THE DAILY HERALD

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 14, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT:

WINFIELD SCOTT,

OR VICE-PRESIDENT:

W. M. A. GRAHAM,

OR VICE-PRESIDENT:

Elected or chosen, may Vice-Presidents.

First District.—Gen. W. W. Lawrence, of New Haven; John C. Frémont, of Utica; W. H. Seward, of Albany; J. W.布斯, of Worcester; and J. C. Breckinridge, of Louisville.

Second District.—Christian Beaumont, of New York; (including Christiana, of Oneida; and Utica).

Third District.—D. F. Kendis, of Atlantic City; George F. Johnson, of Jersey City.

Fourth District.—Geo. W. Lawrence, of Livingston; John C. Frémont, of Utica; W. H. Seward, of Albany; J. C. Breckinridge, of Louisville; Alexander De Clouet of St. Martin; (including J. K. Rose, of Rensselaer); D. F. Kendis, of Hudson.

State.—Franklin J. Farley, of Oneida; D. F. Kendis, of Hudson.

THE WHIGS.—The Whig papers remarked that the Grand White League, or the League of the South, had half a mile between Carrollton, will take place at 11 o'clock.

The South Rangers and the South and Grapes, will meet in Carrollton at 11 o'clock.

Another meeting will be held at 11 o'clock, three o'clock, and six o'clock, on the 15th.

Arrangements have been made for the nomination of all who may desire to attend.

The spot selected for the occasion, is a cool

open space, where the spectators are guaranteed of marked ventilation, and the entertainment, both for mind and body, has been turned over to WHIGS, and the campaign is in full blast.

At Brown Loops.—The Brown Loops George is informed that THOMAS GREEN DAVIDSON, one of the Democratic Blowers, will return to write his name on the ticket.

He is a bold, strong, likeable fellow.

Davidson, however, has avowedly injured his own party since the opening of the canvass.

His unabashed effort is to dislodge

McDAVISON.

He is a militiaman around the neck of Democracy.

MARYLAND.—Some of the Locofoco papers have shown their game in Maryland, and the Whigs are not pleased.

The series of the "Daily Courier," "Daily Advertiser," and "Daily American," are now included, and no longer are the Whigs to be regarded as the real settlement, in principle and substance, of the Whig cause.

These facts are concerned, we'll make out and stand on their strict understandings, until time

comes to review or reverse such action;

wherever, wherever, or however made, to the majority of the Whig party, and in the treasury of the Union.

THE CONTRAST.

Now, I am dead for the Contraband, and

dead for the Comp-

raison, and now I am

dead for the Whig

party.

Speech of General

Patterson at Manchester

on the 1st of October, 1852.

The Northern mail came through yesterday, with the latest dates.

HOW DO THE BATTLES?

This is a question that daily put to us by those whom the part has taught to suppose him in our judgment. To one and all our answer is the same.

The combatants are divided by nearly all who first started and from the fight, and strengthened by hostile recruits from the South.

Every day infuses new life and energy in its movement.

It is a battle, and it is a battle.

Let its spirit know no relaxation,

and its efforts no pause and the end of the campaign, and it may then reprove on its victories

the world.

But we need not aid metaphor to express our regard for the progress and propects of the cause.

We are, however, to see the success of the Whig party.

It is a battle, and it is a battle.

It is a battle, and it is a battle.
