

Slavery and the South.

We have under our hand, an old number of "The Weekly Bee," "The Bee" of the 10th of June, 1862. It is a very interesting and important number, and one which will be read with interest and pleasure by all who are interested in the subject of Slavery and the South. It contains a full and complete account of the proceedings of the Convention of the Southern States, held at Montgomery, Alabama, on the 22nd of May, 1862. The Convention was called for the purpose of discussing the question of secession, and of forming a new government for the Southern States. The Convention was held in a large hall, and was attended by a large number of delegates from the Southern States. The Convention was held for several days, and was a very important event in the history of the South.
