THE DAILY BEE. THURSDAY MORNING, DEC. 30. THE UNITED STATES AND SPAIN.

We had a word or two yesterday touching Mexico. Let us to-day endeavor to understand our position with respect to Spain. It is hardly necessary to recapitulate the nume rous wrongs and aggressions suffered by our commerce and our citizens at the hands of Caban officials. They have been so frequent ly brought to public notice that the catalogue ls smoot known by heart. Neither is it requisite to dwell at length upon the tortuous and evasive policy by which Spain contrives in nine cases out of ten to evade satisfaction.

Ly transferring to the home government every Tork.

In Havann there was little of interest toelarge transferring to the home government every ost known by heart. Avious etc dweil at length upon the tortiuous yearse policy by which Spain contries be cases out of ten to evade satisfaction, ansferring to the home government every calleged injustice or oppression comed by the authorities of Cuba, under the home statement of that island on the Empire City for New York on the 23d not empowered to adjust questions beeen the mother country and foreign states, ir readers understand by this time that hencers an issue arises between the United stee and Spain, growing out of the arbitraand illegal conduct of the colonial governand of Cuba, the policy of removing the lestion to Spain itself ensures vexations formaticant, naid delay, and all the teddous remaities of the meet punctifious court in praisendom. Hence it has usually happened at years have elapsed between the perpeation of the wrong and its full investigation, dit is quite certain that, with the single toeption of the affair of the Black Warrior, to one of our caims against Spain has been There is reason to believe that it is deliberated preconcerted. The Washington Caion eaking probably upon good grounds, af riminate against our citizens, and the impos aviction on the part of Spain that the lead-

Spanish government will voluntarily surrender the sovere guty of that island, even for a sum that wild out of the regarder the saving for a series of years. Spain is poor, we admit, but her pride exceeds her poverty. Money annot compensate her for the imaginary humbiation she would endure in wending the Gem of the Auilles. The experience of many years amply justifies the conclusion that our overtures to Spain for the sale of Cuba will be received with the same scenario language with which she has always repulsed them. Spain never yet has consented to part with any of the dependencies. Mexico and Peru, and her other possessions on the American continent, were from from her after a protracted and dreadful struggle. She will ut yield Cuba save to irresistible force. What then are we to do? Are we to con o diplomatizing for a redress that will be be granted? Are we to wait for Span-uation, which is as remote as the Greek us satisfaction, by forcing upon her
