Pensacola, August 18. ARMOUL OF THE FALMOUTH.
The U. S. Ship Palmouth, Captain Morgan, arrived at this Port on Wednesday last, after a passage of 7 days from Havana.

The Falmouth for the last 30 days, has been cruising on the north side of Cuba, between Havana and Matanzas. We are informed by an Officer on board, that no direct information had been received at Havana from the Spanish expedition that recently sailed for Mexico. There has been some sickness among the shipping at Havana. The City in other respects continues healthy. The Officers and crew of the Falmouth areall well.

The Grampus, Captain Latimer, is giving convey from Havana and Matan zas once wook. They have heard of no piracies.

We are induced to hope that the refre freard by Captain Voorhees at Frinidad, relative to the assassination of our Minister at Mexico is unfoundeda letter had been received at Havana by Mr. Granshe former American Consul from Mason, Secretary of Lega tion at Mexico-dated 30th June, at which time they were all well-Commodore Porter was staying at Mr. Poin sett's house.

Piriting We are indebted to our cor-respondent of the Gloucester Telegraph for a slip announcing the arrival at that place, from Surinam, of the Sarah Ann. The Dutch brig of war, Falcon, had brought into Surinam a hermaphrodite brig supposed to be a pirate, with a Suffolk; formerly of Salem, but sold about a year ago, in S. America. The captain of the hermaphrodite brig could give no account of the crew of the Suffolk, but it was reported that one of the ciew on examination stated that the whole of them had been murdered, and the negroes, 12 in number, who were on board of the Suffolk, made signs to denote that the throats of the crew bad of the mean and malignant; admiration is been cut.
