SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 29, 1845.

THE CONVENTION.

The Convention yesterday took up the paragraph of the report giving four senators to the parishes of St. Mary, St. Martin, St. Landry and Vermillion.

Mr. Cade moved to allot one senator to the parish of St. Mary.

Mr. Taylor moved to amend the motion so as to unite the parishes of St. Martin into one district, and assign two senators to it.

Mr. Splane contended that the parish of St. Mary, upon any basis which might be assumed, was entitled to a separate senator.

Mr. Dunn thought that we should, whenever it was practicable, so district the State as to remove the senator from the influences of local and sectional feelings, and thus add to his independence and render him sensible of his responsibility not to a particular parish, but to the people of the whole State. The districts should according to him, be composed of persons different from those who elected representatives. Hence he was in favor of uniting St. Mary and St. Martin's into one senatorial district.

Mr. Ratliff said it would be improper to give these parishes two senators, without doing great injustice to other parishes. While he acknowledged the claims of St. Martins and St. Marys, he would therefore oppose the motion, because, if carried out, it would produce an unwieldy senate.

Mr. Lewis controverted the objections of Mr. Ratliff, by stating that the delegation from St. Landry had no idea of suffering Calcasieu to be divorced from that parish, and that with the two parishes, they could justly claim two senators, without increasing the senate.

Mr. Voorhies advocated Mr. Taylor's motion. The parishes of St. Martin and St. Mary were united by nature, and his constituents were in favor of the measure. As to the number of senators, it had been clearly shown that it was entitled to two.

Mr. Splane was in favor of the division of the parishes. One was a sugar growing country; the other raised, principally cotton.

The motion to divide the two parishes was lost—yeas 25, nays 36.

Mr. Splane then moved to attach the parish of Vermillion to the district, but subsequently withdrew it.

The parishes of St. Mary and St. Martins were then constituted into one district.

On the motion to give two senators to the district the vote stood—yeas 49, nays 10.

The parishes of Lafayette and Vermillion were formed into one district, with one senator. Carried.

Mr. Lewis then moved that the parishes of St. Landry and Calcasieu should form one district with two Senators.

Mr. Ratliff opposed the motion on the ground, first—that it would require an augmentation of the Senate beyond the limit of 32, and that St. Landry had already been fully protected in the House of Representatives.—The addition of Calcasieu increased the population and resources of St. Landry very slightly—too slightly to give them claims to an additional Senator. Unless the Convention had determined to increase the number of Senators, they should not vote for the motion. He protested against any attempt, direct or indirect, to carry the number beyond 32.

Mr. Voorhies remarked that the project proposed to give two Senators to the Lake Parishes, though their population, wealth and taxes, were not half those of St Landry—give the latter two Senators, and group the former together, and allow them but one. This was the course he would pursue. The Lake Parishes had remained in statu quo for the last 15 years. In this manner, the Senate would be confined to 32 members, while so injustice would be done.

Mr. Lewis sustained the proposition to give two Senators to Opelousas. The country composed one fifth the whole territory of the State, and had kept with the progress of the country in every respect. St. Landry by herself was more than entitled to a Senator, and by adding Calcasieu, had an undoubted right to two.

Mr. Burton contended that if the people of the Lake Parishes did pay but a small amount of taxes, they were honest and paid up, and this was more than could be said of the Opelousas and Attakapas parishes.

Mr. Ratliff said that he was in error in stating that the Senate would be increased beyond the limit of 32, by the addition of a Senator to Opelousas, as one had been taken away from the First District.

The motion to give the parishes of St. Landry large majority.

On motion of Mr. Ratliff, the House took up the fifth paragraph of the report, making East and West Feliciana, St. Helena, St. Tammany, Livingston and Washington one district with four members.

Mr. Dunn moved to unite East and West Felicians into one district. They had always been united, had acted together with perfect harmony—the people of the two parishes were one in character and feeling—no dissatisfaction had ever taken place between the two parishes.

Mr. Ratliff said that with the exception of Mr. Dunn, the delegations from East and West Feliciana were unanimously in favor of separating the two parishes.—Though they were of the same politics, they were divided in territory by the hand of nature. In population, wealth and taxes, they were nearly equal.

Mr. R. further observed that Mr. Dunn was about to remove from East Feliciana, and could not therefore feel so much interest in the matter as himself. Moreover in East Feliciana, there were frequent quarrels about local matters, in which West Felicians did not wish to be mixed up.

Mr. Scott of Feliciana expressed his intention of voting in favor of a division, as he believed it to be the wish of his constituents.

Mr. Saunders wished that the Senatorial Districts should be different from the Representative Districts.—The object of having two Houses, was to have a mutual check upon each. But as the Convention had departed from the rule, and as West Feliciana appeared greatly desirous of a division, he should vote for it.

The motion to divide the parishes was carried, 34 to 26, and a Senator was allotted to each of the parishes.

Mr. McRae moved that St. Helena and Livingston should form one district. Mr. Labauve moved to add Washington and St. Tammany, and give the four parishes one member. West Baton Rouge and Iberville which were allowed but one Senator, paid $8,000 more taxes than these four parishes, and had a population greater by four thousand.

Mr. Wadsworth complained of the gross injustice in giving two Senators to the Piney Woods, and but one to his district which doubled the former in every respect—in population, taxes and wealth.

The object was further argued by Messrs Ratliff, Splane, Dunn, Chinn, Penn, Benjamin, Conrad and Reed.

The motion that the four parishes should form one Senatorial District was lost, 31 to 32.

The motion to give a Senator to Livingston and St. Helena was carried.

The motion that St. Tammany and Washington should form a separate district with one Senator, was likewise carried.

Concordia and Tensas were constituted into one district with one Senator.

Carroll and Madison were formed into another district with one Senator.

A motion to adjourn was lost.

Mr. Garrett moved to form Union, Morehouse and Jackson into one district, with one Senator. Mr. Benjamin moved to add Ouachita to the district.

Another motion to adjourn was made and lost.

Mr. Taylor said that if the question were pressed, without giving time to the minority to examine the question, he would, if necessary, defer it until to-morrow morning.

A call of the Convention being made, 44 members only answered to their names.

The Convention adjourned.

UNITED STATES SENATE.

The National Intelligencer of the 21st says:—The Senate held a short Executive Session yesterday during which the nomination of Jacob Gould, of New York, to be Marshal of the United States for the northern district of New York, and the nomination of Mr. Bean, to be Consul at Hong Kong, in China, were confirmed. These nominations had been made by the President to replace those rejected for similar offices on Wednesday.

The Senate then, having acted on all the nominations presented to it by the President, adjourned sine die.

RAILROAD BOILER BURST.—

A letter from Sykesville, Md., in the Baltimore Patriot, of the 21st, gives an account of a sad accident which occurred the day previous on the arrival of the western train of cars from Baltimore. The passengers were just entering the cars when the boiler of the engine burst on the under side, throwing the engine twenty feet forward. The fireman, Mr. Pollard, was thrown on the top of the wood car, but not hurt. The engineer, Mr. John Smith, was badly scalded and severely wounded. Mr. White, the conductor, was scalded about the ankles and his face somewhat bruised. Very fortunately, neither of them is. hailed the steam: A colored woman and child belonging to the public-house, were also somewhat injured.

MEXICO.—The Mexican papers received by the schooner Alcevida, add very little to the information already obtained in relation to the affairs in that country. The trial of Santa Anna was fixed for the 24th ult. The Ex-President is not to appear before the Grand Jury, but to send a written defence of his conduct.

The Hesperia of the 12th, states that private letters of Santa Anna's to his agents have been intercepted, in which he directs them not to give up any money or valuables in their possession. He had previously declared that all his wealth consisted of landed property, while it has since been discovered, that he had drawn drafts for nearly $90,000 on his various agents. There is little doubt that a searching scrutiny will be made into the manner in which the fallen tyrant has disposed of the funds entrusted to him for the public service.

The Mexican papers are of course furious at the prospect of annexation, though nothing positive in respect to the action of our Congress was known at the time.

FROM TEXAS.

By the steamship New York we have received our files of Texas papers to a late date. They do not contain much news.

The Houston Star announces the passage of the Texas resolutions through the United States Congress in terms of high exultation. He remarks:—

"The resolutions will doubtless receive the cordial approbation of the citizens of Texas. They admit Texas into the Union as a State, and allow their people the privileges of American citizens. We can in justice ask no more. Our Government will doubtless promptly adopt such measures as may be necessary to consummate this great measure. The people almost with one voice call aloud for prompt and decisive action, and we are confident that the Executive will not be found wanting at this crisis. No mortal power can resist the decree that has gone forth. Texas returns like the lost Joseph to the parental bosom. May the Union be perpetual." So humbly hope that the All-Wise Being who has thus far directed the Lone Star of our country through the murky clouds of war, has in mercy determined that it shall henceforth become the bright and glorious emblem of unceasing peace."

The news, says the same paper, of the passage of the annexation resolutions was hailed with a burst of enthusiasm by our citizens that has never been exceeded. The news of the victorious battle of San Jacinto was greatly excited such general and enthusiastic rejoicing. The sound of the drum and other musical instruments, the roar of cannon, the loud shouts of the multitude resounding long after midnight, indicated the ardent longing of our citizens to return once more under the glorious Ægis of the American Union.

On the other hand, the Texas Register and other papers seem vehemently opposed to annexation, and from what we can gather, though probabilities are in favor of the consummation of the measure, it will not be accomplished without a severe struggle.

THE WEST.—A gentleman immediately from Victoria informs us that the Mexican trade to that place, and to other trading points of the West is slowly improving—that the old settlers of Refugio, San Patricio and Goliad are gradually returning to their homes, and that there is an increasing confidence of future security, in the entire absence of any rumors of hostility. A good understanding appears to exist between the proprietors of Texas colony, and the colonists are progressing slowly forward to the point of their ultimate destination.—Thibodaux News.

INDIANS.—The Telegraph informs us that three Waccoes were recently killed near Bastrop. "It is supposed they belonged to a party that stole about thirty horses from that section a few weeks since, and that they were not pursued and punished, they probably thought that they could make another foray."—Ib.

It appears from a letter of Capt. Stevenson published in the News, and written at Corpus Christi, March 2d, that a large party of Commanches, supposed to consist of 600 warriors, has gone towards the Rio Grande passing near Corpus Christi. Mr. Matthias Trader had returned that post for the last four weeks. It is supposed they were driven back by the Indians. This party Indians is probably a part of the force under the command of the Comanche Chief Santa Anna.—Texas Register.

A correspondent of the Galveston News, writing from Corpus Christi, under date of March 14th, gives a rumor that had reached that place to the effect that Santa Anna had escaped from prison and had left the country.

The Houston Telegraph mentions the appointment by President Jones of the Hon. D. S. Kaufman, late Senator from Sabine, Shelby and Harrison, as Chargé d'Affaires to the United States. He is said to be an ardent friend to annexation.

At a meeting of the citizens of Galveston, President Jones was requested by special resolution, to call an extra session of Congress, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of the people in respect to annexation.

SENATOR BAGBY.

Our readers doubtless remember the curious gymnastic of that amusing specimen of Alabama Locofocoism, ARTHUR P. BAGBY, on the Texas Questions. He, to the astonishment of his friends, made a most disgraceful onslaught upon MILTON BROWN'S joint resolutions for Annexation, while they were before the Committee, refusing to recognize the Constitutional power of Congress to annex foreign territory to the Union. Whig-ridden Congress whig-ridden in regard to this question. The next day, however, when cool reflection came, the same Mr. Bagby began to discover that it was rather incongruous and inconsistent in the representative of a State which had never faltered in her fealty to locofocoism, and which had recently signalized her unexampled devotion to the party, by giving POLK and TEXAS 11,000 majority, to be thus veering round to whiggery, and deserting in their extremest peril his quondam friends and associates He, therefore, eagerly availed himself of the bit of rope which was thrown to him by BENTON in the shape of the discretionary power conferred upon the President to act according to the tenor of the joint resolutions of the bill of the Missouri Senator, and seizing it as a plank of safety towed himself ashore, and rejoined his political brethren. His tardy repentance has, however, availed him but little. While the more charitable of the "opposite party" in Alabama, appear disposed to pass over Mr. BAGBY'S political backslidings with indulgent silence, some of them of sterner mood, seem determined to visit his sins with merciless retribution. The Montgomery Advertiser—an orthodox Polk and Dallas concern—has undertaken the task of political annihilation, while other journals of the party of less note, are eager to complete it. Among the mountain democracy of Northern Alabama, Senator BAGBY fares very poorly.—The Florence Gazette overhauls his misdeeds in the following excoriating style:

ARTHUR P. BAGBY.—It is to be hoped that every democratic press in the State of Alabama will denounce in the most emphatic terms, the treachery and treason, which that arch-hypocrite, the Hon. A. P. Bagby, has especially exhibited.

The motion to divide the parishes was carried, 34 to 26, and a Senator was allotted to each of the parishes.

Mr. McRae moved that St. Helena and Livingston should form one district. Mr. Labauve moved to add Washington and St. Tammany, and give the four parishes one member. West Baton Rouge and Iberville which were allowed but one Senator, paid $8,000 more taxes than these four parishes, and had a population greater by four thousand.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

ITALIAN COMPANY.—As a rumor prevails that the Italian Company, or a portion of them intend performing at the Orleans Theatre, we are requested by Signor Borghese to state that the Company will play exclusively at the Poydras street Theatre. The operatic season will close about the end of next month.

THE SOCIETY OF SACRED MUSIC to which our citizens are indebted for so many pleasant and delightful entertainments are about tendering an evidence of their gratitude to Mr. FURST, the artist who has on many occasions, aided in conducting their musical soirees with zeal, spirit and skill. With this object, the Society will give a vocal and instrumental concert, on Friday next, at the Rev. Mr. Clapp's Church. The programme will be published in due time.

THE GREAT FOOT RACE.—This affair comes off tomorrow. Since the postponement, the excitement has, if possible increased. It is impossible to form any idea of the number of persons that will be in attendance, but if what every body says be true, every body is going.—The pedestrians are said to be doing well, and more than one of 'em has made extra preparation within the last week. Six at least will start, and of them, Elsworth, Archer, and Gildersleeve, are the favorites. Our impression is the HALL may be looked upon as a dangerous customer, &c. he is far behind, in the opinions of the "knowing ones." You may look out for him!

FIRE.—Yesterday about noon, a fire broke out in the Sugar Refinery of F. M. Weld & Co., at the corner of New Levee and Delord streets. The interior of the building, together with the machinery and a large assortment of refined and raw sugar, was destroyed. The fire was on the building and contents, we understand, fall considerably short of the loss sustained.

Pectoral Fumigator

OR J. ARTIS.

THERE does not exist a more infectious of the chest, throat, nose or lungs, than that of the use of the Pectoral Fumigator. May not be cured or at least greatly relieved. Those nothing angina of the chest, lying pains, oppression, palpitation of the heart, nervous complaints, diseases of the throat and stomach, indigestion, or painful convulsive motions in the face, bevralgia or nervous pains in the head. In any of these cases of cause to ache, and none of them come all within the sphere of action and offer but a slight resistance to its medicinal powers.

If we can simply in the most nervous affections that the Fumigator exercises its sanitary influences; there are diseases which, though not entirely nervous, are not on the other hand entirely phlegmatic, but are partly nervous and partly of the latter nature. It is well known how dangerous these diseases are. And must we then give up the hope of obtaining relief? Must we be content to remain miserable? No! it is well known how dangerous these diseases are. And must we then give up the hope of obtaining relief? Must we be content to remain miserable?
