WEDNESDAY MORNING OCTOBER 18, 1827.

The Express mail has arrived, but contains no news. The Post and Tribune are silent.

We publish in our paper of to-day, a letter from the late Editor of the Bee, descriptive of Grenada Town, an island as appropriate place for a summer residence.

The unanimous resolutions of the Council of the 1st Municipality, directing its members to wear crape for the left arm thirty days, as a token of respect to the memory of the Reverend Adam Knudson, is a praise-worthy tribute to the dead.

The Western Indians of the D'Iberes and Shawnees tribes, engaged by the government to march against the Seminoles, reached the Arkansas Post yesterday for the place of rendezvous, in their quarter of the country, in high spirits, and well furnished with arms and ammunition. It is no ordinary thing to see a body of Indians, in their native state, full of confidence, who consent to march into the swamps and marshes of Florida. Indian treachery is proverbial, and if proper caution be not observed such an event as the massacre of Fort Mimms will occur as usual.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS

Tuesday, October 16.

The bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to subscribe for 1500 shares of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, passed both houses. The appropriation bill has now make it the law of the land. The vote in the Senate, on the passage of the bill was ayes 127, nays 57. Mr. Southard's proposition to make the appropriation $100 for this purpose was rejected.

The Wire House Bill, authorizing the deposite of Cabinas offered to the public stores, was taken up. Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky, moved to strike out the clause authorizing the commissioner to pass on the duties by giving bonds, or to deposite the goods in the public warehouses without the duties. The question was negatived. After some remarks by Messrs. Johnson and Webster, the bill was laid on the table, on a resolution of Mr. Clay.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. Rhetts, from the committee on the Post Office and Post Roads, reported a bill to establish certain post roads. The bill regulating the fees of District Attorneys was taken up and passed by the house.

The resolution directing the post master general to report to the next session of congress the number of letters sent by members of congress, free of postage, was taken up and passed by the house.

We extract the following from the New York Courier and Enquirer:

BY Among the passengers in the Europa for Liverpool, we observe the names of Mr. Gallatin, late Minister to England, the late Cashier of the Bank of the United States, Mr. Biddle, and Mr. Samuel Ward, late of Maine. Mr. Ward is the bearer of despatches from the British government to Mr. Canning, and is the bearer of the treaty between Great Britain and the United States, which has been ratified by the President without the alteration or consent of the Senate, and which will be laid before Parliament immediately on the meeting of that body.

Among the recent bank suspensions in New York there is one of the French bank—and the Journal of Commerce says:
