The Britanmata's News.
We copy from the Picayane, the latest telegraphic advices of the Britannie's news. It appears that cotton has received a little instead of recovering.

Our political accounts are to the effect that the Picemontese have had an engagement with the Austrana, in which the latter were routed. The Pope has entirely regained hip popularity with the people.

The new constitution of Fagges is to be democratic republican in its character. The Prince de Joinville had enterred Paris and expressed his willingness to be engaged in the defence of the existing Government.

Lamartine and Ledru Buitt have resigned. It was runnered that efforts were making to put down the former. [The process drift of this we do not perceive.] The coontry was considerably aguitated, but no popular pathreas had taken place.

Liserpool, June 10, 1848.—The cotton market is one-eighth petice lower. Middling Orleans is quoted at three pence and three-quarters, and large quantities are offering. Indian corn thirty-two to thirty-four shillings. Console 84:1-5 to 84:1-4.

Our own despatch, of precisely the same dates, saws: "Cotton has slightly receded in price. Mobile fair it quoted at four pence and three-eights, New Orleans five and five-eights. Stock on hand, five hundred thousand beles. Corn thirty-two to thirty-five shillings. Wheat seven shillings three pence to seven shillings six pence: white seven shillings six pence to eight shillings. The money maket is un-attend."

We have another despatch from New York, where the second the 9th out, make of two hundred terces of Ca-rolina rice were made at seventeen shiftings to seventeen and six pence. We learn further by our despatches that sales of five hundred bales of cotton were made in New York on Monday, the 95th, with no change in prices.
