NEW-ORLEANS PRICE CURRENT AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

VOL. [illegible] NEW-ORLEANS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1839. NO. [illegible]

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY
OF KENTUCKY.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JOHN SERGEANT
OF PENNSYLVANIA.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 28, 1839.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DISTRESS AND THE BANKING DERANGEMENT?

The Globe, the Post, and the Examiner, are the three leading organs of the Administration party in the United States. Each of these papers has, at different times, undertaken to answer the question, who is responsible for the present distress and the banking derangement? The Globe has done it in a labored article, the Post in a labored article, and the Examiner in a labored article. Each of these articles has been republished in the Administration papers throughout the country, and each has been received with the most unbounded confidence by the party