is it for the Legislature to enact sound and wise laws carefully, heedfully and after necessary discussion, even thou, the session be greatly prolonged beyond us ordinary term, than hastily to slur over a work of such immeasurable importance. The labor that is thoroughly and properly performed now, will sparie an infinite deal of contusion and mischief hereafter, as well as avert from another Legislature the ungrateful task of revising the acts and corrections the

A proposition is before the House, and has been referred to the Committee on Public Education to purchase from the Hon. Charles Gavarre, three hundred copies of his History of Louisiana. We learn with unmingled surprise that the committee are somewhat reluctant to report in favor of the resolution, on the ground that the work being written in French, will not be generally useful. The objection is a shallow one, and should have little weight beside the considerations which militate in favor of the purchase.

We oake the broad ground that talent, industry and research, especially when exerted in a patriotic lather.
