SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF GHAZI, FAHED ABDULLAH AHMAD

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee was motivated to serve the Dawa and spread the word of the Koran as he believes that it is a Muslim's obligation.

2. The detainee claims he traveled to Sanaa, Yemen and met with Sheik Muqbil to discuss the validity of a Fatwa. Sheik Muqbil issued a Fatwa that stated Muslims had a right to train themselves for self-defense against enemies.

3. Sheik Muqbil and a few other "Brotherhood" movement supporters recognize Usama Bin Ladin as their leader. Sheik Muqbil was responsible for the jihadist movement in the geographical region of Sa'dah, Yemen.

4. Sheik Muqbil advised the detainee to go for training in Afghanistan. Since he did not have any money for the trip Sheik Muqbil gave the detainee 500 to 600 United States dollars.

5. Sheik Muqbil instructed the detainee to go to the Jama'ah al Tabligh Mosque in Sanaa where he could get a visa and a plane ticket to Pakistan. Since the detainee was still in the twelfth grade Sheik Muqbil told him to wait until after graduation to make travel arrangements. A year later the detainee went to the mosque, left his passport and some money and later returned to obtain his passport, visa and a ticket.

6. The detainee flew from Sanaa, Yemen through Dubai, United Arab Emirates, to Karachi, Pakistan. He spent one night in a hotel then traveled to Quetta, Pakistan where he stayed for two nights at the Lukanda Hotel.

7. The detainee crossed the border into Afghanistan. He taught the children in the villages around Spin Buldak, Kandahar, Kabul, Afghanistan.

8. The detainee went to Jalalabad, Afghanistan by bus where he taught in another village for about two weeks. From there he went to Khost, Afghanistan, where he stayed in various villages for about two months.

9. The detainee met a man named Asadullah who arranged for a guide to take the detainee back to Pakistan. The detainee eventually joined a group of 27 to 30 other people headed for the Pakistan border. The detainee paid the guide 200 to 300 rupees.

10. The detainee claims he crossed the border back into Pakistan and surrendered to the authorities. The authorities accused him of being a terrorist trying to escape from Afghanistan. He did not have his passport or anything else when he crossed into Pakistan. All he took was his Koran and about 700 Pakistani rupees.

b. Training

1. The detainee trained at the al Farouq training camp for nine days before hearing the news about September 11th.

2. The detainee was recognized as training at the al Farouq training camp on or around April 2001. He received training on how to shoot the Kalashnikov, the PK machine gun, the rocket propelled grenade launcher (RPG), and how to detonate explosives.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee spent four days at the Nabras guesthouse in Kandahar, Afghanistan where his passport and money were taken from him.

2. The Nabras guesthouse was used by fighters heading to the al Farouq training camp and by Usama Bin Laden. Arabs bound for training would gather at the guesthouse until about 25-30 were in the group and then they were transported to al Farouq. Bin Laden would come to Nabras to greet the fighters before they went to training. At Nabras, passports, money, tickets and other important documents were taken from each person.

3. The detainee stayed at the Azzam guesthouse in Kabul, Afghanistan for 35 days where he received additional training until the bombing started.

4. Hamza al Ghamdi ran the Azzam guesthouse in Kabul and is an intelligence agent who has been in Afghanistan for almost 15 years and has traveled to Bosnia and Chechnya for jihad.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

Hamza al Ghamdi is recognized as one of Usama Bin Ladin's most trusted people and reported directly to him.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee traveled to Tora Bora and stayed there for 27 days to one month. He went with a group of men that included Sabi' who is the group trainer from al Farouq and the only person with a Kalashnikov.

2. The detainee was chosen to go to Tora Bora and become one of Usama Bin Ladin's bodyguards. Individuals from al Farouq would either go to Tora Bora to be one of Bin Ladin's bodyguards or they went to Kabul to await further assignment. The detainee was also recognized as a fighter in the KTAL region.

3. The detainee was recognized as one of Usama Bin Ladin's bodyguards and a member of his "dirty thirty" and a fighter in Tora Bora, Afghanistan.

4. The detainee was seen at Tora Bora carrying a Kalashnikov.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. During the time he traveled in Yemen, Pakistan and Afghanistan, the detainee says he had not heard anyone speak about recruiters for fighting in Afghanistan against the enemies of Islam. He also doesn't believe that there is currently a jihad.

b. An al Qaida operative and facilitator did not name the detainee as a Bin Laden bodyguard.

c. A chief al Qaida recruiter, planner, and top strategist did not identify the detainee.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. A long-time Mujahid identified the detainee as someone who attended advanced training at Tarnak Farm near Kandahar, Afghanistan.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee met a Pakistani male who provided him with directions written in both Arabic and Urdu detailing how to reach the Taliban House in Quetta, Pakistan.
2. The Pakistani male has been identified as being at the Arab guesthouse in Kandahar and at the al Farouq and Tarnak Farms advanced training camps.
3. The detainee was seen at Usama Bin Laden's home in Kandahar, Afghanistan.
4. The detainee is associated with two suspects in the USS Cole bombing in Yemen.
5. The detainee studied the Koran for three years at the Farqan Institute, where he met a fellow detainee.
6. The fellow detainee from the Farqan Institute was a bodyguard for Usama Bin Laden and he was always by Bin Laden's side.
7. The detainee and Usama Bin Laden's body guard have been identified as part of the "Dirty Thirty" who caught trying to cross in to Pakistan from Afghanistan on 15 December 2001 and are suspected al Qaida members.
8. The detainee's name was on a document containing a list of names and safety-deposit boxes. The list was recovered from raids of a suspected al Qaida safe house.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The Afghani guides took the group of thirty Arabs to the outskirts of Bershnia, Pakistan and departed. Once at the border, the Pakistani Police picked up the thirty Arabs and the detainee told the police that he wanted to go to the Yemeni Embassy but instead the detainee was taken to a Pakistan Prison in Peshawar where he was eventually handed over to the Americans.
2. The detainee denied being captured but stated that he and the other members of his group turned themselves into the Pakistan Police Force in Parchinar, Pakistan. The following day the detainee and the entire group was arrested and transferred to a prison facility in Peshawar.
3. A foreign government has identified the detainee and several Yemenis as fleeing Afghanistan and probably affiliated with al Qaida.

1. A senior al Qaida Commander said he recognized the detainee as someone he had seen in either Kabul or one of the camps in Afghanistan, possibly the Farouq camp between 1998 and 2000.

2. A senior al Qaida operative provided information on al Qaida participants in a 1999 elite training course at Mes Aynak camp in Lowgar, Afghanistan. He said the detainee was one of Usama Bin Laden's bodyguards beginning in mid-2000. Two months before 11 September 2001, he took the detainee and others to Karachi, Pakistan to teach them English and American behaviors. He stated that all of Usama Bin Laden's bodyguards were arrested two weeks before the fall of Kabul.

3. The same senior al Qaida operative identified the detainee as one of the martyrs who had been readied for the al Qaida's Southeast Asia hijacking plan of 11 Sept 2001. He also said Usama Bin Laden picked United States. airlines, citizens, and military installations as targets.

c. Connections/Associations

1. Abu Basir al Yemeni was a close friend with the detainee in Yemen as well as in Afghanistan. Abu Basir is known to be the personal secretary to Usama Bin Laden and was a trusted guard.

2. The detainee became a bodyguard for Usama Bin Laden in late 1999 or early 2000. He remained in that position for approximately one year.

3. The detainee was seen in July 2000 guarding Usama Bin Laden at Kandahar airport. The detainee shared a room with others in Kandahar. This house was known as the "gathering of six". Hamza al Qatari, a close associate of Usama Bin Laden who dealt with finances, stayed at this compound.

4. A senior al Qaida Lieutenant says the detainee was a guard for Usama Bin Laden. The Lieutenant saw the detainee at a guesthouse in 2001 when he went to visit Usama Bin Laden. He is certain about seeing the detainee.

5. The detainee was a bodyguard for Usama Bin Laden and was seen in Tora Bora with a handgun and a Beka.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee steadfastly denied any involvement in or knowledge of al Qaida activities while in Afghanistan or Pakistan.

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL HIKIMI, AHMED UMAR
ABDULLAH

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee said that in 1999 he was not practicing being a devout Muslim and was smoking a lot when he met a guy name Ahmed Al Ajami, who gave him advice on how to be a better Muslim. Ajami told him that he should repent by going to a Muslim country to teach children the Koran.
 2. Ajami told the detainee to go to see Sheik Moqbil Al Wadae, a well-known Muslim religious scholar from Sadah, Yemen.
 3. The detainee decided to get a Yemeni passport with 1969 as his date of birth. This was the year of birth that would make him too old to enlist in the Army. He went to the Taiz government office and paid approximately 10,000 Yemen Riyals for the passport and paid a bribe to change his year of birth from 1972 to 1969.
 4. Sheik Wadae financially supported the detainee's travel to teach the Koran, because he did not have any money. Wadae gave him 5,000 Saudi Riyals (11,000 United States Dollars) to help with his travels.
 5. Shaykh Muqbil Bin Hadi Al-Wadi'a, and a few other "Brotherhood" movement supporters, recognized Usama Bin Ladin as their leader. Wadi'a was responsible for the jihadist movement in the geographical region of Sa'dah, Yemen.

6. The detainee was given a choice of where to travel and decided on Afghanistan, because he heard that Afghanistan was very poor and needed help.

7. The detainee paid 2000 Yemeni Riyals for a document stating he had a medical problem; without this he wouldn't be able to travel to Pakistan. He then went to the Yemeni Minister of Interior to get his medical paper stamped for validity.

8. The detainee went to the Pakistani Embassy, showed his passport, medical paper and 1600 Yemeni Riyals to get a visa. He later had to pay 400 Yemeni Riyals for someone to write, in English, the purpose of his visit to Pakistan and his background biographical information.

9. After two-three weeks, the detainee decided to go to Afghanistan for the first time and went back to Sana'a, Yemen to buy an airline ticket for a flight to Karachi, Pakistan.

10. The detainee arrived in Karachi and exchanged some money for Pakistani money and looked for an Arabic speaking cab driver to take him to Peshawar, Pakistan. Sheik Wadae told him to go to Khvost, and Peshawar was the closest Pakistani city to Khvost.

11. After the detainee arrived in Khvost he went to the local market where he met a man named Kari Mohammed Khan. They decided that they would teach together in and around Khvost and Kabul, Afghanistan.

12. During the summer of 1999, and after eight months of teaching in Afghanistan and running out of money, the detainee returned to Taiz, Yemen.

13. In February 2001, nine months prior to Ramadan in November 2001, the detainee decided to go back to Afghanistan, for the second time to teach the Koran.

14. The detainee said that he went the same route to Afghanistan as he did on his first trip, Sana'a, to Karachi, to Peshawar, to Miram Shah to Khvost where he again went to Kari Mohammed Khan's house.

15. The detainee went back to the same Sana'a hospital and paid 200 Yemeni Riyals to Abdul, who gave an unknown doctor 2000 Yemeni Riyals for another medical document. Then he went to the Pakistani Embassy where he paid 1000 Yemeni Riyals to another unknown man to get a Pakistani visa.

16. The detainee was arrested while trying to cross into Pakistan from Afghanistan on December 2001 with 30 suspected al Qaida members.

b. Connections/Associations

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL HIKIMI, AHMED UMAR ABDULLAH

1. The detainee is suspected of being a member of al Qaida due to his association with the Kandahar, Afghanistan airport. It is known that those individuals linked with the Kandahar airport were automatically associated with being a member of Usama Bin Ladin's group.

2. The detainee was seen in Tora Bora and is a suspected member of Usama Bin Ladin's "dirty thirty". Several of these individuals are thought to have been bodyguards for Bin Laden.

c. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee's name, passport and a ticket was found on a list of al Qaida Mujahidin, and the contents of their "trust" accounts, found on files recovered from various computer media seized during raids against al Qaida associated safe houses.

2. The detainee, identified as Mullah Haji Rohullah, was seen on the front lines in Northern Afghanistan fighting for the Taliban against the Northern Alliance.

3. A senior al Qaida lieutenant recognized the detainee as someone he saw in Kabul and/or Kandahar, Afghanistan prior to the 11 September 2001 attacks and he was known to frequent the Bayt al-Salama guesthouse.

4. The al-Salaam guesthouse, "house of peace", was a lodging house that al Qaida ran for members and distinguished visitors to Qandahar.

5. The detainee was recognized as someone who fought in the Taloqan area of Northern Afghanistan for approximately one month. He lived at a safe house, or Madahfa owned by Hamzah Al Qati. Al Qati's Madahfa was approximately three kilometers from the front line.

6. The detainee was recognized again from the al Qaiti guesthouse in mid-2001.

7. The detainee traveled to Kabul and then to Jalalabad, Afghanistan. In Jalalabad, his duties were to transport clothing and supplies from there to Tora Bora, which he did until the bombing of Jalalabad. After the bombing he fled to Tora Bora and fought in the Al Wady-Mahghan region.

8. The detainee was identified as a driver on the Taliban front lines during late 1999 through early 2000.

9. An al Qaida operative identified the detainee as Abu Hammam whom he first saw in Kabul, Afghanistan at al Farouq Camp in 1999. He said the detainee would drive from the front line to the mountains with food for the brothers. Also, he would sometimes have other brothers that would switch out with others already in the mountains.

10. Weapons training was conducted on numerous weapons at al-Farouq. Students learned how to assemble and disassemble each weapon. They received training on the AK-47, AKM and PK machine gun. They learned to fire from sitting, kneeling and standing positions and became familiar with the RPG-7.

11. The detainee may have been spotted at a guesthouse in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

12. The detainee was recognized as someone who was captured at Tora Bora.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee says that he is not a member of al Qaida and only heard about it on television. He noted that he thinks Usama Bin Ladin is bad and knows that the United States has a problem with Bin Ladin. He claims that he has never met Bin Ladin and he does not know his "path".

b. The detainee says that he has not heard of any future attacks on the United States and does not know anyone who has knowledge or was involved in past attacks on the United States.

c. Sheik Wadae told the detainee not to fight in Afghanistan, because fighting was against Muslims and he was only there to teach. He agreed to not fight.

d. The detainee claims he has never been trained on any weapon and has no prior arrests.

e. The detainee had no problem with America or Americans and claims that he never had military-style training and that he attended no training camps in Afghanistan. He also says that he never handled or fired a weapon in Afghanistan and never fought in Afghanistan. He claims he only went to Afghanistan to teach the Koran.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. 3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee claimed that he was in Afghanistan on a Quranic missionary visit.
2. The detainee indicated that Mukhtar al Qadasi arranged his travel from Yemen to Karachi, Pakistan. The detainee and Mukhtar al Qadasi traveled together.
3. In July 2001, Mukhtar al Qadasi told the detainee it was time to go Afghanistan.
4. Another detainee claims that either he or one of his acquaintances facilitated the detainee's travel to Afghanistan in late 1999 or early 2000.
5. In Karachi, the detainee and Mukhtar al Qadasi were met by a friend of Sheikh Mufeed, a Yemeni identified as Khaled al Barakani. The detainee and two other men boarded a bus and traveled to Quetta, Pakistan.
6. The detainee and Mukhtar al Qadasi were driven in a public car to the border of Afghanistan and Pakistan. When they arrived at the border, they got out of the car and crossed the border on foot into Buldak, Afghanistan.
7. The detainee was seen at the Kandahar safehouse maintained by Al Qaida. Arabs who came to Kandahar for military training at the al Farouq training camp used this safehouse in particular.

8. The detainee was seen at the Al Nibras guesthouse in Kabul, Afghanistan. The guesthouse was used to temporarily house new people being sent to training camps.

9. The detainee was seen in Tora Bora.

b. Training

1. The detainee was seen at al Farouq in May/June of 2000.

2. The al Farouq training camp was funded by al Qaida. The camp was more advanced than other training camps in Afghanistan.

3. The detainee was seen in the al Farouq training camp. While there the detainee was not convinced to fight against the Northern Alliance.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee became a bodyguard of Usama bin Laden shortly after the USS Cole bombing. The detainee remained a bodyguard for one year until al Qaida withdrew to Tora Bora. The detainee's older brother, Riyadh al Mujahid, was a veteran bodyguard of Usama Bin Laden.

2. A bodyguard for Usama bin Laden identified the detainee as one of Usama bin Laden bodyguards.

3. The detainee was seen several times with Usama Bin Laden between 23 October 2001 and 12 November 2001 in Kabul, Khost, and Jalalabad.

4. The detainee was captured with 30 suspected al Qaida members when they tried to cross into Pakistan from Afghanistan on 15 Dec 2001.

d. Intent

1. The detainee stated Christians and Jews are infidels and do not believe in the true God. He asserted that only Muslims are the true believers and advocated jihad to protect Muslim countries from invaders.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee denied attending al Farouq Training Camp and denied ever participating in any military training while in Afghanistan.

b. The detainee denied being a Usama Bin Laden bodyguard, denied swearing bayat to Usama Bin Laden and claimed he never saw anyone swear bayat to Usama Bin Laden.

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee traveled from Tirez through Dubai, United Arab Emirates, to Karachi, Pakistan. He stayed at a hotel in Karachi before traveling to Quetta, Pakistan where he went to the Taliban office and met Abu Malak.

2. Abu Malak took the detainee to Kabul, Afghanistan after a three-day stop in Kandahar, Afghanistan and introduced the detainee to Abdul Rahman at the Wazir Akbar Mosque in Kabul. The detainee claims he taught the Koran to children at the mosque from approximately May to August 2001.

3. The detainee stayed at a house in Kabul that was used by Taliban officials to live in while in Kabul on business.

4. The detainee gave Abdul Rahman his passport for safekeeping while he stayed in Afghanistan and he did not retrieve it before departing for Pakistan.

5. Abdul Rahman used to work for the Taliban.

6. The detainee was identified as a Yemeni mujahideen who was captured at Tora Bora.

7. The detainee was seen wearing camouflage and carrying an AK-47 at Usama Bin Laden's private airport in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

b. Training

1. The detainee received no military training in Yemen because he paid a bribe to get out of his obligatory military service.
2. An admitted al Qaida travel facilitator identified the detainee as a Yemeni who traveled to Afghanistan in April 2001 and attended the al Farouq training camp.

c. Connections/Associations

1. On his way to the Pakistani border the detainee recognized some fellow Yemeni men in a group of refugees and joined them. The men he recognized were Abdul Malak, Osman, and Majed. The detainee remembered the men from their visits to his high school classes in Tirez, Yemen.
2. The Furqan Institute was a meeting and recruiting ground for jihadist in Yemen. Many Yemeni al Qaida members have links to the institute, specifically a number of the al Qaida members involved in the 12 October 2002 attack on the U.S.S. Cole.
3. An admitted Usama Bin Laden (UBL) bodyguard identified Abdul Malak as a bodyguard very close to UBL who introduced UBL to his fourth wife. He also identified Huthayfa Uthman as a Yemeni he heard was a UBL bodyguard for 20-30 days and fought on the front lines in Kabul. He also identified Majed as a bodyguard who was with UBL before he disappeared in Tora Bora as well as fought on the Kabul front lines in January 2001.
4. An admitted al Qaida travel facilitator identified the detainee's three friends as Usama Bin Laden bodyguards.
5. Another detainee identified Abdul Malak and Majed as Usama Bin Laden bodyguards. He also identified Uthman as a Yemeni mujahideen who was with him when he was captured at Tora Bora.
6. The detainee was identified as one of the 30 mujahideen who fled Tora Bora together after UBL left the area. The detainee was also seen many times at the Kandahar guesthouse.
7. A document listing 324 Arabic names, aliases, and nationalities was recovered from safe house raids associated with suspected al Qaida in Karachi, Pakistan. This list contains the detainee's name, nationality Yemeni, and passport.
8. A name matching the detainee's was listed on a radio brevity code sheet taken from suspected al Qaida members near Takhteh Pol, Afghanistan, on 24 November 2001.

To: AL HASAN, SAMIR

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL HASAN, SAMIR

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

The detainee was told that he could live a simple life in Afghanistan and make more money. With this in mind the detainee decided to travel to Afghanistan to fight in the Jihad.

b. Training

1. The detainee claims that he was trained on the use of the Kalashnikov in a place called ad Dahna located about thirty minutes outside Taiz.

2. The training was conducted every Friday for four weeks. The training consisted of static firing and did not include any maneuver training.

3. The detainee claims to have gone straight to the front lines upon his arrival in Afghanistan.

4. An associate of the detainee claims that the detainee attended al Farouq and became a bodyguard in August 2001.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee advised that he was in Afghanistan as a relief worker for the Islamic Relief Organization.

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL HASAN, SAMIR

2. The detainee claims that the relief organization has no central headquarters, no national level sponsor, no specific name, no associated logo or symbol. There were a total of five people employed by the organization.

3. The detainee claims that the organization he worked for was not affiliated with al Wafa, Ighathat al-Islami al-Kuwaitia (Kuwaiti Islamic Aid) or International Islamic Relief Organization.

4. An admitted bodyguard of Usama Bin Laden who was with Usama Bin Laden at Tora Bora identified a person who might be the detainee as a member of Usama Bin Laden's guard force.

5. The detainee told an associate that he (the detainee) had been a soldier with the Taliban.

6. The detainee's name and contents of his "trust" account were found on computer media seized in an al Qaida associated safe house.

7. The detainee stayed at a nice house in Kabul owned by the Taliban for approximately one week.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee stated that all the information he previously provided on 19 February 2004 was deceiving.

2. The detainee claims after a week, he traveled north of Kabul to a military camp approximately two miles from the front lines with the Northern Alliance. The detainee was issued a Kalashnikov and provided jackets that held ammunition and weapons upon his arrival at the camp.

3. The detainee claims that he remained at his assigned post and pulled guard duty but never saw any Northern Alliance soldiers. The detainee claims that he did hear gunshots and fighting in the distance but his position never came under attack from the Northern Alliance.

4. The detainee stated that everyday at approximately 1600 or 1700, a vehicle would arrive at the house he stayed at and transport him and others to the front lines.

5. The detainee claims that he was not a member of the Taliban however, he did want to remain in their good graces so the detainee went to the front lines.

6. An associate of the detainee claims that he knew the detainee from Tora Bora where the detainee was a front line fighter in Baghram.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

7. An associate of the detainee saw him at the Kandahar guesthouse.
4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:
 - a. The detainee claims that he has never taken a bayat (pledge or oath).
 - b. The detainee claims that he has never been to al Farouq and does not know anyone who has been there.
 - c. The detainee stated that once released, he would like to return to Yemen and get his previous job at the factory.
 - d. The detainee claims that he does not have any enemies and he considers Americans his friends.
 - e. The detainee claims that he does not know Usama Bin Laden and does not claim any loyalty to him.
 - f. The detainee claimed not to be a part of al Qaida and had not heard of it before his trip to Afghanistan.
 - g. The detainee claimed he never engaged in battle with Northern Alliance or American troops while in Afghanistan.
 - h. The detainee stated he didn't support the fighting between the Taliban and the Northern Alliance because Islam prohibits Muslims from fighting each other.
 - i. The detainee stated he came to Afghanistan for employment, start a family and he never had any intention of fighting.
5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. The AMO is not an advocate for or against continued detention, nor may the AMO form a confidential relationship with you or represent you in any other matter.

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF ABU GHANIM, MOHAMMED RAJAB SADIQ

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee traveled to Bosnia in late 1994 for the purpose of joining the jihad.
 2. The detainee stated he traveled to Afghanistan to fight with the Taliban.
 3. The detainee stated that it does not matter whether one is a Taliban member or not, it was perfectly acceptable to travel to Afghanistan to join jihad.
 4. The detainee was asked if he had sworn allegiance to anyone while in Afghanistan. He claimed he did not, but did state he would fight with his life.
 5. The detainee said he used his true name passport to travel from Yemen to Bosnia. He traveled from Sanaa, Yemen, to Damascus, Syria and continued on to Istanbul, Turkey.
 6. While in Turkey, the detainee obtained a visa for travel to Bosnia from the Croatian Embassy. From Istanbul, the detainee traveled to Ankara. Once in Ankara, the detainee claimed that an individual, who supposedly facilitated the detainee's travel to Bosnia via Zagreb, Croatia, met him.
 7. The detainee went to Katibat al-Mujahidin, Mujahidin Battalion Headquarters in Zenica, Bosnia-Herzegovina. Once at Zenica, the detainee said he turned over all his personal belongings to an individual who was in charge of the guesthouse.

8. The detainee stated he traveled from Yemen to Afghanistan, leaving Yemen approximately six months prior to Ramadan, 2001. The detainee traveled from Sanaa to Karachi to Afghanistan.

9. The detainee claimed he wanted to go to Afghanistan because it was an Islamic state.

10. The detainee later claimed he traveled from Sana'a, Yemen, to Kabul, Afghanistan, via Karachi and Quetta, proceeding directly to the front lines north of Kabul, where he spent just under a year.

11. The detainee claimed his job was just to attack anyone who attacked him. He never visited Kabul, and never left the front lines.

12. When the detainee arrived into Afghanistan he joined the Mujahidin fighters and fought against Dostum's Forces in the north.

13. The detainee was at the Duserag frontline six to seven months.

14. The detainee fought at Duserag, against the Northern Alliance. The detainee then left and traveled to Garabal.

b. Training

1. The detainee stated that he did not need any additional training before heading to the frontline because of his participation in Bosnia.

2. The detainee stated he received his weapon upon arrival at the frontlines.

3. The detainee spent about one month training in Bosnia and spent eleven months fighting.

4. From the guesthouse in Zenica, the detainee claimed he went to a training camp possibly in Mehrez.

5. The detainee was trained on handling AK-47's and Rocket Propelled Grenade launchers.

6. The detainee claims that he has never heard of any training camp anywhere in Afghanistan. He claimed to receive his weapons training in Bosnia and so had no need to attend another in Afghanistan.

7. The detainee joined the Yemeni Civil War fight at the age of 19. He claimed he received basic training from the Yemeni Army. The detainee trained in Kalashnikovs and basic combat skills. The detainee fought in the Yemeni Civil War for two years, fighting in the northern part of Yemen the entire time.

8. After the detainee finished his month long training in Bosnia, he traveled to the northern part of Bosnia to what he called the Zeravich area. The detainee fought in the Zeravich area for six months.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee was identified by a source as being one of Usama bin Laden's security guards.

2. The detainee was identified by several sources as a bodyguard for Usama bin Laden.

3. The detainee was identified by an individual that knew him to be part of a group that was seen around Usama bin Laden in different locations. The detainee was seen carrying a Kalashnikov rifle.

4. The detainee was identified by an important facilitator as having been in Bosnia in 1995, Yemen from 1996-2000 and Afghanistan in February or March 2001. The detainee is reported to have joined the Guard Force in August 2001 and may have gone to Tora Bora.

5. The detainee talked to an individual about going to Afghanistan and this individual paid for the detainee's trip. The detainee stated the individual supported the Taliban ideology but does not know if he was a Taliban member.

6. The detainee advised that he was given money for his ticket to Karachi by someone that the detainee knew. The detainee first approached the individual about going to fight in Chechnya, but was told there was no way to get him there.

7. The individual gave the detainee the money to go to Afghanistan because of the individual's support for jihad and approving of the Taliban regime.

8. The detainee claims he fought with the Taliban while in Afghanistan. He saw the United States drop bombs during the United States campaign in November of 2001.

9. The detainee fought with the Mujahidin fighters that fought under the support of the Bosnian army. The detainee went back to Yemen when the Dayton Accords were signed.

d. Intent

The detainee made the following comment: "If I were free, no one would be able to stop me from doing what I want to do, not even your intelligence people. If you cooperate with me, I will write down everything I know. As you have already noticed from your intelligence people, you couldn't stop what has already happened. The information I have already given is no longer important. All I need is to be left alone at my home to be able to do what I want to do. My information is so important and so dangerous, your intelligence and your FBI would never even imagine it, but I know".

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF ABU GHANIM, MOHAMMED RAJAB SADIQ

e. Other Relevant Data

1. When the Taliban fell, the detainee went to a guesthouse belonging to someone he met on the front lines, stayed there 20 days, then walked to the Pakistani border, where he was captured with about 30 others.

2. The detainee was among other Yemeni citizens who around November 1999, were arrested on conspiracy to commit terrorism charges.

3. The detainee remained in custody during that time, where he was questioned about plans to undertake operations against Yemeni government and western interests.

4. The detainee claimed that he had contact with an agency, which had recruited him to undertake sabotage operations in Yemen.

5. The detainee also admitted that, although originally loyal to Bin Laden, the planned activities contravened a Bin Laden order that jihadists refrain from terrorist operations in Yemen, Pakistan and Sudan.

6. The detainee departed Bosnia after the Dayton agreement was signed in about November 1995.

7. The detainee spoke of information concerning a serum that causes the body's muscles to deteriorate, and will cause it's victim to die.

8. The detainee previously stated he had information that was so dangerous, we needed to hear it right away. The detainee later denied ever having said that, and blames it on the linguists, saying their translations are not correct.

9. When the detainee was asked how he knew a certain al Wafa official, he claims to know this information because of family ties.

10. The detainee advised that he joined the Taliban, not al Wafa.

11. The detainee was arrested in Bayt Habra, Yemen, for stealing and spent approximately eight months in a Yemen jail.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF ABU GHANIM, MOHAMMED RAJAB SADIQ

12. The detainee also spent eight to nine months in a Saudi Arabian jail. The arrest stemmed from an attempt to smuggle weapons into Saudi Arabia with al Qaida associates.

13. The detainee claimed only being a fighter assisting the Taliban.

14. The detainee doesn't want to return to Yemen because of being falsely accused of a crime for which he was imprisoned for eight and a half months. Supposedly it was this imprisonment that led him to leave the country.

15. The detainee claims a family member had something to do with the bombing of the USS Cole.

16. The detainee stated there would be a future attack on America bigger than 11 September 2001. All Americans will pay for their actions against the Muslim detainees in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

17. The detainee stated it was up to God when he was going to get out of Guantanamo Bay, Cuba and that he was perfectly happy here serving God.

18. When asked about his fighting experience in the Zeravich area, the detainee stated he did not really see much action and claimed he very seldom came in contact with the enemy. The detainee stated when he did come in contact with the enemy he would fire into the area where he thought the enemy was, and most likely the enemy would run away.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee stated he had nothing to do with al Wafa. It was a story he had made up because he was being beaten.

b. The detainee denied ever meeting or even seeing Usama bin Laden. He only knows of him through the media.

c. The detainee denied having any knowledge of the attacks in the United States prior to their execution on 11 September 2001.

d. The detainee denied knowledge of any rumors or plans of future attacks on the United States or United States interests.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. The AMO is not an advocate for or against

TO: ABDALLAH, SAYF BIN

SUBJECT: UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF ABDALLAH, SAYF BIN

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee admitted he went to Afghanistan as a mujahid to fight with the Taliban.

2. The detainee stated that while in Afghanistan for jihad, he utilized the alias Sayf Bin Abdallah.

3. The detainee was sent to Kabul, Afghanistan, where he spent four weeks at the Dar al Aman safehouse.

4. The Taliban then gave the detainee an AK-47 and bullets before flying him to Kundas, Afghanistan. From there, he was transported to the front lines at Khaoujaghar, Afghanistan.

5. One day prior to Ramadan, the detainee and others were told to withdraw towards Kandahar. The detainee was wounded during this trip and spent approximately 18 days in a hospital in Kandahar. He then withdrew to Khowst where he spent one night in a makeshift hospital.

b. Training

1. The detainee attended weapons handling training at Jabl Esabr ("Mountain of Patience") Camp. A Yemeni with the alias Abu Imed supervised these sessions.

2. The detainee stated he was trained on the AK-47, RPG, and the heavy machine gun (DSHK) while in Afghanistan.

c. Connections/Associations

1. In early interviews, the detainee claimed that the primary reason he started thinking about going to Afghanistan to do the jihad were tapes he had viewed of a blind Egyptian sheik, Abd Al-Hamid Kishk, who was advocating doing the jihad in Afghanistan.

2. Once when the detainee was listening to some religious tapes in the mosque in Via Baretto in Turin, an Arab named Nur Al-Din approached him, encouraging the detainee to go to Afghanistan.

3. The detainee and two other men obtained their tickets together at a travel agency in Milan, Italy.

4. A travel agency in Milan organized trips for Islamic militants traveling from Italy through Iran to Afghanistan.

5. The detainee and two other men met with an official of the Taliban Ministry of Foreign Affairs located at Herat, Afghanistan. The official had the men change into local Afghani clothing.

6. The detainee was identified by a known al Qaida member as serving in Afghanistan under Rida al Tunesi, the head of the Tunisian al Qaida faction in Afghanistan.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee denied having any knowledge of the attacks in the U.S. prior to their execution on September 11th.

b. The detainee admitted to hearing far-off sounds of battle but denied participating in any combat actions while at his outpost.

c. The detainee repeatedly claims he does not know his recruiter or travel companions.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. 1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. While in England in 1995 the detainee visited the Finsbury Park Mosque on several occasions.

2. Although the detainee claims to have traveled to Malaysia to see tourist sights in approximately January 2001, he could not provide locations or sights where he visited.

3. In early 2001 the detainee was at Usama Bin Laden's private airport in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

4. Another detainee identified the detainee as a mujahideen from Jeddah, Saudi Arabia that he met at Kandahar.

5. A detainee identified the detainee as being on the front lines near Taloqon, Afghanistan in April 2001. The detainee was assigned to an anti-aircraft artillery weapon.

6. The detainee resided in a Taliban guesthouse in Kandahar, Afghanistan.

7. The detainee resided in a Taliban guesthouse in Kabul, Afghanistan.

8. Although the detainee claims to have taught children in an orphanage, he does not know the name of the orphanage. The detainee could not recall any of the orphans' names nor could he remember how many orphans were there. The detainee was unable to provide any concrete information regarding this orphanage.

9. An al Qaida member identified the detainee as an al Qaida trained Arab fighter who was fighting the Northern Alliance at Tolaquin when the 11 September 2001 attacks occurred.

10. Another detainee identified the detainee as a member of al Qaida.

11. In October 2001 an al Qaida member saw the detainee at a safe house in Kabul and later in Tora Bora fighting in the KTAL region.

12. The detainee was armed with an AK-47 at Tora Bora.

13. A foreign government identified the detainee on a watch and arrest list for his trip to Chechnya.

b. Training

In early 2001 the detainee received basic training at the al Farouq training camp. Training included weapons training, basic commando course, topography and explosives.

c. Connections/Associations

The detainee was captured with a group of 30 men while trying to cross into Pakistan from Afghanistan on 15 December 2001. The group of 30 men included mujahideen, known al Qaida members and Usama Bin Laden bodyguards.

d. Intent

In April 2003 the detainee tried to organize a fatwa on Lima block. The Fatwa stated that if the Americans cut anyone's beard then all the detainees on Lima block should refuse to say anything at all to interrogators and should spit on all the guards.

e. Detainee Actions and Statements

1. The detainee remarked that the United States deserved what they got on 11 September 2001.

2. The detainee expressed admiration for the Taliban. The detainee said that Mullah Omar is a very good man who did a lot of good things for the people of Afghanistan.

3. The detainee said it is part of his duty as a Muslim to learn to fight and defend Islam.

f. Other Relevant Data

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

When the detainee was asked if things were confusing during the fighting, with people running up the hills and back down again and many people dying, he replied, "yes." When the detainee was asked if he fired at the Americans, he replied, "No, not at the Americans; we could not see them."

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee denied receiving any type of training at any camp in Afghanistan and further denied any connection or loyalty to al Qaida or Usama Bin Laden.

b. The detainee denied being in Tora Bora.

c. The detainee indicated that the citizens of the United States are hard working and that there lifestyle is good and he would not want to harm the United States. The detainee stated he does not like the terrorist attacks that occurred in the United States on 11 September 2001.

d. The detainee agreed with the idea that the United States is a super power and that they should use its powers to keep world peace.

e. The detainee said he has never met Usama Bin Laden and he has never heard of his fatwa against the Jews and Crusaders, which authorized and commanded Muslims to kill Americans, wherever they find them.

f. The detainee said he is unfamiliar with Usama Bin Laden's messages or his beliefs.

g. The detainee stated he believes the terrorist attack on 11 September 2001 was wrong.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee heard about U.S. bombings in Afghanistan and he felt it was a Muslim obligation to go to Afghanistan to help.

2. The detainee was placed in jail five separate times for seventy-two hours because of nonpayment of his debt by a judge whose name he could not recall.

3. The detainee stated that while in Bahrain, he was affiliated with Al Tabligh.

4. Al Tabligh is most likely identifiable with the Jamaat al Tabligh, a legitimate Islamic missionary organization based in Pakistan and believed to be used as a cover for action by Islamic extremists.

5. The detainee was asked to deliver an envelope containing $3,000 USD in $100 bills to Sheik Monsoor at the El Makki Mosque in Karachi.

6. The detainee boarded a bus headed for Pashawar. The Pakistanis arrested him and took $1,000 USD.

7. The detainee has been identified by two individuals as a high level member of al Qaida.

b. Training

UNCLASSIFIED

DMO Exhibit 1

1. The detainee served 12 years with the Bahraini Defense Force (BDF). In the summer of 1993, he received training on aircraft arms systems at Lowery AFB, Colorado for approximately two and a half months.

2. The detainee has been identified by another individual as being at the al Farouq training camp.

3. The al Farouq training camp was funded by al Qaida and therefore was more advanced than other training camps in Afghanistan.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee has used the alias Abu Ali.

2. The detainee was identified as a follower of Abu Sayyaf. The detainee met Abu Sayyaf in the Philippines in 1997 to discuss getting money to Arabs in Afghanistan.

3. The detainee was persuaded to go to Afghanistan for the jihad by Sheik Mustafa. Mustafa was a member of the Jamaat al Tabligh.

4. Sheikh Mansur worked for Jamaat al Tabligh at the al Makki Mosque in Karachi, Pakistan.

5. The detainee said there was a Pakistani man named Mohammed Bashir who drove him in a mini-van from Karachi, Pakistan to Kandahar, Afghanistan. Bashir is possibly associated with Jamaat al Tabligh, and works out of the al Makki mosque.

6. The detainee was injured in the neck, shoulder and leg in a grenade accident. Two others might have been killed in the accident.

d. Intent

1. The detainee felt the United States was wrong for attacking the Taliban because the U.S. never provided any evidence to support that UBL or al Qaida was involved with the Taliban government.

2. The detainee was questioned about his affiliation and belief in al Qaida and Usama Bin Laden (UBL). He would not directly answer any of the questions dealing with either al Qaida or UBL.

3. The detainee spoke to the interviewers in English and said: "Fuck you Americans! Bin Laden will get all of you Americans as he has already killed a lot of you."

c. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee was arrested in Saudi Arabia for attempting to create a new jihad organization in A'wkadin, Ethiopia. His name was on the list of those forbidden to travel for five years per decree, dated 23 Feb 1998, and he was also on the watch and arrest list for his trip to Chechnya, per ministerial decree dated 21 Feb 2002.

2. After their arrest in Pakistan, the Pakistani Warden of the prison informed the group that the best thing they could tell U.S. forces when interrogated was they were in Afghanistan to teach the Koran.

3. The detainee did not have his passport when he was arrested. He stated he had left it in Abdullah's village.

4. The detainee made his own arrangements and paid for his travel to Afghanistan.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. When asked by investigators what the detainee knew of the attack against the US, he was remorseful and stated that a good Muslim would not attack innocent people.

5. You will be afforded a meaningful opportunity to be heard and to present information to the Board; this includes an opportunity to be physically present at the proceeding. The Assisting Military Officer (AMO) will assist you in reviewing all relevant and reasonably available unclassified information regarding your case. 1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.
2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.
3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:
 - a. Commitment
 1. The detainee wished to travel to Chechnya and fight with fellow Muslims.
 2. The detainee specifically sought out military training to allow him to fight in Chechnya.
 3. The detainee was advised that prior to traveling to Chechnya to fight, he was required to obtain military training. The detainee was advised to contact Ali-Mahood when he was ready to begin his military training in Afghanistan.
 4. Ali-Mahood assisted the detainee in obtaining a travel visa for Pakistan and in making travel arrangements.
 5. Ali-Mahood's name was provided to the detainee by Salih Elharbi. Elharbi had previously fought in Chechnya and was encouraging Saudis to go to Chechnya.
 6. The detainee traveled from Riyadh, Saudi Arabia to Afghanistan via Kuwait; Lahore, Pakistan; and Quetta, Pakistan.
 7. The detainee served for approximately five months on the front lines north of Kabul.
 8. The detainee withdrew from the front lines around Kabul in November 2001.
 9. The detainee was identified as being at Tora Bora.

10. The detainee was part of a group of thirty individuals captured while trying to cross into Pakistan from Afghanistan on 15 December 2001. Several of these individuals are thought to have been bodyguards for Usama Bin Laden.

b. Training

1. The detainee trained at al Faruq training camp approximately 4 1/2 months prior to September 11, 2001.

2. The detainee left Al Faruq training camp two weeks prior to completion of his training in order to obtain first hand battle experience.

3. The detainee received training at the front lines on the assembly and disassembly of AK-47 rifles, as well as the rocket-propelled grenade launcher.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee stayed at the Daftar Taliban Madafa guesthouse in Quetta for several days.

2. Daftare Taliban is a Taliban office in Quetta, Pakistan, helping Arabs cross the border into Afghanistan by coordinating travel and lodging for a fee. The Taliban office advises Arabs to stay at houses in Kabul and Kandahar, Afghanistan, during travel.

3. The detainee stayed at the Al Ansar guesthouse which was run by Abu Khaloud. Abu Khaloud arranged for his training at the al Farouq camp.

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee was unable to explain why most of his group of thirty had the same cover story for leaving Afghanistan, which several have admitted to being false.

2. The detainee had three $100 U.S. bills in his possession at the time of capture, and was unable to explain why some of the other individuals he was captured with also had $100 U.S. bills.

3. The detainee initially stated he traveled to Afghanistan to perform missionary service.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee advised that he has no interest in traveling to Chechnya and that he has never had hard feelings towards the Americans.

REVIEW BOARD IN THE CASE OF AL HARBI, SALIM SULIMAN

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee traveled to Afghanistan in 1990/1991 for the Jihad.
2. The detainee sold his automobile to finance his trip to Afghanistan.
3. The detainee went to Afghanistan because he was advised drugs in Afghanistan were abundant and cheap to buy.
4. In early 2001, the detainee left home to seek an improved life in Afghanistan.
5. The detainee left Saudi Arabia in late 2001 to avoid his creditors.

b. Training

The detainee has experience using a rifle.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee's alias was in the pocket litter of a Mujahadeen traveling from Bosnia to Croatia in 1996.
2. After the detainee decided to go to Afghanistan, he was introduced to Darwish al Said, who facilitated the detainee's travel.

3. Darwish al Sayid is also known as Abu Hashim.

4. Abu Hashim al-Sayyid Darwish's name appears on a list of al Qaida martyrs that was discovered on a computer hard drive seized during the capture of a senior al Qaida operative.

5. The detainee stated that while living in Khowst, he was approached in a local market by a member of the Tablighi Jamaat. The two men traveled with other members of Tablighi Jamaat around Khowst to spread the word of Islam.

6. The detainee acknowledged that the Tablighi Jamaat might have been interested in recruiting someone similar to him to exploit his skills involving fraud, theft, drug trafficking, and travel.

7. The Tablighi Jamaat is also known as the Jama'at al-Tabligh. Many al Qaida operatives have joined the Jama'at al-Tabligh in order to travel in the guise of Islamic missionaries.

d. Intent

1. The detainee decided to leave Afghanistan after he controlled his drug habit. He traveled to Peshawar, Pakistan, with two Afghani men who were members of the Tablighi Jamaat. The detainee stayed with one of the men for three days at his home in Peshawar, and refused to provide further details on his capture.

2. The detainee took a taxi to the Afghanistan/Pakistan border, crossed the border on foot, and was detained by Pakistani authorities shortly after entering Pakistan.

3. The detainee was injured in a motorcycle accident, so he headed to Pakistan to seek medical attention. After walking for six to seven hours towards the Afghanistan/Pakistan border, the detainee was intercepted by Pakistani authorities.

4. The detainee claims he was on a bus that was hit during a United States air raid and received a head wound which left him unconscious for two days. An Afghan escorted him to the border crossing at Miramshah where he was apprehended by Pakistani authorities.

5. The detainee stated that Americans make a mockery of Islam, and Americans are at war with the detainees.

6. During an attempt to restrain the detainee, he kicked a guard in the head. The incident stemmed from the guards' response to the detainee turning a table over during an interview.

7. This detainee has a history of aggressive behavior towards detention personnel. The detainee has been disciplined numerous times for assault, harassing the guards, failure to comply, inciting disturbances, and hostile acts. He has threatened to kill the guards and interpreters. The detainee has taught other detainees how to fight, and has been found with a sharpened rock and metal strip inside his cell.

e. Other Relevant Data

1. A foreign government service stated the detainee was jailed in Makkah after some financial problems with Interpol in 1419 (1998/1999).

2. The detainee was in prison in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia for about one month and was then transferred to a prison in United Arab Emirates. He was imprisoned approximately seventeen months for defrauding a satellite cellular phone company of cellular phones, which he sold on the open market.

3. The detainee spent two years in prison for stealing and possession of a controlled substance.

4. According to United States Customs documents, the detainee traveled to the United States on June 16, 2001.

5. A foreign government service identified the detainee as a priority target.

6. The detainee stated he lost his passport in Khowst.

7. The detainee stated the Saudi Arabian Government sent his brother to the United States to attend college about 20 years ago.

8. The detainee stated he does not have a brother working at the Saudi Arabia Consulate in New York City.

9. Detainee denied he has or had, at any time, a brother living in the United States.

10. The detainee alluded to having knowledge pertaining to incidents that would be considered war crimes, but refused to discuss them.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. The detainee maintains he was not answering a fatwa or a call to jihad.

b. Because the Saudi Mullahs ruled that it was appropriate, the detainee did not object to the use of American troops in Afghanistan.

c. The detainee claims no knowledge of the Taliban, al Qaida, or prior knowledge of the 11 Sep 2001 attacks.

UNCLASSIFIED

d. Other Relevant Data

1. The detainee is on a foreign government watch list for his trip to Chechnya.

2. The detainee was jailed for his participation in a theft with two Nigerians who were deported.

3. The detainee spent 2 ½ years in Saudi prison accused by another prisoner of being involved in a theft of property.

4. The detainee left his passport and some money behind in Afghanistan.

5. The detainee was designated by the Saudi Ministry of Interior as a "high priority" detainee.

4. The following primary factors favor release or transfer:

a. A foreign government service believes the detainee to be of low intelligence or law enforcement value to the United States and also unlikely to pose a terrorist threat to the US or its interests.

b. The detainee claimed to have no knowledge of any war or armed conflict taking place in Afghanistan.

c. The detainee said that the Afghani who convinced him to go to Afghanistan was not a member of the Taliban.

d. The detainee claimed not to recognize al Qaida or al Wafa. The detainee advised that he read an article in a Saudi newspaper that mentioned that Usama Bin Laden was wanted by the authorities in Saudi Arabia, but did not know why they sought him. He was not aware of any fatwas issued by Bin Laden.

1. An Administrative Review Board will be convened to review your case to determine if your continued detention is necessary.

2. The Administrative Review Board will conduct a comprehensive review of all reasonably available and relevant information regarding your case. At the conclusion of this review the Board will make a recommendation to: (1) release you to your home state; (2) transfer you to your home state, with conditions agreed upon by the United States and your home state; or (3) continue your detention under United States control.

3. The following primary factors favor continued detention:

a. Commitment

1. The detainee said he first traveled to Afghanistan from Saudi Arabia around the beginning of 2001 to participate in jihad, which he deemed a religious obligation. Once in Afghanistan, the detainee attended training at the al Farouq training camp.

2. The detainee said he completed his training approximately three months after he entered Afghanistan, and he was then compelled to swear bayat to Usama bin Laden. The detainee stated he did this in person with Usama bin Laden, without any witnesses, while at Usama bin Laden's residence in Kandahar.

3. The detainee stated that sometime in the summer of 2001, after he swore bayat to Usama bin Laden, he was approached and asked to conduct a martyr mission from Usama bin Laden.

4. At the time the detainee agreed to conduct the mission there was no specific plan in place; however, the detainee knew that per his bayat and obligation he would be called upon at a later time to conduct a martyr mission.

5. The detainee said his decision to agree to conduct a mission stemmed from three basic fatwas. First was a fatwa in which he felt obligated to participate in jihad in Afghanistan. Second was a fatwa in which he felt obligated to swear bayat to Usama bin Laden. And third was a fatwa in which the detainee felt obligated to do whatever Usama bin Laden asked of him, including conducting a martyr mission, because he had sworn bayat to Usama bin Laden.

6. The detainee was instructed by a senior al Qaida official to obtain British and United States visas. The detainee was then provided airline tickets from Dubai to London to Orlando by his facilitator.

7. The detainee traveled to Orlando, Florida on 4 August 2001. He was unable to answer questions at airport customs and did not have a return ticket. After being denied entry into the United States, he returned to Dubai, United Arab Emirates. He applied for a second United States visa, and after it was denied he traveled to Afghanistan.

8. The detainee answered affirmatively when asked whether he would have completed whatever mission he was assigned when going to the United States.

b. Training

1. The detainee stated that after the completion of his basic training at al Farouq, he attended a city tactics course in Kandahar, Afghanistan, which lasted approximately one and a half months.

2. The detainee attended al Farouq training for a total of five to six months. His initial training lasted approximately two to three months and consisted of indoctrination, small arms (AK-47, handguns, grenades), and physical training. His advanced training also lasted approximately two to three months and consisted of small unit tactics and specialized weapons training.

c. Connections/Associations

1. The detainee identified two senior al Qaida members. He admitted to knowing these two individuals and meeting them in a safehouse in Kandahar, Afghanistan prior to 11 September 2001.

2. The detainee met personally with Usama bin Laden on four different occasions.

3. In February 2001 the detainee traveled from the Arab guesthouse in Kandahar, Afghanistan to Usama bin Laden's house in Kandahar, Afghanistan to give his allegiance to Usama bin Laden.

4. In April 2001, after graduating from advanced training, the detainee visited Usama bin Laden at his house to honor and praise him. The detainee told Usama bin Laden that he would continue to serve him as he would the prophet Mohammed. During this visit, Usama bin Laden instructed the detainee to contact a senior al Qaida official for instructions on how to serve his religion.
