The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1854.

THE DAILY BEE.

Wednesday, July 1, 1854.

THE BEE IS WEIGHED.

It is known that there is no absence in importance between slaves and negroes and that the former are the more numerous. Mr. George Stagg, a violent abolitionist Representative in Congress from New York, recently addressed his colleagues in the House, and said that he had been instrumental in the acquisition of Canada, Mexico, South America and the Sandwich Islands. He was the opinion of his colleagues that the negroes were the masters of the slaves. Northern Southerners, who shall have nothing to do with the negroes, will be compelled to do so.

Mr. George Stagg may be thought to be a man of great ability himself, but it is not to be expected that he will come to the Union as a slave.
