FRESH GARDEN SEEDS
NOW LANDING, AND FOR SALE AT
WM. SMITH'S
Garden Seed Store, No. 83 Custom-House street.

The subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he is now landing from the packet ship Natchez, a renewed supply of fresh received direct from the growers and warranted equal as to freshness and quality, with any imported into New Orleans, either from the Northern or Western states.
SPRING GARDEN SEEDS,

Country merchants and dealers will find it more to their advantage to obtain their supplies for retailing from the establishment than from other in the city, as from the subscriber's long residence and practical knowledge of the Seed business, he is better prepared to fill an extensive order (whether wholesale or retail,) for any of the standard kinds of KITCHEN GARDEN SEEDS, than any similar establishment south of the Atlantic cities, not even excepting any of the Shaker's societies. Dealers can always, during the Fall and Spring seasons, on a short notice, obtain an almost unlimited supply of Garden Seeds either by the single dozen papers, or gross, neatly and uniformly put up with printed labels in French & English.

The subscriber begs to return his warmest acknowledgements for the public patronage with which he has been favored since his first establishment in 1822, and hopes by personal application, to merit a continuance thereof, in his new store, No. 83, Custom house street, where he will be permanently located WM. SMITH.

GIGS, COACHES, &c.—The subscriber is receiving per ships Sarah Ralston, Florida, and Saratoga two coaches; and 6 gigs from the manufactories of John Clark & sons, and G. & A. K. Oakes, Newark, N. J. BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL, for young ladies, conducted by Madame Granet, in Mr. Landreaux's new house, Royal street, corner of St. Philip street. Terms—Boarders, for ten months, $300, day boarders, do. $200, day scholars, do. $100, washing, do. (optional) $20, harp, per quarter, $30, piano, do. $21, singing, do. $21, dancing, do. $21. The course of studies comprises a simultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and literature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and fancy works. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each pupil is to bring 2 pair of sheets, 1 woollen blanket, 1 white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Madame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter into further particulars. a 18

PUBLIC SALE,

By the undersigned judge of the parish of St. Martin.

THE public is informed, that on Wednesday, 26th of June next, and the days following, will be sold to the highest and last bidder, all the property belonging to the community which existed between the late Mr. Claire Benoit de St. Claire, and Charlotte Decliouet, his wife, which consist of

A FINE SUGAR PLANTATION,

with a water mill; it contains twenty-seven arpents of land in front, on the right bank of the bayou Teche, and thirty-nine arpents front on the opposite side of the said bayou, by forty arpents in depth on each side, together with a portion of woodland belonging to the said plantations. This plantation is situated about six miles below St. Martinsville, and one undivided half of which belongs to Mr. Joseph Dubuclet, he has consented that it shall be sold. Also,

Eighty good slaves, of both sexes, the greater number creoles, among whom are some workmen,

Twenty pair of working oxen,
Horned cattle,
Gentle horses, American and creole,
Mules, sheep, hogs,
Gig, horse and ox carts,
Agricultural instruments,
Household furniture,
Clock and watches,
Silver plate, kitchen furniture,
Table and bed linen.

And several other articles of which the detail would be too long.

There will be also sold the crop now in the ground on the plantation on which Mr. Benoist died.

Conditions of the sale.—The plantation jointly owned with Mr. Dubuclet to be paid for at four equal payments, of 1, 2 3 and 4 years, and all the other property in two equal payments of 1 and 2 years, dating from the first of the present month of May; the purchasers furnishing their notes, with good and sufficient joint security, to the satisfaction of the testamentary executors of the late Mr. Benoit; the said notes to be payable at a domicile which will be made known on the day of sale, and bearing an interest of ten per cent per annum from their maturity until final payment, without the purchasers availing themselves of this clause on interest to delay the payment, which will be rigorously exacted at the time fixed, notwithstanding the said clause, of which the heirs of the late Mr. Benoit, and those of his wife may alone profit and grant a longer time to the purchasers if they think proper: and moreover, every thing capable of being mortgaged, to remain mortgaged by privilege until real and effectual payment of principal and interest.

The sale will take place on the plantation where Mr. Benoit resided, situate at Fausse Pointe, on the right bank of the bayou Teche.

St. Martinville, May 27, 1833.
