ABOLITION AND THE SOUTH.

ARRIVAL OF THE SOUTH. The Northern Mail comes through yesterday with the exception of New York papers which are held back. The Bee has published for several days a series of articles on the subject of the late Convention of the American party, and the course of the Bee has been to report the proceedings of the Convention as they were given to the world by the press of the North. The Bee has published for several days a series of articles on the subject of the late Convention of the American party, and the course of the Bee has been to report the proceedings of the Convention as they were given to the world by the press of the North.

OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

The slavery question has been again on the tapis in the House, brought there by a proposition of Mr. HARRIS, member from the State of Indiana, to re-adopt the Missouri Compromise. This comes of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise by the passage of Kansas-Nebraska bill, which will, in the language of the Charleston, B. O. News, "quadruple the number of slave States in the Union." The proposition is a bill which was introduced by Mr. HARRIS, member from the State of Indiana, to re-adopt the Missouri Compromise. This comes of the repeal of the Missouri Compromise by the passage of Kansas-Nebraska bill, which will, in the language of the Charleston, B. O. News, "quadruple the number of slave States in the Union."
