MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1832.

FOR GOVERNOR,
J. B. DAWSON.

The northern mail arrived late last evening with New York papers of the 6th, Philadelphia of the 8th, and Washington and Baltimore of the 9th inst. The news from Pennsylvania's election.

The Argus is entitled to the very lowest depth in the abyss of contempt, for the lies it has, for six months, have absolutely reeled under the weight of infamy and calumny with which they teemed. Not content with the infamy that will surely follow its impudent efforts to deceive the public, it now pretends to dispute the republican triumph in this state, at the late presidential election. The cholera, it says, has prevented the Clintonians giving 500 majority.—The silk cord!—Does he not know that the epidemic was a two-edged sword, that cut Clintonians?—How long is it since the Argus claimed 100 majority for the Clay ticket?

The Argus wisely shrinks from a defence of the United States Bank. Since, however, it has so much reliance in its integrity, we shall be glad to be informed, who printed the minority report on the bank inquiry, in favor of withdrawing the check in payment? and who were engaged to circulate it in this state? When these questions are answered, perhaps we shall have something more to say of the United States Bank having showed itself in all its deformity.

BALTIMORE, November 9.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

We lay before our readers a few additional returns of the presidential election in Pennsylvania, from which it will be seen upon what a slender foundation our opponents have rested their hopes of being able to defeat the re-election of President Jackson. The reaction to his favour in that state bears down all before it. Anti-masonry, anti-Jacksonism, bankism, and all the contrivances and corruption that has been employed against him, have been scattered, like chaff in a storm. The keystone of the arch is still firm and unbroken, and continues to sustain the cause of Jackson and the country. She is first in the battle, and victory and glory perch upon her standard. She will be followed by a host that will carry the old hero a second time into the Presidential chair by an increased majority.—Repub.

THE FALL OF THE COALITION.

"And the flood came and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it."

The majorities in favor of the democratic electorial ticket are pouring in upon us by every mail. In the recent contest, democracy has swept all before it. Anti-masonry, anti-Jacksonism, and old federalism, have been triumphantly overwhelmed. "Democracy, Jackson and our country" has a magic about it that cannot be resisted.

To-day we subjoin a portion of the returns as a sample of what may be expected when the whole state shall be heard from. The majority for one ticket, as far as ascertained, is about 7000. In the same counties the majority for Ritner was 3110.

Berks county, a german anti-canal county, gave governor Wolf 323. At the election, on Friday, it gave the democratic Jackson electorial ticket 3388.

Lebanon, also a german and anti-canal county, gave Joseph Ritner the candidate of the anti-masonic and anti-improvement counties, 904 majority; but on Friday, no taxes operating upon the presidential contest, it gave 243 for the Jackson electors.

In Dauphin, a german and anti-masonic county where they gave Mr. Ritner 700 over governor Wolf on account of the tax laws, on Friday last the Jackson ticket had 50 majority.

In Montgomery, an anti-canal county, our electoral ticket has carried by 800. Our majority at the Gov. election was only 38.

In Schuylkill, a German county, Governor Wolf received a very large vote, yet on Friday, the majority was doubled on the electoral ticket, being 865.

In Northampton county, the majority will be very large, say 1700.

In the county of Philadelphia, the democratic electoral ticket carried by 232 majority.

The city of Philadelphia and county of Delaware, both of which were represented by Federalists in our State Legislature, during the late glorious war, have given small increased majorities for the anti-masonic ticket.

In Chester, an old federal county, the majority has been reduced from 1927 to 1460.

In Lancaster, an old federal, anti-canal and anti-masonic county, the majority against us is about 1200. It was 2263 at the late Gubernatorial election.

York, a German and anti-canal county, has given 1500 majority for our electoral ticket. The majority for Ritner in York county was 10.

Bucks county has given 231 majority for the anti-masonic ticket.

Lehigh, an anti-canal and German county, has given 1060 for our electoral ticket. The majority for Ritner in this county was 60.

In Mifflin, our majority is 313. At the late election Ritner's majority for Governor was 52.

Cumberland has given for the Jackson ticket a majority for 1011. In 1828 Mr. Wolf 610.

Northumberland has given 935 majority for Jackson. Gov. Wolf had 301.

In Juniata we have 247. Ritner had a majority of 6.

Union county.—We learn that New Berlin has given 91 Jackson majority.

Lycoming.—Williamsport has given 98 Jackson majority.

Columbia.—Bloomsbury has given 61 Jackson majority.

Luzerne.—Wilkesbarre has given a Jackson majority of 10, and Kingston 80.

The cost of the enemy is general in every quarter of the State.—Philadelphia Centinel.

PORT GIBSON, (Miss.) November 14.

UNITED STATES' SENATOR.

We are informed by a gentleman just from Natchez that Wharton C. Wilkins, esq. who had received the executive appointment of United States Senator, has refused to accept that office: John therefore still wears it.

We also learn that Mr. Wilkins has resigned his seat as president and director of the U. S. Branch Bank at Natchez, that Mr. L. M. Marshall, late cashier, has been appointed in his stead, and that the latter gentleman has been elected president of the institution.—Intelligencer.

From the New York Journal of Commerce.

FIVE DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND!
HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

About half past 3 o'clock this morning, our news schooner Evening Edition came up from below, with London papers to September 23d, and Liverpool to the 24th inclusive. They contain intelligence of the death of Sir Walter Scott—the death of the king of Spain—and the rejection by Belgium, of the ultimatum of the London Conference. The commercial advices are also interesting.

DEATH OF SIR WALTER SCOTT.

We learn from Capt. Burley and passengers, that a letter was sent on board the ship the day she sailed, for the lady of Judge Sewell of Quebec, with an announcement on the back of it that Sir Walter Scott died on the 22nd.

Letters have been received in Paris from Alexandria, dated the 16th of July, which state that a French despatch had been received at that place, announcing the capture of the Turkish camp at Hamah by the Egyptians.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 22.—This morning at 10 o'clock the United States packet ship Silas Richards, Capt. Nye, arrived from New York, and the Hamburg packet ship Emily, Capt. C. Duke, from Boston, sailed for Hamburg.

DEATH OF FERDINAND OF SPAIN.

LONDON, Sunday Evening, Sept. 23.—Intelligence has been received from Madrid to the 19th inst. of the death of the King of Spain. He died on the 29th of September. Much disagreement has existed among the Spanish Royal family, and he has been succeeded by his brother Don Carlos, who is a bigoted Catholic. He will be recognized by the great Powers of Europe, and no doubt will be supported by them. The Queen Regent, it is expected, will be deposed.

CHANGE IN THE BELGIAN MINISTRY.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Despatches have been received by M. Van de Weyer, the Belgian minister, from general Goblet, announcing the resignation of M. de Muelenaire, the present minister for Foreign Affairs, and the appointment of general Goblet in that post in his room.

The Belgic Chronicle says the Belgian Ministry is announced, but that not yet entirely settled, whether to replace them or not. Van de Weyer has received from general Goblet full powers to treat with the Dutch minister, Baron Von Zuylen, on the dispute between Holland and Belgium, but up to the present time, Baron Von Zuylen has received no powers from his court to treat with Mr Van de Weyer on the subject, and it remains to be seen whether the King of Holland will consent to such a mode of proceeding, taking for the basis of the recommendation of the conference.

It is said here, as stated by some of our contemporaries, that Leopold has accepted certain propositions from the conference, he has at the same time protested any thing will be suggested to him from that quarter, and the conference have merely advised the course which they wish him to follow. The retirement of M. de Muelenaire, and the other ministers, however, and the powers given to M. Van de Weyer to negotiate with the Baron Von Zuylen, are, we think, strong indications of a disposition on the part of Leopold, to adopt most, if not all, the suggestions of the conference.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The Russian ambassador, count Matuscewitz, has arrived in town to-day from Doncaster. He is supposed to have been sent for by the Dutch minister, to strengthen his position with regard to the conference of the English ministry. The meeting of the conference, which was to have taken place to-day, has been put off till Monday, and it is believed that Lord Grey has been sent for to assist at its deliberations.

Of the foreign funds the effect fluctuations to-day were in Dutch and Belgian, which have both declined. All the European securities are, however, more or less affected by the crisis which is believed to be impending.

REJECTION OF THE ULTIMATUM OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Saturday Evening, Sept. 22.—Very little excitement has been produced in the money market by the confirmation of the rumors respecting the note of the king of Holland, though in fact, to the general apprehension, it makes the alternative of a war all but inevitable. This is owing, probably, to the very contracted state of business and the almost total extinction of speculative transactions in the funds.—Had similar circumstances occurred a year or two back, they could not have failed to produce very material fluctuations. Consols left off at 84 1-8, and Exchequer Bills at 16 to 17 premium.

From the Sun, evenig of September 22d.

The expectations which were entertained by the conference of a speedy and satisfactory arrangement of the Belgian question, are at an end. On Thursday evening a sealed note, from the king of Holland to the conference, was given to Lord Palmerston by the Dutch Ambassador, Baron Von Zuylen, and last night the members of the conference having all assembled the note was opened and read by them. Instead of finding, as they had expected, an acknowledgment of the readiness of the king of Holland to treat with the king of Belgium, on their recommendations of the conference, and an appointment of Baron Von Zuylen with full powers to treat with M. Van de Weyer on the conference to their astonishment, as to the real indignation of some, as well as the avowed indignation of all, found a long note without the slightest allusion, to the proposal of negociations between M. Van de Weyer and Baron Von Zuylen, or to the suggestions of the conference.

The note commences by an expression of surprise on the part of the writer, M. de Verstolk, in the name of the king, his master, at the delay which has attended the Belgian question since the conditions on which the king was willing to treat had been made known to the conference and to the Belgians, and then proceeds, in language which is intended to be courteous, but which is not to be misunderstood, to complain of the support given by the conference to revolutionary principles, and to declare that, whatever may be the conduct of the great powers, the king of Holland, relying on the justice of his cause, and on the support of Divine Providence, will know how to maintain his honor without the necessity of conceding points which are of vital importance to his country.

The note is of great length, but we have given its chief character. It is evidently intended only for further delay, and, unless France and England should act a decisive and manly part, that object will be gained. Let us hope, however, that the two cabinets will see their interest, and unite in a resolution to compel the king of Holland to conclude a treaty with Belgium, on terms which, without being dishonorable to him, shall be fair and liberal towards his former subjects.

The position of Leopold is now one of great difficulty; but, as regards his country and France, it is better than it was a few days ago. By taking upon himself to accept the proposals of the conference, contrary to the declared wishes of his chambers, and to dismiss a ministry acting in accordance with those bodies, he has shown his desire for peace, and has now a direct claim for support on the British and French cabinets. The king of Holland has rejected all overtures for peace, except on his own terms; and if Belgium be abandoned by us and France, after the concession offered by her king at the risk of his own popularity with his people, the two governments will be guilty not only of great meanness, but of great injustice; and the next thing to be expected will be a dictation to England and France, on matters directly concerning their own honor and safety, by some petty state, acting as the puppet of Russia, Austria or Prussia.

From the London Times, Sept. 22.

We have learned with regret, not unmixed with astonishment and indignation, that his Dutch Majesty has refused to treat on the reasonable modifications of the treaty of Nov. 15, which we mentioned yesterday, and which were lately transmitted to the Hague, by the President of the Conference on the part of Belgium. His Majesty's answer is at once insulting and evasive—insulting to the conference, and evasive of the question at issue—declining to make any new proposition of his own, and taking no notice of the propositions made on the other side.

This extraordinary answer was yesterday delivered to the conference, specially convened to deliberate upon its nature and contents.

The conference, which has been so grossly insulted, cannot permit this insidious game to be pursued any farther. It is evidently the interest of Austria and Prussia that the Belgic affairs should be settled; and it is no less the interest than the duty of France and England to become the instruments of such a salutary work. His Dutch majesty can place his only reliance on the infamous Government of Russia, which, desirous of embroiling Western Europe, that it may perpetrate unmolested all its intended barbarities in Poland, has no doubt encouraged his Dutch majesty in his present dangerous course.

EXPRESS FROM PARIS.

LONDON, Sept. 22, evening.

An express from Paris has arrived to-day with the letters of Thursday, and every thing indicates that France is perfectly ready to second the decision of the conference by a movement against Holland, should that step be deemed advisable. Troops are collected on the frontier next Belgium, and could, it is conceived, be in Brussels in a very short time. The Duke of Orleans has left Paris for Brussels, it is supposed, to convey to Leopold the opinions of the French ministry, and to explain the course which is intended to be pursued in the event of the King of Holland proving refractory. The late communication from the Hague, which we have before the London conference yesterday, was not known in Paris, but every expectation existed that it would turn out as unsatisfactory, as has really proved to be the case. It is perfectly understood, however, that the French troops will not move without the concurrence of the English ministry. The occupation of England, by sending a fleet into the Scheldt, is desired by France, but hitherto that, the consent of the ministry to the march of the French troops into Belgium will be deemed sufficient. The funds fell about one per cent. in Paris on Thursday, in consequence of the feeling that an interference on behalf of Belgium had become all but inevitable.

Arrival of Volunteers de Bern to Holland.—The Gazette des Pays Bas says:—"What a people they are—Breaks of Bonaparte days of '14 and '15 for the discourse Bern, she has been received with great interest in Holland, where she has just arrived, and where she will shortly embrace her husband and her children."

DON PEDRO'S EXPEDITION.

There are no later accounts from Portugal. Reinforcements to aid the cause of Don Pedro were continually departing.

LONDON, Sept. 23.

The ship Wellington East Indiaman, a large ship of one hundred and fifty guns, has been lately purchased by the agents of Don Pedro, after having come several voyages to the East Indies, and is now being cleaned, altered and repaired, Rabbs ship building yard of Messrs. Kent and Curling, at Limehouse. This fine vessel will be fitted for sixty guns, and will, it is to be transformed into a line of battle ship sufficient to cope with the largest class of men of war in Don Miguel's navy. She will prove a valuable, powerful reinforcement to the fleet of Admiral Sartorius.

The Echo says:—"A steamer of 300 tons sailed from Falmouth on Tuesday last for Oporto, with the Marquis Palmella, Senhor [illegible] Senhor Soares, and Senhor Costa, Vasconcellos, Clarke and Gurney on board. Admission in the Tagus, Prince Maria da Gloria is said to have sailed from Falmouth on Saturday last for Lisbon. The Queen has been daily expected, waiting for the arrival of a messenger with despatches, who arrived on Tuesday, and the steamer sailed immediately."—Plymouth Herald.

Major Lorens, who came home from Oporto on leave, in consequence of differences, as we are informed, with Colonel Hodges, is about to return to Portugal, accompanied by a general officer of considerable experience, under whose command Count Villa Flor is to act during the absence of Sir [illegible]. COMMERCIAL.

Correspondence of the Journal of Commerce.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 22, 1832.

We have again had a large business in our Cotton market this week, the sales of all sorts amounting to about 37,000 bales. The leading of the week was on Tuesday, when there was a free demand for the middling qualities, and prices were fully supported. On Wednesday and Thursday they fell off a little in demand, and some parcels declined a trifle in price.

Our import of cotton into the ports of the Kingdom since the 1st January, amounts to 748,000 bales, against 708,000 to the same time last year, and of Asiatic cotton alone our supply has been 180,000 against 239,000 bales to the same time last year, showing a decrease in the latter of 59,000 and an increase in the former of the same number of bales.

The sales of the week is follows, in Am. cotton 30,000 bales, Uplands 11d to 18, 180 Mobile 11 to 18, 10 200 Upland and Mobile, 11 to 14, 140 Alabama 11 to 18, 220 Orleans 11 to 18, 3740 Tennessee 10 to 17.

Speculators, of the above, took about 10,000 bales, almost all American, and export buyers about 500. The advancement to the Trade at our advance generally of ¼d per lb. and in some instances ½d advance was obtained. The chief sales during the week in Upland and Mobile, were from 6¾ to 6¾, and in Tennessee from 6¾ to 6¾. It will be seen that 140 bales of Upland have been sold at 8d the quality very fine. For the last day or two we have had some enquiry for St. Island, and sales of this description were made at full prices. The sales this day amount to about 5000 bales, the market very steady.

From another letter, Liverpool, Sept. 24th.—The sales of cotton on Saturday were 5000 bags, of which 1000 were on speculation. Prices have risen ¼d per lb in all but the highest qualities, since the 14th, and is fully established on all sorts. Our stock is now 230,000 bales against 312,000 at this time last year.
