

THE DAILY BEE
TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 27, 1855.

THE BEE.
Published every morning, except on Sundays and public holidays, at the office of the publishers, G. F. Weisse & Co., No. 83 Chartres street, New Orleans, Louisiana.
Subscription price, $5 per annum in advance, or $10 per annum in arrears. Single copies, 10 cents.

THE PURCHASE OF CUBA.

THE PURCHASE OF CUBA.
The purchase of Cuba has been the subject of much discussion in the United States. It is a subject of great importance, and one which has attracted the attention of the whole world. The question is, whether the United States should purchase Cuba, and if so, under what conditions. The arguments in favor of the purchase are many and strong. It is a fertile and rich island, and its acquisition would greatly increase the power and resources of the United States. It would also give us a commanding position in the West Indies, and would be a great step towards the realization of our manifest destiny. On the other hand, there are those who are opposed to the purchase. They argue that it would be a violation of our principles, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden. They also fear that it would lead to a war with Spain, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden. The question is a difficult one, and one which has attracted the attention of the whole world. It is a subject of great importance, and one which has attracted the attention of the whole world. The arguments in favor of the purchase are many and strong. It is a fertile and rich island, and its acquisition would greatly increase the power and resources of the United States. It would also give us a commanding position in the West Indies, and would be a great step towards the realization of our manifest destiny. On the other hand, there are those who are opposed to the purchase. They argue that it would be a violation of our principles, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden. They also fear that it would lead to a war with Spain, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden.

By Telegraph.

By Telegraph.
The following telegrams have been received from various parts of the world. They contain news of great interest and importance. They include reports of the progress of the war in Mexico, the state of affairs in Europe, and the movements of the various fleets. They also contain reports of the death of several prominent persons, and of the discovery of several new islands. The telegrams are as follows: [Detailed telegrams follow, including reports from Mexico, Europe, and other parts of the world.]

RETURN OF GEORGE PARK.

RETURN OF GEORGE PARK.
George Park, the American consul at Havana, has returned to New Orleans after a long and arduous journey. He has been absent for several months, during which time he has been engaged in the negotiation of the purchase of Cuba. He has returned with a large amount of information, and is expected to give a full account of his mission to the government. His return is a great relief to his family, and is also a source of great interest to the public. It is expected that he will be able to give us a full and complete account of the progress of the negotiations, and of the state of affairs in Cuba.

THE SOUND BYTES QUESTION.

THE SOUND BYTES QUESTION.
The question of the sound bytes has been the subject of much discussion in the United States. It is a subject of great importance, and one which has attracted the attention of the whole world. The question is, whether the United States should purchase Cuba, and if so, under what conditions. The arguments in favor of the purchase are many and strong. It is a fertile and rich island, and its acquisition would greatly increase the power and resources of the United States. It would also give us a commanding position in the West Indies, and would be a great step towards the realization of our manifest destiny. On the other hand, there are those who are opposed to the purchase. They argue that it would be a violation of our principles, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden. They also fear that it would lead to a war with Spain, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden.

THE SOUND BYTES QUESTION.

THE SOUND BYTES QUESTION.
The question of the sound bytes has been the subject of much discussion in the United States. It is a subject of great importance, and one which has attracted the attention of the whole world. The question is, whether the United States should purchase Cuba, and if so, under what conditions. The arguments in favor of the purchase are many and strong. It is a fertile and rich island, and its acquisition would greatly increase the power and resources of the United States. It would also give us a commanding position in the West Indies, and would be a great step towards the realization of our manifest destiny. On the other hand, there are those who are opposed to the purchase. They argue that it would be a violation of our principles, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden. They also fear that it would lead to a war with Spain, and that it would give us a large and expensive burden.

AMUSEMENTS.

AMUSEMENTS.
The following are the advertisements for the various amusements in New Orleans. They include advertisements for the opera, the theatre, and the various public houses. They also contain advertisements for the various public houses, and for the various public houses. The advertisements are as follows: [Detailed advertisements for amusements follow.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISCELLANEOUS.
The following are the advertisements for the various miscellaneous items in New Orleans. They include advertisements for the various public houses, and for the various public houses. The advertisements are as follows: [Detailed advertisements for miscellaneous items follow.]

BUSINESS CARDS.

BUSINESS CARDS.
The following are the advertisements for the various business cards in New Orleans. They include advertisements for the various public houses, and for the various public houses. The advertisements are as follows: [Detailed advertisements for business cards follow.]

INSURANCE.

INSURANCE.
The following are the advertisements for the various insurance companies in New Orleans. They include advertisements for the various public houses, and for the various public houses. The advertisements are as follows: [Detailed advertisements for insurance companies follow.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

MISCELLANEOUS.
The following are the advertisements for the various miscellaneous items in New Orleans. They include advertisements for the various public houses, and for the various public houses. The advertisements are as follows: [Detailed advertisements for miscellaneous items follow.]