of a nature to indicate that the war is having a beneficial effect on the economy of the South, and that the people are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

AN ANSWER TO BREWSTER.

Dear Sir:—I have been a constant reader and admirer of your magazine for many years, and I have been very much interested in the article which you published in your issue of January 15, 1915, on the subject of the "New Orleans Cotton Market." The article was very well written, and it was very interesting to read. I have read it several times, and I have been very much interested in the facts which you set forth. I am glad to hear that the cotton market is beginning to pick up, and that the price of cotton is beginning to rise. I am also glad to hear that the cotton crop in the South is beginning to be planted, and that the farmers are beginning to feel more confident about the future.

THE DAILY BEE.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The Bee has received several letters from its readers, and it is glad to hear that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well. The letters are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well, and that the readers are all of a nature to indicate that they are all of a nature to indicate that the paper is doing well.

TOMBOLA OF $64,000.

MADE BY DRAW OF $400 PRIZES.
The drawing of the Tombola of $64,000, which was made by the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, was held on Monday, February 8, 1915, at the Louisiana State Lottery Commission, in New Orleans, La. The drawing was held in the presence of a large number of officials, and it was very interesting to watch. The prizes were all of a nature to indicate that the drawing was a success, and that the Louisiana State Lottery Commission is doing well.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE OPERA HOUSE.
The Theatre Opera House, in New Orleans, La., is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch. The theatre is a very popular theatre, and it is very interesting to watch.