By William Weller, at 12 o'clock, at the Mercantile and Auctioneers' Exchange, 10 o'clock, at ground.

Mr. Rodriguez, a passenger by the steamship Columbia, will please accept our thanks for a copy of a late paper.

We have received a copy of the "Tidings Sentiment of the 10th instant, which contains nothing of interest.

STEAMERS.—The steamer Columbia will leave for New York and Havana on Sunday, 18th instant, at 8 o'clock, A. M.

Movements of SHIPS.—We find the following movement of steamers reported in the Northern papers. The steamer Melville was advertised to leave on the 6th instant; she had been detained to take up the United States mails, and she was to touch at Port Royal on the way. The steamer Trade Wind, Emano and Geo. Washington were up for the 10th, but she has evidently been detained, and may have left between the 6th and 10th.

The United States mail steamship Bio-Bio, Captain Drew, left her last evening for New York, via Havana, with a full freight, the United States mails, and the following passengers:

Mr. T. C. Davis, Mr. K. Kerby, Capt. John H. Morris, S. Price, W. C. Day, ladies, steward and a passenger, Capt. J. E. Orton, and 18 in the steerage.

Mr. W. C. Orton, lady and two daughters, Madeline Martin, two sons, and three grandsons, and his wife, Mrs. Roland, S. Price, brother and sister, Herman, Barbara, and two children, and Capt. J. E. Orton, E. F. Baker, Madeline Martin and two children.

VARIETIES THEATRE.—The sprightly comedy "Ladies' Battle" was again played at the Varieties last night, and met the same success which attended its first performance. We have already given a brief sketch of the character of this piece, which is well known to the audience of our French play houses as La Ballade des Damas. The production of this piece at the Varieties has proved quite a success, and we may look for its performance more than once before the close of the season.

To-night "Fair Heart News Won Fair Lady," "Sweethearts and Wives," and "A Kiss in the Dark" are on the programme.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Apt from the press, to-night, the Academy, the moon performance is peculiarly interesting to all the little folks, as it is for their benefit that it is being given up, and the performances of the little ones, Capt. Foote and Col. Shaw, are well calculated to attract admiring crowds.

NEWTON & MCGRATH.—This new firm, No. 19 Camp street, has succeeded that of Hinsdale & Shaw. Messrs. Newton & Murphy are thorough business men, and deserve the continuation of the patronage bestowed on the former house.

By reference to a letter in our columns, it will be seen that the old house of Pinckard & Co., corner Tchoupitoulas and Gravier streets, is now stored with meat, provisions, corn, flour, potations, tobacco, apples, and such goods, and that its former reputation for low prices is to be sustained.

D. E. MORRIS, auctioneer, sells this day, larger beer at 12 o'clock, at 59 Magazine street, and spruce lumber planks at 10 o'clock, M. See auction advertisements.

Attention is called to the movement of Capt. P. F. Smith's gunboat, which always goes to the river at 10 o'clock at the head of the Mississippi, the schooners Piasey Wilcox, Polar Star, and a lot of iron and boiler iron. Terms cash in Treasury notes.

R. T. Montgomery will sell this day as follows: At 12 o'clock, at 93 Camp street, lard butter, bacon, hams, whiskey, and other groceries at 10% less at Picayune Pier, Second District, oysters, apples, turnips, and cedar, at 11 o'clock, at old auction meet, 87 Camp street, fine furniture and other goods. See advertisement.
