From the N. York Journal Com. 49.1 do 1352 TROUBLE AMONG THE TRATES.

LATEST PROMINENTAL TO the polite attention of Captain Blanchard. of the brig Telegraph, which arrived at this port last night, in nine days from Matanzas, we are indebted for the following interesting items of intelligence. News had reached Matanzas of the cap ture on Key Sal Bank by a British man of war, after a severe action of a pirati cal schooner, supposed to be the same which had robbed and murniered the crew of the Attentive—she had previously been chassed, off Cape Antonio, by a Spanish brig-of-war, but escaped hy supperior sailing-and when captured had but 80 men alive. It is conjectured she was carried into Jamaica.

A planter from the interior came into Matanzas 3 days before the Telegraph sailed, who reported having seen a schooner and the boats of a man-of war engaged in a severe action in a bay about

A Spanish man-of-war brig, on the day previous to the sailing of the Telegraph, boarded a vessel supposed to be a pirate, and found several dead Spaniards on board—and having previously heard firing, stood to the Eastward, where she fell in with a brig which whent tat, dans la ville de la Nouvelle-Orléans, down a sew moments before she could et alongside—did not learn her name, or to what nation she belonged. From circumstances, judged her to have had scutled and abandoned her.

> A Boston brig which arrived just before the Telegraph sailed, reported having been chassed off the Double Headed Shor Key by a pirate; but night coming on she end avored to elude them.

> The U. S. ships Eric and Hornet sailed a week before the Telegraph, in our suit of two piratical schooners which had been seen off Cape Antonio.

> Pirates, known to be such, were daily pointed out in the Streets of Matanzas -but such is the wretched state of goverment there, that no one dare publicly and doubt, that they regularly communicate to their lawless comrades an account of what every vessel is laden with before leaving port.

Considerable alarm existed among the American merchants and masters of man journals which we have seen to- the Secretary of State, within ninety days after that very advantageous freights from or of what is passing in the East.
