A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grand ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which cause many to feel a strong dislike to, and sometimes even to shun society to avoid feasts and sneers of their acquaintances; the remainder of their lives are consequently spent in retirement. In short, not even the loss of property fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom as does the loss of his hair. To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA is put to the public as a sure and the first application that a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces whiskers; prevents the hair from coming gray, makes it curl beautifully, and frees it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first respectability in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm, are shown by the proprietors.

For Sale by the following agents:

ROBERT WALTON, Co-late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen.

The undersigned hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also certain restorative.

WM. THATCHER, senior,
Methodist Minister in St. George's Church, No. 56 North Fifth st.
John P. Inglis, 231 Arch street.
John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race st.
John S. Carey, 101 Spruce st.
Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 2d st.
John Gard, Jr. 123 Arch st.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly rank as virtuous in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

From the Mayor.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, } City of Philadelphia. }

I, ROBERT WHARTON, mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. P. Inglis, John S. Carey, & Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the mayor to be affixed, [L. S.] this tenth day of December, 1836.

ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

CAUTION.—Observe, that each bottle of the genuine color has a diagram engraved wrappers, on which are the words "Balm of Columbia," the agent's name, and that of the proprietor.
